

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 14.

It doesn't make much difference what kind of paper a man's notes are written upon, if he can only realize on them. But a woman's notes should be written on the best and most appropriate paper obtainable. That kind is made by George B. Hurd & Co., of New York, who set the fashion in fine stationery. We sell it and have a good selection of the latest shapes and colors.

The "Society Miniature Note" and "Bank Note Bond" are the small papers for invitations, regrets, etc.; price 35c. The regular sizes in Hurd's range from 25c. to 45c. We have, however, a good note paper in pretty boxes that sells for 15c.

Legal cap and fool-cap and note paper and envelopes, in bulk, tablets, business blanks and blank books for commercial use, such as ledgers, journals, day books, record, counter, time and memorandum books and anything for the desk or office.

Ask to see the Photo. mailing envelopes if you wish to see something you have always felt the need of when sending pictures by mail. Put in the photograph, write the address and put on a 2c-stamp and the trick is done. No bother, 5 cents each.

Go to Anster's and get Bauman's Little Blue Bag, a box of Jelly Quick, and a bottle of Kitchen Queen Vanilla or Lemon, and with them you will get, free, two pretty little gold fish in a neat little globe.

Frank J. Henderson of Hickory is doing some pretty lively hustling these days in the sale of all sorts of farm machinery. He represents one of the largest firms in the country and has booked a good many orders within the past two weeks.

Attention is directed to the new inventory of Oram & Urey, who recently bought out the Walker & Dale establishment in the place. The new firm is attentive to business and has a fine line of rigs of every description ready to send out at a moment's notice.

This has not been much of a winter for heavy hauling by sleds, as the snow has been a scarce article in this neck of woods, but Wm. Hall of Endeavor made a pretty good record last week one day when he hauled 14,732 feet of lumber from Economic mills to Endeavor, in two loads.

Not long since a 2-bushel bag of beans was taken from the granary of Mrs. John Wiles, of Smokey Hill. It was a small piece of business, and Mrs. Wiles is not well able to stand the loss. If the party will return same no questions will be asked, but otherwise an arrest is liable to take place.

Biggle Berry Book is an excellent little manual worthy of a place in every farmer's library. The book is condensed and practical, as valuable for the villager with his 10x12 berry patch as it is for the commercial berry grower with his twenty-acre field. The price is 50 cents, free by mail; address the publishers, Wilmar Atkinson & Co., Philadelphia.

C. M. Whiteman has purchased the Schellhammer interest in the Tionesta Heating & Plumbing Co. of this place, and expects to give his best attention to the business of the company hereafter. The firm name will remain the same, the members being Messrs. Whiteman and Amann. They will push the business for all there is in it, and will give strict attention to all contracts, orders, etc., that come in their way, guaranteeing perfect satisfaction in all work entrusted to them. There is more than sufficient work in this line here to keep a lively firm hustling and these gentlemen will undoubtedly meet with good success in their endeavor to give our people good service. Patronize them.

Girls, don't hang around the depot unless you are going away or meeting friends, says an exchange. Don't go to church and take a back seat with your escort and then whisper and giggle during the services. Don't be loud, boisterous or slangy. Stand on your dignity; don't carry your heart on your sleeve and don't throw yourselves in the arms of every well dressed stranger that comes to town. Be womanly, be modest, be serious at times. Don't unsex yourselves and thus lose woman's greatest charm. Don't regard your long-legged, awkward brother as a nuisance. Don't turn up your nose at father and his poor grammar, and above all, don't play "A Hot Time" on the piano when your mother is having "a hot time" over the wash tub.

Reports that have been authenticated have been given the press that the Union Telephone and Telegraph Company, controlling all the independent lines in Northwestern Pennsylvania, has been purchased by the Telephone, Telegraph and Cable Company of America, the latter being organized by Wm. Latta. This company now controls one-sixth of all the telephones in the country. Its exact position in the big fight among the telephone companies is a little uncertain, but it is reported that it is a reorganization of the Bell interests. This company now has control of the independent lines in Mercer county and all the towns surrounding that county. Franklin News. Overtures have of late been made to the Forest Telephone Company for the sale of its stock, but thus far without results.

A Pleasant Reception.

