MONTHLY CROP REPORT

Returns Made to the Department of Agriculture.

in Increase of Acreage in Corn is Noted, Amounting to Five Per Cent Over That Harvested Last Year-The Condition of Winter Wheat Has Further Declined. Condition of Other Cereals.

WASHINGTON, July 11 .- Following is the monthly grain crop report just issued by the department of agricul-

Preliminary returns to the statisticlan of the department of agriculture on the acreage of corn planted indicate an increase of about 5 per cent over the acreage harvested last year. Of the 21 states having 1,000,000 acres or upwards in corn'last year all but Virginia, Kentucky and Ohio show an increase, and the decrease in the three states named is very small. A much larger increase than has actually taken place is reported as having been contemplated. but a late or otherwise unfavorable planting season has restricted operations in Illinois. Indiana and several other important states. The average condition is 86.5, as compared with 90.5 on July 1, 1898, 82.9 at the corresponding date in 1897, and 91.1, the mean of the July average for the last 10 years. The condition of the principal states is as follows: Ohio and Missouri, 85; Indiana, 90; Illinois, 86; Iowa, 81; Kansas, $2, and Nebraska, 93.

The condition of winter wheat ha further declined during the month of June, being 65.6 on July 1, as compared with 85.7 on July 1, 1898, 81.2 at the corresponding date in 1897, and 82.4, the mean of the July averages for the last

The average condition of spring wheat is 91.7, as compared with 91.4 one month ago, 95 on July 1, 1898, 91.2 at the corresponding date in 1897 and 88.7, the mean of the July averages for the last 10 years. The principal state averages are as follows: Minnesota, 95; Iowa, 93; Nebraska, 73; South Dakota, 102. and North Dakota, 94.

The average condition of winter rye is 83.3, as compared with 93.8 on July 1. 1898, 95 at the corresponding date in 1897, and 90.5 the mean of the July averages of the last 10 years. The condition in New York and Pennsylvania, the two principal winter rye producing states, is 93 and 87 respectively.

The average condition of spring rye is 89.7, as against 96.9 on July 1, 1898, 90 at the corresponding date in 1897 and 90.6, the mean of the July averages for the last 10 years. The condition in Wisconsin, the principal spring rye producing state, is 94.

The average condition of the oat crop is 90, as against 88.7 one month ago, 92.8 on July 1, 1898, 87.5 at the corresponding date in 1897, and 87.7, the mean of the July averages for the last 10

The average condition of barley is 92, 1, 1898, 88.5 at the corresponding date in 1897, and 88.3, the mean of the July averages for the last 10 years. The condition in New York and California is 88, in Wisconsin 98 in Minnesota. Iowa, 100; South Dakota, 95; and North

There is an increase of 1 per cent in the acreage in potatoes and the crop promises well.

The wool report indicates the average weight per fleece as being 5.95 pounds, an increase of .15 pounds over

The proportion of the wheat crop of 1898, still on farms, is reported at 9,5 per cent, or about 64,000,000 bushels. The condition of the forage crops and principal fruits will appear in the printed report, the unprecedentedly large number of correspondents reporting this month having rendered it impossible to tabulate all the products reported upon in time for the telegraphic synopsis, even by working overtime,

PARIS NOT GIVEN UP.

Work of Blasting the Rocks That Hold the Big Ship Goes On.

LONDON, July 10 .- Two months of exposure on the Cornish rocks has given the Paris the appearance of a derelict of years' standing. Captain Watkins, the officers and 30 of the crew remain on board night and day, hoping against hope. The life is exceeding tedious, but there is no danger in fine weather and little even when an east wind dashes the big waves against her sides. The coastguards are then on the alert and ready with the rocket apparatus in case of danger.

Pilots are regularly aboard ready to steer the Paris into the harbor when she is freed, but the divers have a slow and dangerous task. The rocks which hold the big ship are being carefully blasted and hundreds of tons have already been blown up to enable the divers to reach the main injuries beneath the bollers and engine rooms. Tons of rocks are being placed in the ship's stern in order to tilt up her bows in readiness for the next high tide when the tugs will again attempt to release her.

WARREN. O., July 7 .- A large gold strike in the Klondike is reported to relatives here A. M. Hilcher says that at Dawson, Professor Lippey, formerly of Oberlin and Kinsmann, this state, had two and a half tons of gold in his cabin. Lippy was among the original prospectors and was offered $1,000,000 for his claim last year. His claim has proven the richest in the district. The news is contained in extracts from a Skaguay paper which says Lippy's claim is yet much

May Some Day Rule Russia. ST. PETERSBURG, July 11.-The ezar's brother, Grand Duke Michael of Russia, is heir apparent on account of the death of his brother, Grand Duke George. He is at present in London, but will at once go to St. Petersburg to attend the funeral of his brother. It is understood the czar will shortly is sue a ukase ordaining that in the event of a minor succeding to the throne his brother, Grand Duke Michael, is to act as regent.

