SENATOR PENROSE MAKING A RECORD

The Young Pennsylvanian Forging to the Front in National Affairs.

HE IS IN GREAT DEMAND.

Admiration Expressed Over His Handling of the Quay Case and His Thoughtfulness in Honoring the Memory of the Lamented Colonel Hawkins, of the Fighting Teath Regiment. (Special Correspondence.)

Harrisburg, March 6 .- United States Senator Bojes Penrose is making a national reputation as an aggressive, tactful and adroit parliamentarian through his management of the case of Colonel M. S. Quay before the United States senate. Though confronted by a combination of disgruntled Republicans and a large majority of the Democrats under the leadership of the chairman of the Democratic national committee, Senator Jones, of Arkansas, the brilliant young Pennsylvanian has not been defeated in any of his efforts to bring this case to a speedy conclusion. He has maintained from the outset that the question of the admission of Colonel Quay upon the certificate of appointment from Governor Stone was not one of rolitics, but that it was based upon broad constitutional grounds and the manifest intention of the framers of the constitution that every state in the Union should be fully represented in the United States An insidious attempt was senate. made by some of the factional opponents of Colonel Quay to have the Quay case up before the Republican senatorial caucus. The purpose of this was to make it a political issue, which would result in a drawing of partisan lines in the senate, which was exactly what the friends of Colonel Quay did not want. Senator Penrose succeeded in blocking this little game, and the matter never came before the Republican caucus of the senate. The case has since been argued entirely upon the issue of the proper construction of the constitution. The speeches of Senatorial Daniel, of Virginia, of the venerable and distinguished Senator Hoar, of Massachusetts, and by others all made it quite clear that there was but one thing for the senate to do, and that was to seat Colonel Quay. The arguments on the other side have not made an impression. In most cases it was manifest that politics and not an unprejudiced study of the question were back of the opposition to Colonel Quay. When this case shall have been disposed of and Colonel Quay shall again occupy his seat in the senate Boles Penrose will justly be entitled to commendation for the masterly manner in which he has directed the fight.

A SILLY INSURGENT STORY. In their efforts to disrupt the Republican organization the Flinn-Martin insurgents have sent through the state by their press bureau a story to the effect that Senator Penrose violated the action of the Republican caucus of the United States senate in calling up the Quay case when he did. The Pennsylvania guerrillas thereby sought to justify the action of the caucus bolters at Harrisburg on the United States senatorship. If Penrose could afford to bolt the Republican caucus at Washington, they argued in this newspaper story, he certainly could not criticize others who did not respect and abide by the action of the Republican caucus at Harrisburg on the United States senatorship in the Quay case. The facts are, as above stated, the Quay case was never the subject of caucus action at Washington, Had it been Penrose could never have gotten the case before the senate as he did. It should be apparent that the stalwart Republicans who voted to open the discussion of the Quay case would never have done so if the party's caucus had decided upon another program. This insurgent story is but on a par with others that are circulated weekly in the desperate campaign to break through the ines of the Republican organization. The popular contempt of the caucus bolter among Republicans has now been quite forcibly impressed upon the insurgents, but they have made a very silly attempt to make Senator Penrose out a caucus bolter. Senator Penrose is rapidly forging to the front in national affairs. He has had to decline many invitations to speak at banquets and other functions in different parts of the country.

adopted and that the island would soon be formally named Hawkins Island." PENNSYLVANIA IS PROSPEROUS. Colonel Thomas Powers, state banking commissioner, has submitted to Governor Stone a report of his department for the last fiscal year, which contains some astounding prosperity figures. There has been an increase under every head, except that of capital stock. There are now in Pennsylvania 202 institutions under the supervision of the banking department, being 91 banks, 95 trust companies and 16 savings institutions, an increase of five since the last annual report. Colonel Powers calls attention to the emarkable prosperity of the financial institutions for the year just ended. While all show the effect of the times," he says, "it is particularly gratifying to note the increase of de positors and deposits in the savings institutions, which attest the fact that the wage earners are sharing in the general prosperity. The report shows that the average of deposits to each depositor in the banks was $412.25; in savings institutions, $288.42; in trust companies, $940.95; average deposits to each depositor in all institutions, $480.98. The total capital of the three classes of institutions-banks, savings institutions and trust companies-was $45,116,-617.50, a decrease of $873,767.50, as mpared with the year previous.

