LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

Oil market closed at $1.40. Oil and gas leases at this office.

Oil is still climbing up in price. Go to Amherst for fishing tackle.

You can get it at Hopkins' store. Ladies' skirts at Miles & Armstrong's.

The beautiful dahlias bloom with unceasing freshness. Republicans pay your County tax and be sure of your vote this fall. There were several frosts last week, but none to hurt much, that we've heard of. The residence of A. B. Kelly is assuming a brighter appearance under the work of painter Rankhead. County fairs will soon be on their last legs for this season. Some of them ought to have been long ago. Most men are no better than they actually have to be. Venango Spectator. Having reference, of course, to those outside the weekly newspaper office. The Erie annual conference, M. E. church, convenes at Jamestown, N. Y., Sept. 27. The Oil City conference, F. M. church, will be held at Oil City Oct. 4. The Kane Republican celebrated its sixtieth anniversary last week by putting on a new dress of body type which makes it prettier, but 'twould be difficult to make it better. An exchange warns people to look out for a man offering packages of envelopes and note paper, claiming some of them contain one or two dollar bills. He is an old fraud. The rain of yesterday was very welcome, but double or treble the amount would have been more so to the lumbermen who have a large run of boats and barges awaiting a rise in the river. Grapes galore at Amherst's, and every other variety of fruit, the appetite may desire. And vegetables, too, fresh and just right. Nothing like about his store. Groceries, canned goods, tobacco and cigars.

Try him. Tionesta should have two drinking fountains for man and beast, one at either end of the business portion of the town.

Who will be the benevolent gentleman to take hold of the scheme and immortalize himself? Following is list of letters remaining uncalled for in the Tionesta, Pa., post office for the week ending Sept. 20, 1890:

H. H. Jones, Mr. P. M. Clark, Miss Sadie Bacon. D. S. Knox, P. M.

The bridge at Tidoute has fallen into the hands of the county and is no longer a hot concern. There are very few of these relics of the benighted past left along the Allegheny river, and these few should be speedily dispensed with.

Miss Clara Gorman, teacher of South Hickory school, makes the following report for first month: Present every day: Maude Anderson, Jesse Albright, Dale Anderson, Ray Anderson, and Avery Farmer. Number enrolled 16, per cent of attendance 96. The oldest newspaper in the world is the "Tsing-Pao," or "Pekin News," which has been published without intermission for nearly 1,400 years. Doubtless, like good wine, it improves with age. The editor has our best wishes for continued success. G. W. Robinson is adding more beauty each day to his store building, and when completed it is likely he will have one of the handsomest stores to be found anywhere. The latest addition is a pretty steel ceiling which is being put in by the Tionesta Heating and Plumbing Co.

Marienville has a corner bend, comprised largely of juveniles, that will compare favorably with any in a radius of fifty miles round. It has been organized about eight months and is in charge of Prof. Henry I. Miller of that place.

Harry Thompson came down from Nebraska last Saturday evening and provided himself with one of Scowden & Clark's spick span new top buggies, and drove home in fine style. We rather incline to the belief that some of the pretty maidens of Harry's neighborhood will enjoy a ride on that turnout before this beautiful fall weather is ended. Mr. and Mrs. David Fenstermaker, who have been living at Tarentum, Pa., mourn the death of one of their twin babies, a son, aged about 4 months.

The mother had arrived at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Wilson, living in Harmony township, last Thursday, both children being ill at that time. The little boy grew worse and died Monday noon. Says a Bradford exchange: "A company is being formed in this city for the purpose of developing 10,000 acres of producing territory in Forest and Warren counties. The company will be capitalized at $100,000. The owners of the land have been approached by European capitalists but their offer was not satisfactory and they have decided to develop it themselves. Court next week promises to be a rather busy one. Though the list of cases is not a lengthy one, it contains one or two actions which will require considerable time to dispose of, the Venango county bridge case being one, some of the strongest talent in the State being engaged on either side. The jury is an extra large one, occasioned by the prospective trial of case of felony. The draught at Bradford is alarming.

The supply of water is so short that the Star says, "It is not improbable that if rain does not soon replenish the city reservoirs the commissioners will find it necessary to shut the water off entirely except for an hour each morning and evening as Altoona was compelled to do at one time. The consumers by being careful may prevent such a contingency.

The case of Venango county vs. the Allegheny-Franklin Bridge Co., an action to determine the amount of damages the defendants should receive from the plaintiffs, will be tried in Forest county the last week in September. Ex-Judge Heydrick, B. H. Osborne and John O. McCalmont will represent the bridge company, while the county's interests will be looked after by W. H. Forbes and J. S. Carmichael. Franklin News.

The United States Government proposes to issue 50,000 silver dollars in commemoration of the Lafayette Monument. Four designs are now under consideration. The first shows portraits of Washington and Lafayette. On the reverse side is a view of the monument. The second has Washington on one side, Lafayette on the other. The third is somewhat like the second. The fourth design has portraits of Washington, Lafayette, Lincoln and Grant. Charles Butterfield, a well known resident of Crown, Clarion county, died Monday afternoon of this week, after an illness extending over a period of several months, his disease being an affection of the kidneys. He was aged 82 years, and leaving a large family, was shot and instantly killed by a neighbor, Benjamin Geck, who mistook him for a woodchuck, near his home at Grand Valley last Sunday afternoon.

