Beath of Mrs. Charles Weingard.

Mary Weingurd, wife of Charles F Weingard, dird after a lingering illness of consumption, at her home on Cropp Hill, Tionesta township, Wednesday, May 17, 1899, aged 35 years, 7 months and 17 days. The deceased was a daughter of the late Jacob Wagner, and was born and reared to womanhood on the old homestead near Huddleson school house, Tionesta twp. Feb 25, 1882, she was united in marriage with Mr. Weingard, who with a lamily or six children, three sons and three daughters, survive her, the youngest being a babe of about 15 months. At the age of fourteen years she was confirmed and became a member of the Lutheran church, but of late years had been a faithful attendant at the Church of God, and died in the certainty or a iome in heaven. Mr. Charles J. Stewart of Endeavor conducted the funeral services in the Saints meeting house on Albaugh Hill, on Thursday afternoon, after which the remains were laid to rest in the Lutheran church yard on German Hill. The grief stricken husband and children, thus bereft of a loving wife and nother, desire to return thanks to the neighbors and friends for their aid and words of comfort in this great affliction.

Lo! The Poor Postmaster.

Who would want to be a postmaster if he couldn't go to places and have fun? The Postmaster General has decided to impose the fate of Dreyfus on them. An order recently i sued by him reads: The Mammoth House-Furn-Postmasters at Presidential postoffices are required to give their personal attention to the business of their offices, and not absent themselves therefrom for a longer period than one or two days without authority granted upon written application to the department. A violation of this order will be deemed sufficient cause for removal." Now just look at that. If our postmaster wants to visit in Cranberry from now until Monday, or yearns to join his famfly out in Ohio, he must first make a written application to the big Smith of the P. O. department. Verily the rights of the individual are fading away. The erstwhile freeman has become, like politics, a machine. Meanwhile, watch our postmaster. If he attempts to get across the city limits without a permit Irom the P. O. D., hand him over to the high muck-a muck. Let us make him feel that his only safe plan is to stick to the shop and hang out the sign, "We Are Here to Stay."-Franklin Spectator.
