WHEELER, DUSENBURY & CO.'S LUMBER YARD LICKED UP BY FLAMES, AND 7,000,000 FEET OF LUMBER BURNED.

The most disastrous fire that has ever occurred in Forest county visited the village of Endeavor, Hickory township, and licked up between 6,000,000 and 7,000,000 feet of manufactured lumber belonging to Wheeler, Dusenbury & Co., the extensive lumbermen, at an early hour yesterday morning.

The fire was first discovered about 3:00 o'clock at the lower end of the yard, in a pile of exceptionally dry lumber, removed at least fifty feet from where anyone had been working during the night (the mill is running day and night), and there is scarcely a doubt but that the fire had its origin in the dastardly work of an incendiary.

Connected with the plant is a fine system of water works, with a reservoir of several thousand barrels capacity, and having a splendid pressure, but the supply was soon exhausted without scarcely checking the flames, so fierce did they burn in the partially seasoned lumber piles. Tionesta was called upon by telegraph and in a very few minutes after word came here, J. C. Scowden, J. W. Jamieson, Joe Clark, Jim Morrow, Davey Blum, Harold Herman and Jake Hood were on their way with a string of hose, arriving in time to do splendid work in keeping the flames partially in check, though the water pressure had been weakened considerably by the constant stream which the Endeavor department had been playing on the fire.

The near-approach of the fire to the mill, the Struthers and Wetmore hose companies from there responding promptly with a steam engine, which did fine work with two good streams of water taken from the mill pond. With all these efforts the fine large hand mill and all of the railroad track were saved, and the work of manufacturing lumber will not be seriously interfered with.

Three of the company's dwelling houses nearest the yard were burned to the ground. They were occupied respectively by George Crider, the mill foreman, Robert Lynch and Fred Oviatt. The contents of these dwellings were all saved. So great a conflagration naturally aroused everybody in the neighborhood, and all went to work with a will to save property, and did not cease their labors till all danger from further spread was passed.

Mr. N. P. Wheeler, senior member of the firm, was East at the time and has not yet had time to return. Mr. Warden, the general superintendent of the plant, estimates that there were between six and seven million feet of lumber in the yard, most of which was of a superior quality white pine and much of it "clear stuff." He estimates that the Company's loss will be about $100,000, on which there is an insurance, with the C. M. Arner & Son agency, of $25,000, leaving a net loss of over $100,000. The saving of the mill was a fortunate stroke, and this was done only by the most persistent work of the firemen, who stuck to the job till kept streams of water playing on the fire until after three o'clock in the afternoon.

If this fire was the work of an incendiary, and it can scarcely be anything else, the desperate vandal must be fearfully constituted if he can contemplate such devilish work with any degree of satisfaction, whether the crime will ever be revealed or not, time alone will tell.

Court Minutes.

When our report of the court's proceedings closed last week the Franklin-Allegheny bridge case against the county of Venango was on trial. The jury was out several hours and on Wednesday evening brought in a verdict for the bridge company of $32,500. The county has filed a motion for a new trial on the ground of excessive award, while the company has also asked for a new trial, its contention being that the award was not large enough.

Fred Weingard was appointed guardian of Laura J. Weingard, minor heir of the late Mrs. Charles Weingard.

Final naturalization papers were issued to Patrick Cunningham, of Jenks twp.

Style In Clothes

is largely a matter of detail, affected by so slight a thing as the placing of a button or the notching of a coat collar. The clothing made by Adler Bros. & Co., and for which we have the exclusive sale in Oil City, embodies more style than any other ready made and fully as much as any custom-made costing double its price.

IMPORTANT! We press whenever you want, and keep up repair for one year, all clothes bought of us.
