

Republican Ticket.

Supreme Court Judge—J. HAY BROWN, Lancaster. Superior Court Judge—JOSIAH R. ADAMS, Philadelphia. State Treasurer—JAMES E. BARNETT, Washington County.

THE REPUBLICAN COUNTY TICKET.

The ticket placed before the people in this county by the Republican party this fall is one which every citizen must admit is composed of men in every way fitted for the offices for which they have been nominated, and are deserving of the loyal support of their party in every section.

FOR ASSOCIATE JUDGE, the party has R. B. Crawford, and so universally popular has this selection proven that the opposite parties have evidently not considered it worth while to put up a candidate against him, for he has no opposition. This is quite complimentary to Bruce, but it is by no means undeserved, for his friends are legion and his incumbency of the honorable position to which he will be elected will be a credit to himself as well as to the county.

FOR PROTHONOTARY, John H. Robertson was re-nominated without opposition, a compliment to his fitness for the place and his good official record that carries its own comment. The county has never had a more competent, pains taking or obliging Prothonotary than Mr. Robertson, which is saying a great deal, for we have had none but good officials in that office for many years past. The records under his charge have been admirably kept, and it has been a pleasure to transact business at that office, where all are treated with most uniform courtesy.

FOR SHERIFF, The party has placed in nomination a most worthy and deserving candidate, John W. Jamieson. There is not a man in Forest county who knows him but that will readily concede that he will make an exceptional good official in any capacity, and especially so as Sheriff, in which capacity he has had considerable experience as deputy under other officials. A more gentlemanly citizen is not to be found in the county; always courteous toward friend and foe alike and a bigger hearted man we have never known. In all our acquaintance with John Jamieson, and that extends from early childhood, we never knew him to be capable of doing a mean or small trick, but we have known him to make very many sacrifices for others, and his bitter enemy would not go amiss if in distress he were to call on him for any help he might be able to render. In politics he has been a life-long Republican, never flinching when his party was assailed, and the Republican voter in Forest county who cannot support Mr. Jamieson is made of very strange material. If ever a candidate on the ticket deserved the loyal, united and hearty support of the Republican party of Forest county that candidate is John W. Jamieson. Of his capabilities for the office there isn't a question, and the people will never regret having elected him to a position for which he is so admirably fitted.

FOR COUNTY COMMISSIONERS, The candidates on the Republican ticket are Charles M. Whiteman and James H. Morrison, both loyal Republicans and both level-headed careful business men. Mr. Whiteman has been a member of the present board for three years. During that incumbency he has never faltered in doing what he conscientiously believed to be his duty to the taxpayers of the county. Often this course has appeared antagonistic to some, no doubt, but he has never been swayed from what he thought was right and to the best interests of the county. No living man can do his whole duty in an official capacity and satisfy all the people; there will be those who will find fault, and very often without cause. It would be useless to try to please everybody, and it is only the milk-and-water sort of man who will attempt it, and they always fail. Mr. Whiteman's record in the commission's office is entirely creditable to him and we don't believe his enemies, even, will deny that he has made a good official, using good judgment in all his transactions. He is the only member of the present board that is a candidate for re-election, and with the present state of affairs it would certainly be sensible policy to retain at least one member of the old board in office. This ought surely to be plain to the tax payers of the county. We believe it is, and that, regardless of personal feeling they will vote to retain Mr. Whiteman for three years longer.

Mr. Morrison, the other Republican candidate, has for many years conducted a successful lumbering business in Jenkins township, and has been one of its foremost and most active public spirited citizens. Although somewhat crippled at present, rendering him unable to make such a thorough canvass of the county as he would like to, his mental faculties are most vigorous and active, and he has directed his business affairs in a very successful manner. He is a painstaking, economical and very level-headed business man, thoroughly acquainted with the needs and affairs of the county, and will bring to the commissioners' office ripe experience and splendid executive ability. With such men as Morrison and Whiteman to look after the taxpayers' interest there will be no dangaffairs will be conscientiously and honestly administered. Stood by them when you cast your ballots and you may rest assured you will have made no mistake. FOR COUNTY AUDITORS The candidates are James R. Clark and George L. King. To those who know them these gentlemen need no recommendation for the offices for which the party has unanimously nominated them. Mr. Clark has very acceptably filled the position for three years past, and we believe his colleagues on the board will bear us out in saying that he is the right man in the right place. Mr. King is a shrewd young business man, a good accountant, and may be depended on to do his duty with fidelity. There will be no laxness in the discharge of their work with these two competent men on the board of County Auditors. They should be elected by good majorities.

