Arbuckles Cut the Price of Sugar.

NEW YORK, Nov. 4 - The first change of any kind of cut in prices of refined sugar in a long time was made by Arbuckle Bros. This change was an extra concession of 1-16 of a cent per pound in the prices of all grade of soft sugars from No. 2 to No. 13 inclusive, for immediate shipment, the concessio to hold one day only. The cut brought in a good deal of new business. While all of the other refiners were not disposed openly to quote a like reduction it was understood that they were following the cut made by the Arbuckle Bros. Hard sugars were quoted on the full list basis.
