DUNDONALD'S DASH.

REPORTED THAT HE HAS ENTERED LADYSMITH.

Buller Reported a Number of Casualties—Said He Thought He Was Making Substantial Progress—Boers Said to Have Insulted Women Near Kimberley.

DURBAN, Natal, Jan. 23.—The statement comes from an excellent source in Pietermaritzburg that Lord Dundonald has entered Ladysmith with 1,600 men.

This is not confirmed from any other quarter, but it is known that Lord Dundonald's flying column has been acting well to the left of the line of advance.

LONDON, Jan. 23.—The war office issued the following dispatch from General Buller: SPEARMAN'S CAMP, January 22, 6 p. m.—The following casualties are reported in General Hart's brigade as the result of yesterday's fighting: Killed—Captain Ryan, Yorkshire regiment, and five men; wounded—Second Lieutenant Andrews, Border regiment; Captain McLean, London regiment; Lieutenant Barlow, Yorkshire regiment, and 75 men; missing, eight men. Other casualties will be forwarded when received.

KIMBERLEY (by heliograph), Wednesday, Jan. 17, via Modder river, Jan. 23.—Native reports say that a proclamation has been issued at Barkly West by Commandant Borthot ordering all British subjects to quit before Jan. 22. Ladies are being subjected to great insults. The Boers are again very active, bombarding heavily from all positions from dawn till 8 a. m., the fire being directed chiefly against the redoubts.

LONDON, Jan. 23.—General Buller sent a dispatch to the war office which contained the following: "Spearman's Camp, Jan. 21, 9 p. m.—General Warren has been engaged all day, chiefly on his left, which he has swung forward a couple of miles. The ground is very difficult, and as the fighting is all the time up hill it is difficult to say exactly how much we have gained, but I think we are making substantial progress."

The war office has received the following from General Buller, dated Spearman's camp, Jan. 21, 6:55 a. m.: "In order to relieve the pressure on General Warren and to ascertain the strength of the enemy in front of Potgieter's drift, General Lyttonell made a reconnaissance in force yesterday. This kept the enemy in their trenches in full strength all day. "Our casualties—Third Battalion King's Royal Rifles, 2 killed, 12 wounded, 2 missing."

The war office posted this dispatch from General Buller, dated Jan. 21, 10 a. m.: "The following were wounded in the action near Neuter's spruit yesterday: "Officers—Staff Colonel B. Hamilton and Major C. McGregor; Second Lieutenant Laurie, Captain R. B. Lunt and Second Lieutenant M. G. Crofton and E. S. Barrett; First Border Rifle, Captain C. D. Vaughan and Second Lieutenant Maurier; First York and Lancashires, Second Lieutenant A. H. Kerrey; Second Dublin Fusiliers, Captain C. A. Hensley (since dead) and Major F. English; Second Gordons, Second Lieutenant P. D. Stewart, and 270 non-commissioned officers and men."

NEARER TO MAFEKING.

Plumer's Force Reported at Graobona—Boers Compelled to Move Back Their Guns.

LORENZO MARQUES, Jan. 22.—A dispatch from Gaberones, undated, said: Colonel Plumer has worked down the first toward Mafeking with three armored trains and a relieving force. The bridge is being rebuilt so that he may proceed.

MAFEKING, Jan. 6, by runner to Moleledi, Jan. 14, via Lourenso Marques, Jan. 21.—We concentrated our artillery, consisting of a seven-pounder, a Nordenfeldt and one little old ship's gun, on Jan. 3, embracing during the darkness so as to bear on the enemy's big siege gun. We carefully concealed the guns until the next afternoon, when, after the enemy had fired a couple of shells, we let loose all our pieces, firing and loading as fast as possible.

One of our shots must have thrown the enemy's siege gun out of position, for it ceased firing. With glasses we could see the Boers rapidly reinforcing that point. The next day they moved back their guns 700 yards. They employed a five-pounder and proceeded to drop shells regularly into Market square.

We have made up our minds to stick it out and have food for another three months. The whole garrison is enraged at the enemy for firing upon the women's laager.

KRUGER'S CAR FOR DAVIS.

Has Caused Europe to Ask Whether He's On a Special Mission for McKinley.

LORENZO MARQUES, Jan. 22.—Webster Davis, United States assistant secretary of the interior, arrived here on his way to Pretoria and called upon the governor general, Captain Alvaro da Costa Pereira, who gave him a most courteous reception and requested him to convey a message of special friendship to President McKinley.