WAR MAY YET TAKE PLACE.

Great Britain is Not Satisfied With th Concessions In the Transvani.

LONDON. July 10. - It is an undoubted fact that the war office is making some rather important preparations in South Africa that tend to offset partly the week's improvement in the diplomatic relation with the Transvaal. There is a somewhat unfavorable significance also in the fact that Boer opinion continues to incline toward the probability of eventual hostilities. Inasmuch as the Boers have the making of the situation in their own hands as the case now stands their pessimism means more than would a similar feeling on the other side. The English press utterances on the situation are of no value and most of them are open to serious suspicion.

It is a common error to suppose that all the outstanding difficulties will be solved by granting a modified franchise to the Uitlanders. There are a number of comparatively minor matters which Colonial Secretary Chamberlain intends to have cleared up. Moreover, he is understood to be disposed to press the Boer government for guarantees that the franchise, once given to the Uitlanders, will not be taken away or stulified by later legislation. In this connection it is important to remember that the volksraad claims supreme control over all the laws and has on more than one occasion enforced that claim.

A dispatch from Johannesburg to the Central News says that the volksraad by an overwhelming majority agreed to an extension of the franchise and authorized the appointment of five mem-bers to discuss with the government the drafting of a new franchise law. This dispatch comes from an essentially Rhodesite authority.

A dispatch from Rome says that the German steamer Reichstag sailed from Naples on July 1 with 15,000 rifles, 500 tons of war material and 100 mules for the Transvaal,

A dispatch from Pretoria to a local news agency says that the new franchise scheme agreed to by the lower house of the volksraad will be submitted to the upper house this week.

The bill grants the franchise to al persons who are naturalized at the time of the passage of the act or have resided in the country five years. Future new-comers will be enfranchised after seven years' residence, with optional naturalization. Children allens born in the Transvaal will be enfranchised upon reaching the age of 21

DEADLY CROSSING.

Six Nembers of Cne Family Killed an the Remaining One Injured.

COLUMBUS, O., July 10 .- All but one of the seven members of the famlly of William Reinhard of this city, were killed, and the remaining one was badly injured by a Big Four passenger train.

The injured man is Clarence Reinhard, aged 21, collar bone broken.

Mr. and Mrs. Reinhard and their five children were out for an after noon drive in a surrey. They crossed the tracks just as the westbound passenger train, due here at 3:15 p. m. came along. The vehicle was knocked into splinters and Mr. and Mrs. Rein hard and Arthur and Karl were killed outright. Edward and William, Jr were so badly injured that they died after being removed to a hospital Clarence sustained a fractured collar one and other lesser injuries, but it is believed he will recover.

The horse which was attached to the surrey was literally ground to pieces, The crossing has long been regarded as a dangerous one, the view of incom ing trains being obscured by a high fence around the fair grounds. The train was running at a high speed.

Another Grade Crossing Fatality. BUFFALO, July 10.-Wabash train No. 8, running over the Erie tracks killed William Diem, 29 years old, and

Walden avenue crossing. The two young people were riding 'in a carriage and were warned by the flagman not to drive on to the track. Diem disregarded the warning and whipped up his horse, driving to what must have apparently been sure death. Diem was employed as city agent by Adam, Meldrum & Anderson, the drygoods firm, and the young woman worked at Peter Pfeiffer's bakery at No. 256 Genesee street, living with Pfeiffer's family. Her home was at East Eden, this county.

Coroner Wilson was notified and he ordered the bodies removed to the morgue. Diem lived with his parents at No. 121 Cedar street.

Wife of the Twin Leaves Him, and II is Seeking Another,

LONG BRANCH, N. J., July 8. There is much interest here in the reconcilation of George M. Pullman and his mother, which took place at Eiberon, and as a result of the reconcillation it is said that the young man who married his twin brother's fiance, Miss Lyn Fernald, will return to Chicago with his mother.

Young Pullman's wife left for th West a few days ago, and rumor has it that the son is easting eyes at one of the fairest young women in Long Branch. An alliance in that direction is to be expected should the present Mrs. Pullman decide to get a release. The other twin, Walter Sanger Pullman, married the daughter of a Cali-

Soldiers Suffering Severely on That Account - Soldiers Compelled to Sleep With Three Feet of Water Beneath Them - Some Hopes for the Release of the Spanish Prisoners.