FOR JURY COMMISSIONER, Levi G. Reynolds is the Republican nominee. Mr. Reynolds has been a lifelong resident of the county, a staunch Republican and will make a good official. He is sure of the election, there being two to elect, and each voter being privileged to vote for only one, and the people will be well satisfied with his official acts.

Is it the duty of every Republican first, to vote the ticket straight, second to put his shoulder to the wheel and, in every honorable way, assist in rolling up an old fashioned majority for every individual on the ticket. The Republican party deserves the credit of bringing about the splendid prosperity which the country is now enjoying, and in order to perpetuate and continue that prosperity it is necessary to stand by the party's nominees, not only in State and National affairs, but in county matters as well. No party can long exist if the individual members persist in knifing the local ticket. There's where the wider field of politics springs from, and there is the place to show your Republicanism. Try to sink personal dislike if you have any, and stand by the candidates of the party as you would want them to stand by you under like circumstances. Be loyal to your party at all times, and especially so when its candidates are being assailed by the common enemy, who, when you help them to an office will turn on you or your friends at the first opportunity and crush you if they can. Stand by the ticket.

More Than Keeping Even.

Despite the predictions of the Democrats a few years ago the Government revenue thus far during the present fiscal year has exceeded the Government expense. No wonder the opponents of the Republican party and of the policy of protection turn from the question of tariff and begin howling about the trusts. They deceived the people in 1896 with their lies, and now in an effort to divert the public mind from those lies they howl about something else. At the end of the first quarter of the fiscal year a surplus of $2,000,000 is shown. The Government revenue for the three months has been $17,000,000 more than what it was during the same period of last year, and the expenditures have fallen to $45,000,000. The customs are yielding from $600,000 to $1,000,000 a day, and internal revenue nets $1,000,000 each day, both showing an aggregate gain over the same period of last year of $5,000,000. The War Department is spending an average of $12,500,000 each month, while the monthly expense of our navy is $5,000,000. We are carrying on a war on the other side of the world where we are taking care of a great army of American soldiers as no nation has ever cared for its soldiers before; we are adding battle ships, cruisers and torpedo boats to the navy in a manner that is attracting the attention of all nations, and yet we show a cash balance and surplus for the past three months, the first quarter of the new fiscal year. More and more each day is the proof furnished that the protective tariff that bears the name of the late Mr. Dingley, one of the greatest and brains statesmen America ever produced, is fully capable of providing for all the expenses of our Government in times of peace, and more and more each day it is being demonstrated that the finances of this country were never in better hands.—Des Moines State Register.

MCKINLEY won't get the vote of a single tramp next year. They are tired of finding themselves up against a waiting job every time they turn around.

Horse cars linger in the streets of New York for the benefit of the lovers of antiquities. The number of horses employed on these lines is still over 5,000.

If Aguinaldo has not yet selected a coat of arms the Democratic rooster would fit the case. He proclaims that all the hope he has left is pinned upon that bird.

DEWEY'S $10,000 watch, a gift from Boston, is to be inscribed, "Gridley, you are fire when ready." With such a timepiece the Admiral should never be late to breakfast.

If, as quoted in Chicago, $6.90 per hundred is the highest price paid for live stock since 1884, it would seem the producer and not the beef trust is getting the benefit of the prevailing high prices.

A good farmer in Wilson township has tried to loan his surplus money to his neighbors at 5 per cent. straight, but has been unable to do so owing to the present restoration of confidence and the large amount of money among the people. Is this not a strange condition to the men who said that Republican success would make money high and scarce?—Clinton Public.

AGUINALDO will scan the election news from the United States four weeks hence with a good deal of interest. A victory for his friends the Democrats in the states which vote this year would nerve the rebel chief to make some fierce fights against the Americans. It might, in fact, make him believe that he would yet have a chance to burn Manila and massacre all its white inhabitants. Ois' army, backed by the Republican party of the United States, has baffled Aguinaldo in his schemes of rapine and blood thus far, but a victory for John McLeon and for Bryan's ticket in Nebraska would lead him to think that his friends were coming into power and that his day of triumph was near.

The Destruction of Protection, Not of the Trusts, the Avowed Purpose of Free-Traders.

When the nation is more prosperous than ever before in its history, making supremely ridiculous the predictions of the free trade and free silver combinations as to what would follow Republican success in 1896 and the passage of a protective tariff bill, it might be supposed that the free trade and free silver advocates would remain quiet until at least some kind of a reaction appeared. But they are not ordinary people, and the real enemies of the "trusts," as this circular is of no account to them. Hence the country has Bryan leading his party to destruction on the silver question, and a set of equally foolish Democrats secretly trying to bring the tariff question to the front.

