Row on Between Bryanite Democrats and Republican Insurgents.

COL. BARNETT'S BIG VOTE.

He Could Throw Away Republican Majorities in Philadelphia and Allegheny and Give Cressy Every Vote He Got, and He Would Still Be Elected.

(Special Correspondence.)

Philadelphia, Nov. 14.—And now the Democrats and their late allies, the Republican Insurgents, are in a merry row. They are calling each other names, and there is no telling where it will all end. Both are disgusted with the result of last Tuesday's election. Each had been claiming to be a landslide in which the Republican state ticket would be buried out of sight. But, alas and alack, they were both destined to disappointment. The people of Pennsylvania went to the polls and repudiated the Bryanite Democracy and expressed their contempt for the men, who, while claiming to be Republicans, have for the last two years been allies of the Democracy and some secretly, and others openly, waging a bitter warfare against the Republican organization of Pennsylvania and its leaders and its candidates. Notwithstanding the fact that Cressy, the Democratic nominee for state treasurer, was a pronounced Bryanite and was ignored by the sound money men of his own party, and the Democratic party organization in Pennsylvania was avowedly for Bryan, these so-called insurgents, who wish to be known as Republicans, not only voted for Cressy, but many of them spent their time maligning Colonel Barnett, the Republican candidate, against whose nomination not a single vote was cast in the Republican state convention.

Through the assistance of certain disreputable machine politicians in Philadelphia, of the stripe of David Martin, and in Allegheny of the William Flinn school, and with other scattering elements, Colonel Barnett's vote was cut a few thousands, but with it all he was elected by a plurality of over 106,000. This is certainly a marvelous result, in view of the immense sums of money poured into the Democratic and insurgent machines for use both before and on election day, and the fact that with one exception every Philadelphia morning newspaper, all Wanamaker owned or politically connected, waged an unrelenting and desperate fight against the Republican organization and its candidates.

But the outcome has brought great trouble for the enemies of the Republican organization. The Democrats are already out in a declaration that they will do no further business with the insurgents except upon the basis that the insurgents shall turn in flatfooted for the Democratic candidates for the legislature.

GEN. REEDER CONGRATULATED.
General Reeder, chairman of the Republican state committee, has been congratulated by active and prominent Republicans throughout the state for the splendid results of the Republican campaign. Although Chairman Reeder was handicapped through lack of funds, and the railroad companies refusing to extend the usual courtesy of half rate fares for students and others whom he desired to send home to vote, he did the best that could be done under adverse circumstances. The Republican organization was in fighting trim and when the time came to set out the vote the county committees and the members of the vigilant committees did noble work for the whole ticket.

During the campaign the chairman of the Democratic state committee, Mr. Rilling, made big boasts of what the Democratic party was going to do in the interior counties of the state and that Cressy would come to Philadelphia with a majority. But an examination of the returns shows that Colonel Barnett would have been elected if he had not received a majority of one vote in either Philadelphia or Allegheny counties. In other words, the Republican majorities in these two Republican strongholds could be thrown away and Mr. Cressy given every Democratic vote he polled in these two counties and still Colonel Barnett would be elected. The Democratic cry of fraud in Philadelphia is answered by the statement that there are desperate men in both parties, that there are Democratic frauds as well as possibly some Republican frauds. But this occurs only in spots where the conditions are conducive to this sort of work. In a great majority of the polling places in Philadelphia, it is safe to say there is not a fraudulent vote ever cast in the interest of either party. Conditions in this respect are far different from what they were some years ago.

FUSION'S DEATH KNEEL.
Another very gratifying result of the election is the complete wiping out of the insurgents and the Democrats in the legislative districts in which fusion deals they defeated regularly nominated Republican candidates for the legislature last fall and elected Democrats or nondescripts. This is emphasized in the election of the Republican county tickets in Chester, Blair, Montgomery and other counties. In Chester county there was an attempt to repeat the fusion victory of last year by the nomination of a fusion county ticket. This ticket was defeated by an overwhelming vote, the entire Republican county ticket being triumphantly elected.

In commenting upon this result T. Larry Eyre, the Republican leader of Chester county, said:
"In the hot fight that was made against the Republican county ticket and the assaults upon Colonel Barnett by the Philadelphia insurgent and Democratic newspapers that were sent broadcast free throughout our county, some of our Republicans were at first

(Special Correspondence.)

Harrisburg, Nov. 14.—The opposing political organizations in Pennsylvania are now lining up for the great presidential battle next year, with the Republicans rallying under the triumphant banner of McKinley and the Democracy gathering under the standard of Bryan.

It is to be a clean cut contest, and there will be no mistaking the issues. The situation in this state is about the same as exists in nearly every state in the Union. Republicans hail the struggle with delight and the Democrats are at a loss to know what to think about their chances of success.

That the great Keystone state shall take her proper place at the head of the Republican movement for the renomination of President McKinley is assured. Within the last few days the stalwart Republicans agreed upon a program which will leave no room to doubt the attitude of Pennsylvania Republicans in the coming national Republican convention. Colonel Quay, Senator Penrose, Governor Stone, Chairman Reeder, of the Republican state committee, former Chairman Elkin, among others, have all gone on record in favor of a prompt expression from the Republicans of the state, in accord with the action of the last Republican state convention, which declared in the platform upon which the last canvass was made that President McKinley is the undoubted choice of the Republicans of Pennsylvania for his own successors.

CHIEF WITH GOVERNOR STONE.
"The people of Pennsylvania," said Governor Stone, "who believe in Republican principles are unquestionably in favor of the renomination of President McKinley, and I am glad to see that the Republican organization has gone on record in a positive manner favorable to the renomination and reelection of the president."

The governor directed attention to the fact that in the first plank of the platform adopted at the last Republican state convention in Pennsylvania, after making eulogistic reference to President McKinley, this declaration follows:

DYNAMITE OUTRAGE.

Story of a Daring Hebbery in Titusville, Pa.—Two Policemen Injured.

Titusville, Pa., Nov. 14.—The gang who committed the dynamite outrage here is evidently responsible for the probable death of another man, James Mabin, one of the deputies who, while searching the woods around Grand Valley for the robber, who escaped, accidentally fell over a log, discharging his shotgun, the contents of which tore through his lungs. His recovery is almost impossible.

As a precautionary measure against possible mob violence in the event of the death of one or both the wounded policemen, the robber who was captured at Grand Valley was removed to the county jail at Meadville at 2 o'clock in the morning. The culprit was delighted to get out of the city.

As near as can be figured out he is the man who shot Policeman Sheehy, and the dead robber is the one who shot Chief of Police McGrath before the chief fired the shot which put an end to his accomplice.

BOARD OF BISHOPS.

Interesting Meeting in Philadelphia—Various Reports Here.

Philadelphia, Nov. 14.—The board of bishops of the Methodist Episcopal church has returned from Baltimore and met the general committee of the Freedmen's Aid and Southern Educational society in this city. Bishop W. X. Nindé presided at the morning session, and Dr. M. E. Neason, the corresponding secretary, read a report, giving details of the year's work of the society. During the day members of different conference districts were heard, and the reports of work of various schools in charge of the society were reviewed.

Liverpool, Nov. 14.—The British steamer Volga, from the German Cannons, West Africa, which has arrived here, reports that a German punitive expedition in the Cameroons recently chastised a tribe of rebellious cannibals, who had besieged several trading stations at and near Kribi. The Germans chased the natives into the bush, killing 200. It was reported, according to the captain of the Volga, that numbers of the natives were decapitated, their heads being stuck on poles in the interior towns to strike terror into the inhabitants.