MANILA, July 10.-It has been raining and storming almost constantly for two days and the country along the American south and bay lines is literally flooded. The soldiers are suffering great discomfort. The Thirteenth infantry regiment at Pasay is in the worst position, being practically surrounded by water. The bridges that were used for getting supplies have been washed away, and some of the companies are now separated by streams six feet deep. In many cases the men are sleeping with three feet of water beneath their boxes. The company cooks when preparing the meals stand knee-deep in Some of the roads leading to Pasay are simply impassable and the rice fields on all sides are one great lake.

HOPES FOR SPANISH PRISONERS. The Last Spanish Garrison In the Philipplies Finally Surrenders.

MANILA, July 7.- The Spanish commissioners who went to Tariac for a conference with Aguinaldo regarding the surrender of the Spanish prisoners in the hands of the Filipinos have just returned. Chairman Del Rio of the commission said the release of all the prisoners had been practically arranged for, but it would be necessary to consult the Spanish government before the agreement could be ratified. He declined to give the terms of the arrangement or to say whether these contemplated a ransom. He asserted, however, that Aguinaldo has already issued a decree for the release of the civilians officials and the sick soldiers.

The commissioners, with the remnant of the Spanish garrison of Baler, on the coast of Luzen, and a number of civilian prisoners were escorted by Filipino soldiers from Tarlac to the Amerlean outposts at San Fernando and came to Manila by the night train.

ler, where the Spanish soliders resisted an insurgent siege for more than a year, formed a picturesque band. Lieutenant Martin, the only surviving officer, marched through the streets. There are only 22 and most of them are mere boys, in faded blue cotton uniforms and red shirts. They are barefooted. A crowd of Spanish men and women embraced them, weeping and shouting their praises.

They tell a remarkable story. It appears that the captain several times proposed to surrender, but the soldiers refused. Finally some months ago, he tried to raise a white flag. Thereupon Lieutenant Martin killed him with his

Their food supply gave out entirely a week ago, and they surrendered to the Filipinos with all the honors of war, They were allowed to keep their arms and they marched from Baler, with a Filipino escort and carrying guns, through several insurgent camps, everywhere being cheered and feted.

Famous Ballad Writer Died Penniless NEW YORK, July 11 .- Charles Graham, the ballad writer, whose song have been sung, played and whistled everywhere, is dead in Bellevue hospital. In spite of the great popularity of his songs he is said to have died penniless. For most of his work he was poorly paid. One of his greatest successes "Two Little Girls In Blue" brought him only $10. Mr, Graham was born in Boston, England, in 1863. He inherited his musical gifts from his father, who was a musician and composer. Mr. Graham leaves a widow and five children.

Premeditated and Deliberate Murder. JAMESTOWN, N. Y., July 11 .- The coroner's jury in the case of the death of Mrs. Margaret R. Beaumont rendered a verdict charging Squire Tankard with her death, the act being one of premeditated and deliberate murder Tankard has so far recovered from his self-inflicted wounds as to be able to plead not guilty, waive examination and be taken to the county jail at Mayville to await trial.

FLEECED MERCHANTS. The Pittsburg Gramophone May Soon He Under tyrest.

HARRISBURG, July 8.-The Harrisburg police expect to round up in the next 48 hours Joseph Hartman, the Pitts-gramophone man, who is charged with fleecing local merchants out of goods amounting to $5,000. He was in New York city on Saturday and called at the headquarters of the National Gramophone company. He was to call again, but did not make his appearance. It is thought the goods which Hartman shipped away last Friday night are stored in one of the big auction rooms in Philadelphia, and efforts are being made to locate them.

Chief Kautz has learned of other merchants being fleeced, and the list is a big one. The greatest loser, it was thought, was E. L. Rickenbach, but since Hartman's departure it has been learned that his house was furnished with the best silver ware, knives and forks. Where these were purchased is not known, but it is thought in Pittsburg.

Those who are said to be victimized are Frank Keet, drugs; Forney & Knouse, drugs; E. L. Rickenbach. watches, rings and diamonds; Bowman & Co., linen and drygoods; Groceryman A. Paxtang, for groceries; D. C. Cottrel, typewriters and stationery: Harrisburg Typewriter company, typewriters; Weakley & Mumma, funlture; Dr. Peters, services; Thomas S. Peters, rent; janitor, three weeks wages; clerks, salaries and several advertising and printing bills.