The two had been life-long friends. On Sunday Hollenbeck went looking for bees and was bending down, when he was spied by George, who was hunting woodchucks with a Winchester rifle. The latter's aim was deadly and a moment later

Hollenbeck fell to the ground a corpse, the heavy missile having passed clear through his brain. George was almost crazed by his fatal mistake, but gave the alarm. A coroner's jury exonerated

George from blame in the case. The fall months are here and winter is bound to come, so the prudent householder prepares for the campaign by fitting himself up with a good cooking or heating stove as the case may require.

Scowden & Clark, whose new ad. will be found on the fourth page, are ready for all comers with a stock from which it will be easy to suit yourself. Their stoves and ranges are calculated for every kind of fuel from natural gas to hickory saplings, and all of the most modern and approved patterns. And the beauty of it all they have put the price at the smallest possible margin. A complete line of hardware of every description, and a stock of nice but inexpensive breach-loading shot guns will also be found at their store house. Give them a call when in need. Kennedy L. Hawk of Nebraska was a business visitor to Oil City Saturday. R. M. Morrison and J. Scott Bell were over from Marienville on business last Friday. Miss Fannie Siggins of West Hickory was the guest of Mrs. T. F. Ritchey, Thursday last. Mrs. Harry Carr and children, of Pittsburg, are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Blum. Dr. Dunn reports the arrival of a son at the home of Ed. Fox, over in the township, yesterday afternoon. Mrs. S. J. Campbell and little granddaughter, Mary Bigony, were guests of Oil City friends the past week.

Wm. Anthony, one of the staunch Republicans of Nebraska, was a business visitor to town Saturday evening last. Mrs. M. C. Myers and little daughter of Mannington, W. Va., are visiting her parents here, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Walters. Misses Harriett Siggins and Nettie Giering of Pleasantville visited Tionesta friends Friday and Saturday of last week. Mr. A. Inakeep, one of Pittsburg's prominent lumbermen, was up a day or two of last week meeting business friends in this section. Capt. J. M. Kepler arrived from his Centre county home last Saturday and will be a guest at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Jas. D. Davis, for a few days. Misses Ellen Bowman of East

Hickory, and Marie Smearbaugh of this place departed yesterday for Oberlin, Ohio,

What is the EASY PAYMENT PLAN? It enables people of small means to procure those needed articles which they could not get if Required to Pay Cash Down.

It gives the use of the articles While you are Paying for Them. It Leads to Habits of Economy, for knowing that you have certain payments to meet at a certain time, you are more disposed to deny yourselves of some unnecessary expenditures in order to meet those payments promptly. And What is there that gives more solid, every day comfort and happiness than a well furnished house? And now one word in conclusion, I want it distinctly understood that my prices for goods on the easy payment plan are fully as low as you would have to pay cash down at other stores. Look over the catalogue of goods for sale at my Mammoth Store, and you will see that it contains Everything Essential to Comfortable Housekeeping.

It is my intention to keep on hand a full assortment of every article which a housekeeper may need. My stock is indeed enormous. At my store you may always rest assured that you will receive kind and polite attention and every accommodation that it is in my power to give. LET ME KNOW BY LETTER IF YOU NEED SOME GOODS, AND MY AGENT WILL CALL ON YOU then, who but an expert can tell, even after a careful scrutiny, whether a suit of clothes is properly sewed. Who but a tailor can tell, from the "outside," how poor or how good a garment is finished on the "inside"? In such matters the only safeguard the general public has is the reputation of the concern it deals with. With every suit we sell we consider our reputation at stake, so we are careful never to permit a poorly tailored article to find its way into our store. BOYS' SCHOOL SUITS. Wm. Paup Killed by Falling Tree.

William Paup, for many years a resident of Barnett township, and jobber for A. Cook's Sons, at Cooksburg, met a tragic death while in the timber woods, Tuesday evening of last week. A falling tree struck a maple in its descent knocking it down. Mr. Paup did not notice this second tree at once, at least he was unable to escape it, and was struck on the head and killed almost instantly, his skull being crushed. He had just begun a winter's job of taking out timber for Cook's Sons that morning and this was one of the first trees the crew had cut.

The deceased was aged about 38 years, and leaves a wife and family of seven children. He owned a nice farm near Cooksburg and was one of Barnett township's well-to-do, industrious citizens, respected by all who knew him.

Pleasantville Oil Notes.

Proper & McCaslin have just drilled in their No. 5 on the J. J. McCaslin farm, which shows for better than 50 barrels a day. This well demonstrates that Proper & McCaslin have one-half mile of good territory to develop. Preston & Co. start the drill on No. 5

Beebe to-day. Bunstead & Co. are casing on No. 3, on Bunstead farm. Sutton & Hagerty are putting in a large power on the Spangle farm, and are about ready to commence their No. 4 well.

First Frosts.

As we are approaching the season of the year when we may expect frost, it will be interesting to know when our first killing frosts occurred during the past ten years, as the following table will show:

Table with 2 columns: Date and Description of Frost. Sept. 23, 1880. Sept. 26, 1884. Sept. 28, 1890. Sept. 15, 1895, light.

When other atmospheric conditions are favorable, as a rule, frost may be expected when the temperature a few feet above the ground is from 8° to 10° above the freezing point. Emporium Press.
