Without doubt the desire to have a Happy Home is one of the dearest wishes of every human heart, especially in this free America, which is proverbially a Land of Homes.

The first requisite for a Happy Home is Love and Affection, for without these a gilded palace is but a prison cell to aching hearts starving for human sympathy and love.

What is the EASY PAYMENT PLAN? 1st. It enables people of small means to procure those needed articles which they could not get if Required to Pay Cash Down.

2d. It gives the use of the articles While you are Paying for Them. 3d. It Leads to Habits of Economy, for knowing that you have certain payments to meet at a certain time, you are more disposed to deny yourselves of some unnecessary expenditures in order to meet those payments promptly.

And What is there that gives more solid, every day comfort and happiness than a well furnished house? And now one word in conclusion, I want it distinctly understood that my prices for goods on the easy payment plan are fully as low as you would have to pay cash down at other stores.

Look over the catalogue of goods for sale at my Mammoth Store, and you will see that it contains Everything Essential to Comfortable Housekeeping. It is my intention to keep on hand a full assortment of every article which a housekeeper may need. My stock is indeed enormous.

At my store you may always rest assured that you will receive kind and polite attention and every accommodation that it is in my power to give. LET ME KNOW BY LETTER IF YOU NEED SOME GOODS, AND MY AGENT WILL CALL ON YOU. I remain, very truly yours

RECENT DEATHS.

ARTHUR E. ATWELL. Arthur Emmet Atwell was born in Butler county, Pa., January 30, 1833, and died September 19, 1899, aged 66 years, 7 months and 19 days.

He grew to manhood in the place of his birth, near the village of Murrisville. He had the advantages of the common schools of his day and place, and was a man of good intelligence. In 1863 he was united in marriage with Miss Mary J. Dillinger of North Liberty, Mercer county, Pa., who survives him.

After their marriage they settled down to live in Venango county. A little more than four years ago he removed from there and came to East Hickory, where and near where he had since resided. There were born to Mr. and Mrs. Atwell ten children, nine of whom are yet living. They are: George Dixon, Samuel R. Iremus A. and Aetha E., of East Hickory; Mrs. Margaret Critchlow and Mrs. Levina Coast, of Clintonville; Mrs. Jennie Kightlinger and Mrs. Laura Kightlinger, of Meadville. In 1879 Mr. Atwell united with the U. P. church at Clintonville, Pa. He was a member of that church until he removed to Hickory when he placed his membership in the M. E. church at East Hickory.

Mr. Atwell was a quiet man, well respected by neighbors and acquaintances. He was a good man and a man of good judgment. He had been sick less than two weeks. During his illness he expressed himself as having his trust fixed in the Lord, and he died in the Christian's hope. He was buried at East Hickory, Rev. J. E. Hillard, his pastor, officiating in the service. All the children living except one were present at the funeral.

ADAM BORTZER. Adam Bortzer, for many years a resident of Tionesta township, where he followed the occupation of farming, died at his home, Sunday morning, Sept. 24, 1899. Mr. Bortzer had been in poor health for a number of years from asthma, but being of a very energetic and industrious disposition he kept busy to the last. In all his life and in every transaction he was the soul of honor, and a man of strictest integrity—a true Christian gentleman. He was a native of Germany, coming to this country when quite a young man. He was aged 54 years and is survived by a wife and two grown sons. Funeral services were held Monday, the burial taking place in Mt. Zion Evangelical church-yard, near his late home, Rev. B. F. Feit, of whose congregation the deceased was a consistent member, officiating.

ELIZABETH SHEWYAN. Elizabeth Eckert, the bright little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Shewman, Jr., died at Golenza, the home of the grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. F. Watson, Monday evening, Sept. 25, 1899, at 6:30 o'clock, after an illness of less than 10 hours, of spinal meningitis. She was aged 1 year, 1 month and 8 days, and was a most winsome child. The stricken parents have the sincere sympathy of many friends in this affliction. Funeral services, conducted by Rev. R. A. Buzza, were held at the home to-day, the interment being in Riverside Cemetery, Tionesta.

HOMER GRAHAM. Homer Graham, whose parents reside near Kellestville, died Sunday, Sept. 24, 1899, at 12 o'clock noon. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Graham, and was aged 22 years. He had been sick for a long time, and the immediate cause of his death being something in the nature of dropsy. Funeral services were held yesterday, the interment being in the Whig Hill cemetery. He was an exemplary young man, well thought of by all who knew him.

Style In Clothes is largely a matter of detail, affected by so slight a thing as the placing of a button or the notching of a coat collar. The clothing made by Adler Bros. & Co., and for which we have the exclusive sale in Oil City, embodies more style than any other ready made and fully as much as any custom-made costing double its price. No high-class tailor can fit you better with his made-to-measure garments than we can fit you with our made-to-fit ones. As for cheap custom work, it is not to be mentioned in the same breath with "Adler" clothing. Any changes necessary to improve the fit are made by competent workmen, free of charge. IMPORTANT! We press whenever you want, and keep in repair for one year, all clothes bought of us. LAMMERS', 34 SENECA ST., OIL CITY, PA. Arlington Hotel directly opposite us.
