VOTE for Barnett, Brown, and Mitchell, a State ticket that for excellence in its composition has never been beaten, and which will compare most favorably with any ever placed before the voters of Pennsylvania.

BRUCE CRAWFORD, the Republican nomince for Associate Judge, will make a very acceptable man for the place. He has no opposition for the office, and the people will be satisfied with his record when his term is finished.

THE County Auditors' office will be in good and safe hands with Jas. R. Clark and George L. King on the board. Both are competent accountants, and blest with good judgment. They will see that every dollar of the peoples' money is properly accounted for.

REPUBLICANS, let one cross (X) in the circle at the top of the Brst column on your ballet do the business this year. Your ticket is as good as any which the opposition has in the field, and the principles for which your candidates stand are infinitely better than all others. Vote your ticket straight.

GIVE your loyal support to John W. Jamieson, the Republican nominee for Sheriff. He will make a faithful public official, being thoroughly fitted for the position. John deserves the earnest supty, for he has always been a true blue member of the party, and from boyhood has supported its principles. He should, and we believe will, be elected by a rousing majority. His canvass has been clean, honorable and gentlemanly. Don't fail to give him your wholehearted support next Tuesday.

WHEN you vote for Chas. M. Whiteman and James H. Morrison for County Commissioners, you will make no mistake. It is the part of wisdom for the taxpayers to retain a member of the old board in office, one who is familiar with the work already begun, and in Mr. Whiteman's case there is little fault to be found with his official acts, if we would be fair in our criticisms. The Commissioner's office is perhaps the most difficult to fill and please many people, yet Mr. Whiteman's acts have been open and aboveboard, with an eye single to the best interests of the taxpayers of the county. Mr. Morrison will make an exceptionally good Commissioner, having had a large experience in affairs which interest the people. He has been a prointerest the people. He has been a pro-nounced success in the management of kindred and friends have sacrificed their his own business, and that sort of a man lives for country.