It is in the item of deposits, however, that the report makes its most remarkable showing. The total of deposits for the year is $324,880,735.84, an increase of $59,310,488.90. The amount of loans is shown to have been $158,272,-572.62, an increase of $35,095,628.47. The investment securities reached the magnificent total of $191,265,479.03, an increase of $22,740,879.99.

BOLTERS ARE REPUDIATED,

Members of the Legislature Who Remained Out of the Republican Cauens Are Turned Down-Lancaster, Armstrong, Mercer, Union and Lawrence Follow Jefferson and Snyder.

(Special Correspondence.)

Philadelphia, March 6 .- Corrected returns from the Republican primary elections held throughout Pennsylvania last Saturday show that there was a veritable Waterloo for the Republican insurgent forces and caucus bolters. The principle that the majority shall rule apparently is not going to be ignored by the Republicans of the old Keystone commonwealth and thousands of them have again taken advantage of an opportunity to show their loyalty to this fundamental principle of their party. In every case where a candidate made a canvass as an avowed anti-Quay man or where he was backed by the Flinn-Martin outfit, he suffered crushing defeat

Lancaster, Mercer, Lawrence, Armstrong and Union counties wheeled into line with the stalwart procession they nominated men who are pledged to abide by the action of a majority of the Republican caucus in the organization of the legislature and in the selection of a Republican candidate for United States senator. This result is but emphasizing the votes of the Republicans of Jefferson and Snyder counties, where stalwart legislative nominations had previously been made

H. S. Stauffer, Columbia; A. B. Swlegart, Ephrata township UNION LINES UP.

Snyder, Union and Northumberland counties constitute the Seventeenth senatorial district. This district was represented in the last legislature by nator Hummell. He is not a candidate for re-election. Editor B. K Focht, of the Lewisburg Saturday News, carried Snyder county the week before, and last Saturday he was unopposed in Union county. His nomination is thus assured, as Union and Snyder control the district, Editor Focht is a stalwart Republican. There was a stiff fight in Union county for member of the assembly by G. C. Mohn, of Laurelton, a stalwart Republican, defeating the avowed anti-Quay man by a good majority. LAWRENCE FOR QUAY.

The Republican primaries in Law-ence on last Saturday were the most bitterly contested in the history of the county. The Quay and anti-Quay lines were sharply drawn, especially in the legislature fight. The result was the omination of Malcolm McConnell and J. L. McAnlis, the Quay candidates for the legislature, over J. W. Stringmayer and Samuel White, the avowed anti-Quay candidates by over 250 majority. James H. Brown for sheriff and Chas. E. Mehard for district attorney won. These were also recognized as the Quay candidates. Brown, the successful candidate, has been the chief of the New Castle fire department for years, and is a brother of Postmaster John B. Brown. Representative McAnlis, who is renominated, voted for Colonel Quay in the last session of the legislature, and his victory is a great vindication, after the bitter attacks made upon him.

MERCER REPUDIATES BOLTERS. The result of the Republican primaries in Mercer county last Saturday was a decided victory for the friends of Colonel Quay. They carried the county by over 1,500 majority in some

J. D. Emery, Quayite, received the county indorsement for state senate over William Kile, anti-Quayite, by 800 majority. Emery was a member of the legislature of 1897, and voted for Senator Penrose. The contest for the legislative candidates was made on strictly Quay and anti-Quay lines, and the Quay candidate will have from 1,200 to 1,500 majority. Dr. J. M. Martin, of Grove City, and George H. Caldwell, of Deer Creek, were members of the last legislature and refused to enter the Republican caucus and voted against Quay on each ballot. They sustained an overwhelming defeat for re-election. Levi Morrison, of Greenville, who voted for Quay for senator, was nominated by a large majority. The successful candidates for the legislature are: Levi Morrison, Greenville; H. K. Dougherty, Grove City, and Joseph C. Gibson, Hickory, Henry Robinson received the county's endorsement for congress by a large majority over William A. McCormick. There was no contest for state delegates, and the delegation composed of A. H. McElrath, of Mercer: Harry Forker, of Sharon: Silas Hunter, of Salem, and J. E. Giebner, of Sandy Lake, are friends of Colonel Quay.