The Transvaal government has informed Mr. Davis that President Kruger's saloon carriage will convey him to Pretoria.

LONDON, Jan. 23.—The publication of the fact that President Kruger is sending a private car to take Webster Davis from Lourenso Marques to Pretoria caused considerable speculation here as to whether Mr. Davis, notwithstanding the denials from Washington, has not some sort of official mission.

It was thought rather singular that a simple traveler, even though an official at home, should receive so much attention. The subject attracted the curi-

REBELS DEFEATED.

TROOPS UNDER JOHNSON AND MUIR TOOK TAAL.

The United States Gunboat Marietta Also Shelled the Place—Two Americans Wounded—Ten Insurgent Dead Found on the Field.

MANILA, Jan. 23.—Two companies of the Forty-sixth infantry, under Major Johnson, and three companies of the Thirty-eighth infantry, commanded by Major Muir, defeated 800 insurgents at Taal, province of Batangas, taking the town. The United States gunboat Marietta also shelled the place. The insurgents had four cannon, two of which were captured. Two Americans were wounded and ten insurgent dead were found on the field.

DAVIS' TRIP PERSONAL.

Not Representing the United States in South Africa—Macrum Is Now Out of the Service.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 23.—Both the state and interior departments declare that Webster Davis, assistant secretary of the interior, represents no department of the United States government in his visit to South Africa, but is there in a personal capacity. Since his arrival at Cape Town, where he went to visit his cousin, Consul General Stowe, the state department has been very much annoyed at the misconception that has been placed upon his visit. It was to prevent further misunderstandings on that score that the department positively declined Mr. Davis' application for leave of absence from Mr. Stowe, who wished to accompany Mr. Davis to Pretoria.

It is possible that Mr. Davis will receive a reminder from the interior department that his course is embarrassing to the government. The state department has sent no instructions to Mr. Macrum respecting his attitude toward the newspapers since his departure from Pretoria for the United States. In fact, it is said the department has no authority whatever over Mr. Macrum, who has passed out of the government service.

MOURNS OVER STEEVENS' DEATH.

The Correspondent of the Daily Mail Was Most Popular in London.

LONDON, Jan. 23.—The news of the death of G. W. Stevens, the special correspondent of the London Daily Mail, from enteric fever, Monday at Lady-smith, has been received with genuine sorrow here, where he has many friends and out of his profession, Mr. Stevens had a distinguished career at Oxford. His first newspaper success was a series of letters which he wrote from America, headed "The Land of the Dollar." His last work before going to the Transvaal was "The Tragedy of Dreyfus," and his long stay in hot, unsanitary Rennes is thought to have undermined his constitution to an extent that made him easy prey for the fever.

Mr. Stevens made a romantic marriage a few years ago with a Mrs. Rogers, well known in London society. She was 60 years old and Mr. Stevens was 26, but the marriage was very happy. They were devoted to each other. Mr. Stevens used to write to her daily wherever he was.

ROUSED THEM TO PRAYER.

Awful Murders Caused Frankfort Clergymen to Appoint Tomorrow for Services.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Jan. 22.—The clergymen of Frankfort have decided that tomorrow shall be set apart in this city as a day of humiliation and prayer. Services will be held in the Episcopal church at three different times during the day, the first service being at 9 a. m., the second at 4 p. m. and the third at 7 p. m. The churches uniting in observance of the day include the Episcopal, Baptist, Methodist, two Presbyterian, Christian and Roman Catholic—all the churches in Frankfort.

The clergymen of the various denominations announced from their pulpits Sunday morning that the deplorable events of the last week in the city of Frankfort and the continued talk of the possible repetition of such affairs as the Colson-Scott tragedy, which is, at times indulged in by indiscreet political partisans, had rendered necessary some steps to awaken the public conscience to the dangers threatening the commonwealth of Frankfort. Prayers will be offered at all three services asking that men of both parties may be guided to act with wisdom and moderation and that the danger of further bloodshed may be safely passed by.

EVIDENCE OF MURDER AND ROBBERY.

Coroner Held an Inquest on the Body of Eyre.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 23.—The coroner of Bridgeport, N. J., held an autopsy and inquest on the body of George B. Eyre, of Chester, Pa., which was found imbedded in the mud on Cadwallader island, near there, after the man had been missing since Dec. 21. The post-mortem examination showed that Eyre's death was the result of a gunshot wound, the head being filled with shot. There was strong evidence of murder and robbery.