Mr. Rinkenbach has letters showing that Hartman had sales for watches and appeared to be all right. It is also claimed that Hartman had bought $160 worth of watckes and diamonds at a Cincinnati house and had given an order for $1,500 worth more on the strength of his statement that he had lived in Harrisburg a number of years, The firm had their attorney in this city look Mr. Hartman up and stopped the delivery of the first order. Of course the second order was cancelled. This was on Thursday and Hartman disappeared Friday night.

MAY BE INSANE. A Murderer Who Had No Apparent Motive For His Crime. SCRANTON, Pa., July 7 .- Full details from the murder at Simpson fail to disclose any immediate cause for Hennesey's killing of his bride of two months, and the supposition follows that it was an insane act.

They had had frequent bickerings since the first week of their marriage, but were not by any means on terms of enmity. When the fatal shot was fired Mrs. Hennesey and her mother, who was her guest over the Fourth of July, were looking for Hennesey to join them in a stroll. He drew a revolver from his pocket as he came up with them, and without a word sent a bullet through his wife's head. The ball entered the eve and she dropped dead. The mother swooned and the murderer, leaving the two women lying on the roadside, fled to Carbondale, where he gave himself up.

Jeffries, a wealthy resident of Germantown, died recently and in his will he divided his estate, valued at $640, 000, among the children of his brothers and sisters. Among the heirs are Susanna and Sarah Jeffries, who are being educated at the Soldiers' Orphan school at Chester Springs. Their share of Jeffries' estate is $23,000, which will be placed in the care of a guardian until they are of age.

Their father was Joseph C. Jeffries who served three terms of enlistment in the Union army in the Seventeenth Pennsylvania, three months' men, the Third Pennsylvania cavalry and the Seventy-seventh Pennsylvania infantry until the close of the war, when he settled in Steelton, where he died in 1892. The mother then removed to Harrisburg with her two daughters and two sons. In time the sons were sent to Girard college and a year ago the two girls were secured admission into the Chester Springs school.

WILKES-BARRE, Pa., July 7.-The coroner's jury investigating the case of the man whose body, minus the head, was found in a bag in the Susquehanna river, returned a verdict that the deceased came to his death from causes unkown, and that the body had been placed by some persons unknown where it was found.

Dr. Edwards, who performed postmortem examination, testified that both thigh bones were severed with a saw to enable the doubling of the legs over the body. There were incisions on the back and front of the body, as well as incisions in the arms anl legs, exposing the muscles and arteries, similar to those made by surgeons.

County Detective Johnson says he has not the slightest clue as to who the dead man is, or whether he died from WASHINGTON, Pa., July 7 .- Four tramps accused of the murder of William Akers, the West Virginia soldier, who was killed on a box car on the Baltimore and Ohio, near here last Friday morning, were held for court by the coroner's jury, to await the action of the grand jury.

The inquest was held by Coroner Fitzpatrick, in the small court room, and after hearing the testimony the jury returned the following verdict "That William Akers came to his death by a bullet from a revolver, as we believe, in the hands of William Dickey Charles Jordan, Theodore Farthels and Robert Purcell, who were in the car at the time of the tragedy." The four men were again placed in Jail. The inquest did not develop much new testimony in the case.

Kissing ting Causes Loss of Life. PHILADELPHIA, July 7 .- The first death in this city due to the kissing bug, occurred in the Mary J. Drexe home, the victim being William Martin, 6 years old. The boy was sleeping in bed at his home Monday night, the windows in the room being wide open When called in the morning the child's face was much swollen. There was a purple spot the size of a pir just over the lip surrounded by the inflammation. The physicians pronounced it a case of poisoning caused by the kissing bug.

his lifelong friend, Rev. John Hall, died. A second shock to him was the death of his son, Andrew Allen Bonner on Dec. 27 last. After this, Mr. Bonner's temperament changed completely. He made

A week ago Tuesday, he took his last drive. On his return home his case was so serious that several doctors were called in consultation with his family physician, Dr. Munn. He became much worse on the following day and since then took no nourishment He lost consciousness early Thursday morning and remained in that condition to the end.

Robert Bonner was born in Londonderry, Ireland, April 28, 1824. He first settled in this country in Hartford, Conn. He was president of the Scotch-Irish society of America, the only society with which he was identified.

ST. JOHNS, N. F., July 1.-The colonial authorities are understood to have been informed that the report of the royal commission of inquiry into the French shore complications are withheld for the present by the British colonial office, because it so strongly endorses the case of Newfoundland that its publication would provoke another Fashoda difficulty. Joseph Chamberlain, the imperial secretary of state for the colonies, however, "determined to force the French to abandon their urrogant pretensions on the coast be-
