CABUYAO TAKEN.

TWO AMERICANS KILLED AND FOUR WERE WOUNDED. Twenty-four of Enemy's Dead Found in One House—General of General Lawton at Manila—Rebels Plotted to Throw Bombs at Funerary Parade.

MANILA, Jan. 3.—The first movement of a general southern advance occurred, when two battalions of the Thirty-ninth Infantry landed and occupied Cabuyao on the south side of Laguna de Bay. Two Americans were killed and four were wounded.

It developed that the plot included the throwing of bombs among the foreign consuls attending the ceremony, in order to bring about international complications. These were, it seems, to have been thrown from Escoto's high buildings, but the avowals of Escoto by the funeral procession spoiled the plan.

General Lawton, who commanded the troops in the most turbulent district of the city, said he did not believe an actual uprising will occur, as the natives lacked the resolution to take the first steps in a movement that would entail fighting at close quarters with the American troops.

The funeral of General Lawton was held Saturday with impressive ceremonies. The remains were conveyed from the Pacific club down to the Lunaeta, to Pasig and thence to the transport Thomas, which sailed that afternoon.

BOERS DEFEATED.

FRENCH BEAT DURGERS AND OCCUPIED COLESBERG. Ladysmith Bombaraded by Boers—One Shot Killed an Officer and Wounded Seven Others—Boers Threw Bombs into Town Containing Plum Puddings.

LADYSMITH, Jan. 1.—The following helicopter message was received by way of Weenen from Ladysmith, dated Wednesday, Dec. 27: "The Boers are actively bombarding the town. One shell struck the Devonshire mess tent, killing Captain Dalsell and wounding seven lieutenants, Dent, Twiss, Tringham, Coffyn, Byrne, Scafe and Lane."

It was understood that a sum approximating $300,000 is at present available for pensioning purposes, and that before the system can be extended to the lines west of Pieterburg a much larger appropriation will be necessary. No person holding a position of importance had been affected by the pension law.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 2.—At the White House reception, on New Year's day, about 3,500 guests passed down the line. Mrs. McKinley was present, despite her feeble health. She remained in the blue parlor only through the strictly official section of the program, retiring, as it had been previously arranged.

The official procession moved down the stairs and through to the blue parlor, where the receiving party was to take its stand. Mrs. McKinley bowed and smiled to the little crowd of favored spectators who filled the end of the corridor to witness this opening act of the day's ceremonies.

Following these the American officials, judges of the Supreme court, senators and representatives, department chief and the like, made a longer if less striking procession. The reception to the general public concluded the function.

LEGISLATORS AT COLUMBUS.

Lawmaking Body of Ohio Convened and Organized by Accepting the Republican Caucus Nominees.

COLUMBUS, Jan. 1.—The general assembly met today and organized by electing the Republican caucus nominees, Lieutenant Governor Jones presided in the Senate. His successor, Judge John A. Caldwell, of Cincinnati, will not qualify until next Monday.

In the senate there are 19 Republicans, 11 Democrats and 1 Independent Republican. In the house there are 62 Republicans, 42 Democrats and 3 Independent Republicans. The Republican and Democratic caucuses were held Saturday afternoon and evening.

DR. PURVES' ACCEPTANCE. It Was Formally Announced in the First Avenue Presbyterian Church, New York. New York, Jan. 1.—The formal acceptance by the Rev. Dr. Purves of the pastorage of the Fifth Avenue Presbyterian church was announced at the services of that church Sunday morning by the Rev. Dr. John Dixon, the assistant secretary of the board of home missions of the Presbyterian church.

GERMANS MUCH AROUSED. Negotiations Already Begun Regarding Seizure of a German Steamer by British Ship. BERLIN, Jan. 1.—Regarding the seizure of the imperial mail steamer Baudersrath of the German East African line, a high official of the German foreign office who was interviewed, said: "Silence must be preserved at present concerning the actual status of the negotiations which have been begun with Great Britain about the matter."

CHICAGO, Jan. 1.—The end of the century conference of Christian men and women, under the auspices of the political action department of the Young Peoples' Temperance Federation of the America, was held at Willard hall, The Rev. W. D. Bliss of California, national president of the Social Reform union, spoke.

EVENTS OF A WEEK.

NEWS OF THE WORLD BRIEFLY NARRATED. The War in the Philippines, Crimes, Tri-state Happenings, Foreign, Business and Other Events Brought Down For the Reader in a Hurry.

NEWS FROM THE PHILIPPINES. The funeral of General Lawton occurred at Manila. The body was then placed on board the transport Thomas, which sailed for the United States. The body of Major John A. Logan was also placed on board.

Colonel Lockett, with a force of 2,500 including artillery, attacked a strong force of insurgents entrenched in the mountains near Montalban, about five miles northeast of San Mateo. The enemy was completely routed, the Americans pursued them through the hills, and which they fled in every direction.

General Hughes, at Iloilo, reports that an insurgent band attacked Brownell's company of the Twenty-sixth infantry near Jaro, and was repulsed with heavy loss in men and twenty-six rifles. Insurgents in Romblon are surrendering arms.

ALTOONA, Pa., Jan. 1.—There will be no strike among the miners of the bituminous coal district today. This agreement was arrived at at a meeting of the representatives of about 15,000 miners held at Lilly, Cambria county.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 1.—The announcement that the extension of the foreign consessions at Shanghai, China, had been finally approved brought to a close a diplomatic controversy between Great Britain, the United States and France.

General Young and Colonel Hood are establishing civil municipal governments and the ports in northern Luzon will be opened for trade about January 1. The bodies of some of the Maine victims, brought from Havana, were buried in Arlington cemetery, near Washington, with religious ceremonies and the honors of war.

TRIP-STATE EVENTS.

Grant Bathurst, assistant postmaster at Rote, Pa., was killed and two other persons were injured by an accidental explosion of dynamite at Salona, about eight miles from Lock Haven, Pa. F. A. Darban and wife and two servants narrowly escaped death by poison at Zanesville, O., from eating mashed potatoes. About six hours' work were required to save them.

Wayne Hatfield, son of Elias Hatfield and nephew of Devil Anse Hatfield, shot and killed George Hatfield's son of Bear Creek, W. Va. The shooting occurred in George Brazur's store. Wayne Hatfield escaped to the mountains.

By the explosion of dynamite two men received injuries from which they died, and three others were injured in the East End, Pittsburgh. From their names they were probably Italians. An earthquake shock was felt over a large portion of Southern California.

Ed Jackley, a non-union job pointer who was arrested last week for shooting Robert Hoard, one of a number of union men who tried to intimidate Jackley and four companions, was charged with murder by the coroner's jury at Kansas City. At Vandalia, near Mexico, Mo., Edward Spencer walked up to Benjamin Eddleman, a night watchman with whom he had quarreled, put one arm around him and with the other shot him dead. Spencer was arrested.

The British under General French defeated the Boers and occupied Colesberg. A Vienna dispatch said that Millecker, the composer, who had been suffering from a paralytic stroke, is dead. Gen. Young was appointed military governor of the provinces of north-western Luzon, with headquarters at Vigan.

General Wood, informed the war department of the death of Walter Rea Company G, Eighth infantry, on the 22d inst., at Camp Columbia, Quezadon of typhoid fever. A dispatch was received by the supervising general of the United States marine hospital service from Sergeant D. A. Carmichael, at Honolulu, containing the following: "HONOLULU, Dec. 29, via Victoria, B. C., Dec. 28, 1899.—There are two cases of reported plague at Honolulu. Two deaths Dec. 12. No new cases to Dec. 20. Quarantine against infection raised Dec. 19."