Circulars have been sent broadcast to men supposed to be in sympathy with the free trade advocates asking them for contributions to subsidize newspapers and writers to advocate free trade. These circulars emanate from The New England Free-Trade League. The first circular states that "the league has about completed arrangements under which a series of articles will be published in one leading paper of each of the principal cities," the articles apparently to attack "trusts." But the free-traders are not real enemies of the "trusts," as this circular, dated September 21, explains: "It is not the province of the league to make war upon the trusts, but to make war on the protective tariff," and it desires "to direct the popular feeling against trusts," so as to hurt the tariff, and contributions of money are called for to carry on that work. Of course to attack trusts directly when free trade England has hundreds of them, and many new ones are being formed there every week, would be impolitic. Therefore the league says that its province is not "to make war upon the trusts."

Another circular of the same date gives the plan of work. The league has, if we are to believe the circular, secured the services "of a number of our foremost public men, who have promised to write letters." The names of these foremost men are as follows: Donelson Caffrey, J. Sterling Morton, J. De Witt Warner, Worthington C. Ford, William Lloyd Garrison, Thomas G. Shearman, Clifton R. Breckenridge, Franklin Pierce, Louis F. Post, Henry L. Nelson and A. B. Farquhar. That is a list calculated to raise a smile on the face of the most farsighted person. There is not a man mentioned on the list who has not been howl g for free trade for many years, and yet the nation is more strongly protectionist today than ever before.

Mr. Caffrey, the only man who holds a public office, is the Senator from Louisiana who filled 350 columns of the Congressional Record in one session to show chiefly why there should be a higher tariff on sugar, as his material interests are embraced in a sugar plantation. And yet the circular starts out with the statement that it is the intention to illustrate the recent declaration of Mr. Havemeyer, head of the sugar trust, that the tariff is responsible for the trusts. Havemeyer and Caffrey denouncing the tariff on sugar is certainly a combination that would make the fortune of any freak manager. The fearful Shearman of Brooklyn, who has been writing Free-Trade letters for such a long time to British newspapers; Louis F. Post, a Socialist leader of New York, and W. L. Garrison, an "foremost public man," is certainly what might be called "a certain raiser."

It is interesting to note the newspapers with which, according to the circular, "arrangements" have been made to publish these wonderful articles. We are told that they are such papers as the Boston "Transcript," New York "World," Philadelphia "Record," Baltimore "Sun," Springfield "Republican," Manchester "Union," Milwaukee "Journal," Kansas City "Times" and Pittsburg "Post," which have already accepted the league's proposal. The list of subjects is also interesting. At the head is the "tin plate." The object is to have the duty on tin plate removed on the ground that there is a "trust" in that industry. And yet the London newspapers have been full of articles lately telling of the successful organization of the British Tin Plate Trust. Evidently all the League needs to do to get the money it wants to pay for the writing and publication of its articles is to apply to the British Tin Plate Trust. Another subject is "wall paper," an article more completely in the grasp of a trust in Great Britain than any other. "Wire nails" is another subject. They have never been manufactured to any extent in England, but are a German product, and were controlled by a German "trust" when the duty was first put on them in this country in 1883. Then they sold for 10 cents a pound. That trust is still in existence in Germany. After the Protective duty was imposed and the industry established in the United States wire nails sold here for years for less than 2 cents a pound, although the duty was 4 cents a pound!

There are trusts which control abroad nearly every article to be attacked by the league. The friends of Protection in the United States will await this onslaught with great eagerness. They have heard of the New England Free-Trade League before and have noted with great pleasure that since its formation in Boston the Republican majority in New England has steadily increased, going far beyond anything ever before known in the history of the party.—Philadelphia "Press."

In one of our regiments south of Manila two Captains were killed last week, one from Oregon, the other from Alabama. The North and South stand shoulder to shoulder as the flag is carried forward.

THE President put a good deal of history into small compass when he said in a recent speech: "The United States has never repudiated a national obligation either to its creditors or to humanity." His pledge that "it will not now begin to do either" will be sustained by the people.

G. W. ROBINSON.

The withdrawal of Josiah R. Adams from the Republican State ticket as the candidate for Superior Judge last Thursday, on account of newspaper charges seriously affecting his character and fitness, and the substitution of John I. Mitchell of Tioga county to fill the vacancy thus caused, has been the sensation of the week in politics. Whether true or not, the charges of being associated in business with men who have since turned out to be of rather odious character, induced Mr. Adams to withdraw from the ticket in order, as he said, to relieve the party from any embarrassment in his continuation as a candidate might bring. The State committee was called together at Philadelphia on Saturday and unanimously chose Judge Mitchell to fill the vacancy. His candidacy will strengthen the ticket because of his well known fitness, ability and clean official record. The incident is closed, diplomatically speaking, and Judge Mitchell and the whole Republican ticket will be elected by little less than 200,000 majority.
