

Republican Ticket.

Supreme Court Judge—J. HAY BROWN, Lancaster. Superior Court Judge—JOSIAH R. ADAMS, Philadelphia. State Treasurer—JAMES E. BARNETT, Washington County.

THE REPUBLICAN COUNTY TICKET.

The ticket placed before the people in this county by the Republican party is one which every citizen must admit is composed of men in every way fitted for the offices for which they have been nominated, and are deserving of the loyal support of their party in every section.

FOR ASSOCIATE JUDGE, the party has R. B. Crawford, and so universally popular has this selection proven that the opposite parties have evidently not considered it worth while to put up a candidate against him, for he has no opposition. This is quite complimentary to Bruce, but it is by no means undeserved, for his friends are legion and his incumbency of the honorable position to which he will be elected will be a credit to himself as well as to the county.

FOR PROTHONOTARY, John H. Robertson was re-nominated without opposition, a compliment to his fitness for the place and his good official record that carries its own comment. The county has never had a more competent, pains taking or obliging Prothonotary than Mr. Robertson, which is saying a great deal, for we have had none but good officials in that office for many years past.

FOR SHERIFF, The party has placed in nomination a most worthy and deserving candidate, John W. Jamieson. There is not a man in Forest county who knows him but that will readily concede that he will make an exceptional good official in any capacity, and especially so as Sheriff, in which capacity he has had considerable experience as deputy under other officials. A more gentlemanly citizen is not to be found in the county; always courteous toward friend and foe alike, and a bigger hearted man we have never known.

FOR COUNTY COMMISSIONERS, The candidates on the Republican ticket are Charles M. Whiteman and James H. Morrison, both loyal Republicans and both level-headed careful business men. Mr. Whiteman has been a member of the present board for three years. During that incumbency he has never faltered in doing what he conscientiously believed to be his duty to the taxpayers of the county.

Mr. Morrison, the other Republican candidate, has for many years conducted a successful lumbering business in Jenks township, and has been one of its foremost and most active public spirited citizens. Although somewhat crippled at present, rendering him unable to make such a thorough canvass of the county as he would like to, his mental faculties are most vigorous and active, and he has directed his business affairs in a very successful manner.

affairs will be conscientiously and honestly administered. Stand by them when you cast your ballots and you may rest assured you will have made no mistake. FOR COUNTY AUDITORS The candidates are James R. Clark and George L. King. To those who know them these gentlemen need no recommendation for the offices for which the party has unanimously nominated them.

FOR JURY COMMISSIONERS, Levi G. Reynolds is the Republican nominee. Mr. Reynolds has been a 15-year resident of the county, a staunch Republican and will make a good official. He is sure of the election, there being two to elect, and each voter being privileged to vote for only one, and the people will be well satisfied with his official acts.

Is it the duty of every Republican first, to vote the ticket straight, second to put his shoulder to the wheel and, in every honorable way, assist in rolling up an old fashioned majority for every individual on the ticket. The Republican party deserves the credit of bringing about the splendid prosperity which the country is now enjoying, and in order to perpetuate and continue that prosperity it is necessary to stand by the party's nominees, not only in State and National affairs, but in county matters as well.

More Than Keeping Even. Despite the predictions of the Democrats a few years ago the Government revenue thus far during the present fiscal year has exceeded the Government expense. No wonder the opponents of the Republican party and of the policy of protection turn from the question of tariff and begin howling about the trusts.

Mr. Caffrey, the only man who holds a public office, is the Senator from Louisiana who filled 300 columns of the Congressional Record in one session to show chiefly why there should be a higher tariff on sugar, as his material interests are embraced in a sugar plantation. And yet the circular starts out with the statement that it is the intention to illustrate the recent declaration of Mr. Havemeyer, head of the sugar trust, that the tariff is responsible for the trusts.

It is interesting to note the newspapers with which, according to the circular, "arrangements" have been made to publish these wonderful articles. We are told that they are such papers as the Boston "Transcript," New York "World," Philadelphia "Record," Baltimore "Sun," Springfield "Republican," Manchester "Union," Milwaukee "Journal," Kansas City "Times" and Pittsburg "Post," which have already accepted the league's proposal.

There are trusts which control abroad nearly every article to be attacked by the league. The friends of Protection in the United States will await this onslaught with great calmness. They have heard of the New England Free-Trade League before and have noted with great pleasure that since its formation in Boston the Republican majority in New England has steadily increased, going far beyond anything ever before known in the history of the party.

A good farmer in Wilson township has tied to loan his surplus money to his neighbors at 5 per cent. straight, but has been unable to do so owing to the present restoration of confidence and the large amount of money among the people. Is this not a strange condition to the men who said that Republican success would make money high and scarce?

Mr. Cleveland remarks that he is opposed to the use of force in the extension of American institutions. This is rather vague. On one occasion Mr. Cleveland used some strong language in regard to the Monroe doctrine and his hint at force caused quite a sensation.

The Destruction of Protection, Not of the Trusts, the Avowed Purpose of Free-Traders.

When the nation is more prosperous than ever before in its history, making supremely ridiculous the predictions of the free trade and free silver combinations as to what would follow Republican success in 1896 and the passage of a protective tariff bill, it might be supposed that the free trade and free silver advocates would remain quiet until at least some kind of a reaction appeared.

Circulars have been sent broadcast to men supposed to be in sympathy with the free trade advocates asking them for contributions to subsidize newspapers and writers to advocate free trade. The circulars emanate from The New England Free-Trade League. The first circular states that "the league has about completed arrangements under which a series of articles will be published in one leading paper of each of the principal cities."

Another circular of the same date gives the plan of work. The league has, if we are to believe the circular, secured the services of a number of our foremost public men, who have promised to write letters. The names of these foremost men are as follows: Donelson Caffrey, J. Sterling Morton, J. De Witt Warner, Worthington C. Ford, William Lloyd Garrison, Thomas G. Shearman, Clifton R. Breckenridge, Franklin Pierce, Louis F. Post, Henry L. Nelson and A. B. Farquhar.

G. W. ROBINSON.

The withdrawal of Josiah R. Adams from the Republican State ticket as the candidate for Superior Judge last Thursday, on account of newspaper charges seriously affecting his character and fitness, and the substitution of John I. Mitchell of Tioza county to fill the vacancy thus caused, has been the sensation of the week in politics.

—Hopkins' shoe stock is the largest in town. —New goods coming, prices are lowest at Miles & Armstrong's. —Go in and look at Hopkins' shoes—the ones he wears, but those he has to sell. —We notice loads of nice new well filled bags being shipped away on the cars and on enquiry find it is buckwheat flour from Lanson Bros.