Miss Fell Married Mr. Cassatt.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 23.—Miss Minnie Drexel Fell, daughter of Mrs. Alexander Van Rensselaer, was married to Robert Kelo Cassatt, son of A. J. Cassatt, president of the Pennsylvania railroad. The ceremony was performed in St. Thomas Episcopal church, Whittemarsh, a suburb of this city, by the Rev. Samuel Snelling, rector of the parish.

Miners Granted Increases.

HAZLETON, Pa., Jan. 23.—Notice was given at the collieries of A. Pardee & Co. of an increase of 2 per cent in wages. Next month another advance of 2 per cent will be made. All the coal companies in the Hazleton region have granted increases within the last eight weeks.

Wood on Tour of Inspection.

CINCINNATI, Jan. 23.—Governor General Wood, General Lee, Mrs. Lee, General Chaffee, Mrs. Chaffee, General Riss Rivera, Mrs. Rivera, Miss Lee, Miss Richards and others arrived here by special train from Havana, on a tour of inspection.

MACRUM A PEACE ENVOY.

Brings Oon Paul's Letter to the British—in a Terms to the President.

LONDON, Jan. 23.—A special dispatch from Naples said that Mr. Macrum was reported to be the bearer of a letter to President McKinley from President Kruger, in which the latter proposed peace terms based upon the status quo, with complete independence and a seven-year franchise.

ROME, Jan. 23.—Charles E. Macrum, former United States consul at Pretoria, left here for Paris. Mr. Easton, of the Washington Post, who accompanied Mr. Macrum, said, in the course of an interview at Naples, that the Boers know they must ultimately be defeated, but are determined to resist to the last. He praised the Boer tactics and expressed admiration for the bravery of both armies. The Africans are regarded by Mr. Easton as "a permanent danger to the British."

He asserted that, prior to the war, the Transvaal government inquired what quantity of cartridges was allowed the German troops in the Franco-Prussian war, and then ordered double the quantity. PARIS, Jan. 23.—The Matin, referring to the arrival of Mr. Macrum in Europe, said that the object of his mission is mysterious, and asks if there be any connection between his return and the arrival of Webster Davis at Lourenso Marques, from which point he is to be taken to Pretoria in a special train sent by President Kruger.

The Matin thinks it very probable that President Kruger, having been out of off from telegraphic communication with Dr. Leyds, is resorting to the good offices of the Americans in order to communicate with the rest of the world, and the paper concludes its observations by saying: "We shall soon know the meaning of these communications."

RUSKIN'S FUNERAL ON THURSDAY.

The Great Critic and Writer a Victim of Influenza.

LONDON, Jan. 23.—The remains of John Ruskin, in accordance with a wish expressed years ago, will be interred in Coniston churchyard. The funeral will take place on Thursday. Ruskin, who was a famous art critic and writer, died, aged 81, of influenza. Mr. Ruskin had been in failing health for some time and death was looked forward to by his friends.

SHELDON TO HAVE A TRIAL.

Will Run a Paper For a Week on Plan Outlined in "In His Steps."

TOPEKA, Kan., Jan. 23.—The Rev. Charles M. Sheldon, author of "In His Steps," is to be given an opportunity to edit a daily newspaper as he thinks a christian daily should be edited. For the week beginning March 13 he will have absolute control of every department of the Topeka Capital—news, editorial and advertising. At the Detroit convention of the Christian Endeavor society Mr. Sheldon asked what "philanthropic gentlemen in this age of magnificent endowments to educational institutions would give $1,000,000 for the creation of a great christian daily."

The philanthropic gentleman has not appeared with the money, but, in response to the appeals of the leading citizens of Topeka, Mr. Sheldon's home town, Mr. Dell Keyser, the president of the Topeka capital company, offered to give the paper to Mr. Sheldon for one week, and the offer has been accepted. It is understood that able writers are to assist Mr. Sheldon, and that statesmen, prominent divines and editors of some of the dailies of New York, Chicago and St. Louis will help him by suggestions. Mr. Sheldon has not yet given any intimation of his plans.

Insanity Prevented Hillman Hanging.

HARRISBURG, Jan. 23.—The sheriff of Allegheny county returned to Governor Stone the warrant issued for the execution of William Hillman, the Allegheny county murderer, who was to be executed today, with the information that Hillman has been adjudged insane and sent by the court to an insane hospital. The governor endorsed the sheriff's action, but the warrant will hold good if Hillman is restored to reason.
