

THAT SAME OLD COON!

PENNSY'S TRIUMPH!

Republicans Win by 140,000.

AND KENTUCKY, TOO!

Ohio Claimed by 30,000 by the Republicans.

NEBRASKA GOES BRYAN-WARD.

Forest County Gives a Nice Majority For the Republican State Ticket, But Elects Two Democratic County Commissioners and the Sheriff's Office in Doubt.

The Republicans in Pennsylvania have again shown the stuff of which they are made, and yesterday rolled up an endorsement of President McKinley and his splendid administration of over 140,000.

OHIO.

In Ohio, where a most bitter factional fight has been waged, the election of Judge Nash for Governor is claimed by the Republicans by 30,000 this morning, and that both branches of the legislature are Republican.

KENTUCKY.

Great is Kentucky! The Republicans elected Attorney General W. S. Taylor by 7,000 to 10,000 plurality. This is a signal victory over fraud, bull-dozing and intimidation, and means a repeal of the desperate election laws passed by the Democrats.

MARYLAND.

seems to have been carried by the Democrats by a close vote, and in NEBRASKA the Bryan idea and fusion seems also to have carried once more.

MASSACHUSETT.

rolls up over 65,000 for the Republican State Ticket, and the party sweeps everything before it.

On the whole the Republicans of the Nation have reason for congratulating themselves over and over again on these glorious triumphs, and they have prepared the way for a grand sweep next year.

FOREST COUNTY.

The result in Forest County is by no means as satisfactory as the Republicans would like to have it. They have lost one of their candidates for County Commissioner, Mr. Whiteman, and the Board will stand Morrison, Rep., Carson and Herman, Dem. The matter of who is elected Sheriff is still somewhat in doubt at this writing. With the precincts of Frost, Cooper Tract and Balltown to hear from the figures place Mr. Russell, Democrat, 15 in the lead of Mr. Jamieson, Republican. The precincts to hear from ordinarily give Republican majorities, but whether they will go strong enough to overcome this lead is a matter of considerable doubt.

Gov. Stone Proclaims Thanksgiving Day.

Governor Stone has issued his proclamation designating Thanksgiving Day in accordance with custom, as follows:

Following the example of the President of the United States, who, in obedience to a National custom, has set apart a day of praise and thanksgiving to Almighty God for the many substantial blessings of the preceding year.

I, William A. Stone, Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, do hereby name Thursday, November 30, as a day of thanksgiving and prayer.

So far as practicable, let us on this day put aside our usual cares and labors and join with each other in showing our appreciation of the bountiful blessings that have been showered upon us.

A condition of prosperity without precedent prevails throughout our Commonwealth and the Nation. Our crops have been bountiful and labor has employment. No epidemic of fatal disease has visited our State, but general good health has been prevalent among all our people. A more tolerant spirit exists among all religious denominations. The future is brighter and more attractive to the ambitious youth of both sexes.

Discoveries have been made in science which will be of great benefit to our people, and our State has advanced in wealth, in education and in general improvement.

A deeper comprehension and appreciation of our nationality exists at home and abroad. Confidence has been strengthened in our capacity to cope with other nations, not alone in national warfare but in commerce and in trade. Therefore, I advise that on this day religious exercises be conducted in all churches and that devout prayers be offered to Almighty God for a continuance of his guidance and care. Let us especially remember the sick, the needy and the poor and endeavor, in so far as is in our power, to see that no one within the limits of our Commonwealth shall be in want.

LIEUTENANT COLONEL JAMES E. BARNETT, State Treasurer, Elect.

HON. J. HAY BROWN, Justice of the Supreme Court, Elect.

A CORRESPONDENT of the New York World has interviewed Admiral Dewey on the question of his candidacy for President, and publishes the first and only authentic utterance strait from the lips of the distinguished Admiral himself. Here are his words, and they will doubtless stop further controversy on that score: "I would not under any circumstances consent to be a candidate for the Presidency, and I should consider it an act of friendship if the press would treat this decision as sincere and final. I wish they would now drop the matter. I feel that any further booming of my name for the Presidency tends to make me ridiculous. I am now 62 years of age and feel that I have reached all the honors and rewards due to a man in a lifetime. I have no training for a political career, and I should certainly make a great mistake to enter the race for the Presidency. There was Grant, who made a grand career as a soldier, but it is a very doubtful and disputed question whether he added anything to his laurels by going into politics. My old friend Hancock is an example and warning to the same effect."

A Big Lumber Deal.

The Brookville Republican of last week gives the following particulars of a good sized lumber deal recently consummated at that place: Thursday last the details of a big lumber deal were consummated in Brookville, and by the terms of the agreement entered into between the parties two of the most valuable timber tracts in Barnett township, Jefferson county, pass into new hands. These were the Williams tract, containing 160 acres, and belonging to the estate of James W. Daniels, deceased, and the Herring tract, containing 207 acres, and being the property of Chas. S. Daniels, deceased. The sale of the Williams lot was made by the executors of James W. Daniels, while the heirs of Chas. S. Daniels were the vendors of the Herring lot, the purchasers in both instances being Alonzo Inskip, of Meekersport; William Smearbaugh and William Lawrence, of Tionesta; W. A. Crossman, of Redelyffe, Forest county, and C. B. Vastbinder, of Brookville. The consideration is $60,000, $45,000 for the Williams tract and $15,000 for the Herring tract. The purchasers estimate that they have five hundred thousand cubic feet of pine, two hundred and fifty thousand cubic feet of oak, and two hundred thousand cubic feet of hemlock, besides a large amount of saw and single timber on the two tracts, of which amount the Williams lot contains three hundred and fifty thousand cubic feet of fine pine and one hundred thousand cubic feet of oak and hemlock. There was a hot contest between prospecting purchasers of these lands, and the price at which they were sold is an evidence of increased value as a result of returning prosperity.