QUAY MAN WINS. In Armstrong county the followers of Flinn made a determined fight. Representative George McNees was, however, nominated for state senator. He is a Quay man, having voted for Quay last winter in the house. One, and probably the two, members of the house will be stalwarts. The regulars had six candidates in the field and thus divided their strength. The insurgents combined on one candidate and thus had an advantage by trading with friends of regular candidates The vote on the state senatorship, however, clearly indicated the sentiment of the voters. BRADFORD IS STALWART. Republican primaries were held in Bradford county last Saturday to elect delegates to the county convention on Thursday next. The stalwarts had an easy victory over the insurgent element of the party. The convention will elect five delegates to the state convention. Congressman Wright will be renominated without opposition and Hon. E. B. Hardenbergh will be indorsed for auditor general. A sharp contest for county delegate from Milan, the home of Representative Edmiston, the bolter candidate for state senator, was made, the result

PENROSE HONORS HAWKINS.

The Quay case has by no means occupied all of Senator Penrose's time. He is busy every day looking after the interests of his constituents, who, during the senatorial vacancy, include the entire population of the Keystone state. One of the latest successful efforts on his part is told in a special dispatch from Washington, which reads;

"The war department has decided to pay an unusual honor to the memory of the late Colonel Alexander L. Hawkins, who commanded the Tenth Pennsylvania regiment in the Philippine campaign and who died on the transport Senator while en route with his regiment.

"Recently Senator Penrose wrote the secretary of war a letter suggesting that the name of Corregidor Island, in Manila bay, be changed to Hawkins Island. Mr. Penrose referred to Colonel Hawkins' bravery and his splendid services for his country in the Philippines, and also to the fact that he was taken ill on Corregidor Island and was in a hospital there previous to taking a transport for this country. The suggestion was favorably received by Secretary Root. "Today Adjutant General Corbin no-

LANCASTER'S CLEAN SWEEP. The Republican primary elections in Lancaster county, notwithstanding the fact that there was only one ticket in the field, there being opposition on only two county offices, was remarkable for the magnitude of the vote polled.

In Lancaster city the full returns show that over 2,600 votes were polled. and the total vote cast in the county exceeded 10,000.

The offices for which there was a semblance of contest were recorder and director of the poor. For recorder the candidates were: Charles B. Keller, of Manheim township, and John H. Bausman, of Lancaster city, Keller, who had been the support of the Griest-Quay combination, is elected by probably 2,000 majority. The full vote of the city gives Keller 2,392 and Bausman 258.

Following is the ticket elected, all being adherents to the Griest-Quay leadership: Congress, Marriot B. Brosius; recorder, Charles E. Keller, Manheim township; jury commissioner, Jonas Huber, Marietta; prison inspectors, Gideon H. Smith, West Hempfield; Maris B. Weaver, West Lampeter; directors of the poor, Jacob S. Strine, Columbia, and Jonathan H. ``` Congressman Joseph C. Sibley, who has renounced the Democracy and become a full fledged Republican, few months after his election to congress from the Warren-Venango district, announced that he would divide his congressional salary for the full term among the five hospitals of the district.

 In accordance with his promise the officials of the projected Franklin hospital have just received his check for $1,000, and the hospitals at Kane, Bradford, Warren and Oil City have each received a check for a like amount

Each hospital will have received $2,000 at the end of Mr. Sibley's term. Congressman Sibley took similar action with his salary while he represented the Twenty-sixth district, dividing it among the labor organizations of Erie and Crawford counties.

Monkey and Goat.

Monkeys are more renowned for mis chief than for kindness, but even monkeys can be benevolent. M. Mouton re cords the doings of one in Guadeloupe that surely seemed to merit that reputa

This monkey had a friend in a goat that went daily to the pasture. Every night the monkey would pick out the burs and thorns, sometimes to the number of 2,000 or 3,000, from the goat's fleece, in order that the animal might lie down in peace. On coming in from the pasture the goat regularly went in search of his light handed friend and submitted himself to 5142 the operation. Strange to say, the tricky 3179 instincts of the monkey reasserted themselves after the pricks were removed. 3179 He would tease the poor goat unmerci- 3179 fully, plucking his beard, poking him in the eyes and pulling ont his hairs. The goat bore it all with patience, perhaps regarding it as only a fair price to be paid | 3182 3-4-5for the removal of the thorns.
