Is any gift more thoroughly appreciated by those who love books than a volume from the pen of their favorite author? We have just received for the holiday season a list (not large, but making up in excellence of selection), of standard authors. These are all in pretty bindings and make exceedingly appropriate Christmas presents. They come in single volumes and sets and the little mohey that it takes to buy them will surprise you.

The DeNovo series, Bouad in red and gold-good paper and type-30 cents each, some at 25.

Single volumes in finer bindings, each in a box, from 45 to 65 cents.

Sets containing two or three volumes, 70 to 90 cents.

Bibles in flexible covers, from $0.75 to $3 00. A large number of children's books, from the linen A B C, at 5 cents, to Chatterbox that sells for $1.15.

At the rate all these are selling there will be nothing left for New Years.

The book counter will be made a permanent feature of the store.

We have said so much about books that it doesn't leave much space for anything else, but with them came a lot of other holiday specialties such as odd pieces of China, Mirrors, Medallious, Clocks, Photo Frames, etc., that are pretty and inexpensive. The line of toys, games and other articles for the little folks is still complete. A fresh lot of Sparrow's and Tenney's X-mas caadies will be received Saturnay.

A Close Call for All Hands,

Yesterday morning a crew of men from this place boarded the 8:46 train for Tidioute, a short distance below which a good-sized fleet of oak logs was tied, which they intended to run to this place. The very high wind made it impossible to manage the raft, and just above what is known to old lumbermen as "whiteoak chute" it took for the hill, and the whole thing went to piec-s. Then it was a scramble for existence. The water was very deep, the current swift and the waves high, and it looked at one time as though Forest county might be minus two of her newly-elected officials, Judge and Sheriff-elect Crawford and Jamieson being of the crew. The other members were Ed. Witheral of Endeavor, Con. Sibble, Billy Morgan, Constable Moody and George Birteil all of Tionegta. Every fellow got a good ducking, and while all that wouldn't have given a whole lot just theh to have been out of their perilous predicament. The owners of the raft, Lawrence & Smearbaugh, think they can save about a third of the logs which lodged between here and Trunkeyyille.

Created a Disturbance.

Will J. McConnell, known in this section as a temperance lecturer, whose efforts to refrain from indulgence in drink are not always successful, has created a sensation in Camden, N. J. According to Philadelphia papers, the pastor of the Camden Calvary church, who assisted McConnell in a very successful temperance revival, had a dispute about the com pensation McConnell was to receive. "The situation was in this unpleasant condition when, about 2 o'clock last Saturday morning, Dr. Spooner was arroused from sleep by a great racket at the door of his residence, No. 414 North Second street. He found McConnell on the stoop and the latter demanded an immediate interview. He was laboring under great excitement when Dr. Spooner admitted him. McConnell accused the pastor of conspiring against him and threat-him $10 with which to reach his home in Bedding. "On Sunday McConnell suddenly Tin Ware, turned up again, and, Dr. Spooner says, Iron Ware, menaced the pastor's safety. Then Dr. Spooner called upon the Mayor for pro-Curtains, tection, and a policeman was stationed at the church.' Shades,
