One Robber Killed, Another Captured. Two Policemen Perhaps Fatally Shot.

Titusville was thrown into a high state of excitement last Saturday morning when the citizens learned that in the early hours of the morning a desperate robbery had been committed, one of the robbers killed, and Chief of Police McGrath and Officer Sheehy perhaps fataly injured. Between 2 and 3 o'clock Saturday morning the night watchman at the D. A. V. & P. railroad station in that city was held up and guarded by one man while two others broke open the station and with dynamite blew the safe open, Richards are visiting Oil City friends this securing about forty dollars in money. The watchman, Ed Derby, was occupying the cab of an idle locomotive left standing on the side track during the

From there they went to a house of ill repute kept by a woman named Bertha Bloom, and by threats and blandishing their revolvers frightened the three inmates into disgorging about all the money and jewelry about the house. Reports say they secured within $500 and $600 worth of jewelry and money. Two of the robbers entered the house and attended to the robbing, while one stood guard at the door. After the gang had left Derby, the watchman, he slipped down off the locomotive and gave the alarm to the policemen. The two above named found the robbers at the house mentioned by the unusual commotion there was going on inside. When the officers attempted to enter a general fusillade began and very many shots were exchange i. Chief of Police McGrath grappled with one of ers. the roboers and succeeded in getting his her sister, Mrs. H. H. He ran for assistance, while the chief still fought with the robbers, who made their escape before assistance could reach the spot.

When daylight came a search for the robbers was instituted. The dead body of one was found by a passer-by about 125 yards from the Bloom house. A bulof that place in a series of meetings this let hole near the center of his breast told the story. The body showed the man to have been about 5 feet 8 inches in height, probably 25 years of age, weighing about 160 pounds; had a heavy reddish moustach, reddish brown hair, and was fair complected; forehead high and massive; skin clear, and looked as if of Swedish port. nationality. His body was profusely tattooed. Upon the upper part of the right arm was a representation of the crucifixion; on the inside of the same portion of the arm an American shield of red and blue, the skin furnishing the white to side of the right forearm was a representation of a woman chained to a stake, and upon the outside an Indian. On the right breast, and surrounding the right nipple was a sixteen pointed star. On the left arm had been a large piece of tattooing, which was almost obliterated by a great burn. The body was clothed in a dark suit of good quality, somewhat the worse for wear, a blue and white striped cotton shirt, a black sort of hat, No. 9 black shoes, grey underwear, and about his -Recorder Robertson granted a mar- neck were two blue cotton handkerchiefs. riage license last Friday, Nov. 10, to Mr. | the hands of the man, closely examined, Eiva Hall of Redelyffe, Forest county, Pa. and white on the palms as those of a On Saturday a license was also issued woman. Constable F. S. Goodwill of Grand Valley, had learned of the crimes early in the morning. Shortly after eleven o'clock he was notified of the presence of a strange man in Wood's general store. Noting that the man's appearance tallied with the discription of one of the men wanted, Mr. Goodwill approached the man as he came from the store after buying a black derby hat. The constable placed the man under arrest and noticing his captive had in his right hand pants pocket a revolver, he called for assistance and soon ha: the man secured, but not without some show of resistence on the part of recognized him at first glance. At 10 o'clock Monday night the Titusville authorities received a telephone message from Deputy Speriffs Preston, Mackinzie and Myers, who were then at Tidioute, stating that they had indisputable evidence that the desperado had passed through that place during the afternoon and had gone in the direction of Marienville, Forest county. Preston and Mac-Kenzie are the two deputies who on Sat urday night xchanged shots with the fleeing burglar at the entrance of the swamp at Three Bridge Run, near Grand Valley, and they have been hot on his trail ever since that time. During their chase of the man yesterday they found where he had stopped at various farm house between the swamp and Tidioute and begged for focd. He was showing the effects of the long chase and anxiety, and the three men have no doubt but that they will catch him in the vicinity of Marienville. At ID o'clock Monday evening they were just changing horses preparatory to driving to Marienville, and had received word from the sheriff of Forest county, at Tionesta, that he and a posse would join them . t that point and assist in the chase.
