-The box social held on March 6, by Capt. Stow Post, was a decided success both financially and socially, but much of the success depended on outside help. At a regular meeting of the Post on March 20, the Adjutant was instructed to express, through the Tionesta papers, the gratitude of the Post for the very excellent coffee provided by the Relief Corps, and also to all who furnished, auctioned and purchased the boxes and partoek of the social. They are assured that their work is fully appreciated. J. W. Morrow, Adjt.