Last Friday evening Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Ritchey gave a reception to their Sabbath School classes at their pleasant home, which was one of the pleasurable social events of the season. A nicely arranged program was prettily rendered by members of the classes, lending novelty as well as enjoyment to the occasion. The instrumental music by Mrs. Ritchey and the Misses Lizzie and Winnie Randall and Florence Klinefister, was a delightful feature of the evening, and the tableaux by Mrs. R. N. Spear, Mrs. Geo. Killmer and Misses Maud Denniston, Laura and Emma Lawrence, Mae Grove and Adela Randall were rendered with most charming effect. Mr. Ritchey's reading of the "Creeds of the Bells" was one of the nice parts of the program and quite appropriate to the occasion. The company sang several selections from the Sabbath School books with accompaniments on the piano and cornet by Master John Ritchey. At the conclusion of the program a nice lunch was served, the remainder of the evening being most pleasantly spent in the discussion of the same. It was near the hour of twelve when the guests bid a cheerful goodnight to the genial host and hostess, who had again demonstrated their cleverness in entertaining a congenial company of friends.

Oil Notes.

The Proper well on Fork Run was finished last Saturday, but, contrary to all expectations, did not show up for a very strong producer, although the owners feel satisfied they have a fair well. Ed. Wasson, near the mouth of Cool creek, was successful in getting the tons out of the well last week, and is now down over 700 feet. At this depth they have found no oil, but went through what is known as the Clarion sand. They expect to go 2,000 feet unless pay streak is tapped at a less depth. Grove & Longwell, Hickory township, are still aching out muck at their well, with little prospect of getting the cave-in exhausted very soon.

The transfer of the Pequot and Caranahan interests at Tronkeyville to Franklin parties, mentioned in these notes last week, did not materialize. We did not learn why the deal failed in consummation.

Some Pertinent Questions.

Clerk—Good-morning my little Miss; where are you going so early this fine morning?

She—I am taking our grocery order to the Tionesta Cash Store.

Clerk—Why do you not bring your order to us?

She—Do you sell Silver Drip syrup at 25c a gallon, and California prunes at 5c a pound, 17 lbs. granulated sugar for $1 or 19 lbs light brown for $1, coffee cakes at 5c lb., or good corn at 5c a can, or best to-matoes 3 cads for 25c, and 8 bars Oatleaf or Lenox soap for 25c, or 6 packages corn starch for 25c?

Clerk—No, Madam, we do not. Good-morning. 11

Kelleitville.

People always say that "he who prolongs life, restores health and adds to the store of human happiness, is certainly and justly to be set down as a friend of his fellow man." Well, this is a world where trouble and cares come as often as the day comes and the tiring care-worn travelers to that "hourne from whence none return," need a word of cheer along life's pathway that the Sun may shine brighter And our cares feel lighter, While the days glide along With the surging throng.

And to do this we must write and talk and sing once in a while, of those things that are done in a vein of humor that will provoke a smile and may be the cause of an outburst of laughter as we behold or learn of the follies or mishaps and adventures of other people and we cannot help enjoying it the more, like a good dinner, when at some one else's expense. So, having recently graduated from Hashchellhaskash college and being informed by our masters in education that by our massive brow and keen intellect we are designed to make our mark in the world with the pen, we here and now launch our little boom upon the market, and if in our remarks you find a word of wit or wisdom worth laughing at it will be without vulgarity in subject or language. And if you enjoy reading about someone else's mishaps and pleasures and after you have read the Kelleitville letter for a few weeks and find yourself ten or fifteen pounds heavier and your health better and you "feel happy as a lark" you are perfectly welcome to it all, then please give us an inkling of your own troubles and we will proceed to put them in shape as per our learning, for we know you richly deserve it.

Considerable sickness is prevailing throughout this proximity, the trouble being mostly among children and are the type of catarrhal fever. Dr. Detar has a large number of cases among his patients and in every instance the disease is yielding readily to the treatment. Thanks to the little doctor's judgment, not a single case has yet proved fatal.

Oscar L. Johnson a popular young book-keeper for the Pen-Tanning Co., who is employed in the main office at Sheffield, was visiting his parents Mr. and Mrs. Geo. R. Johnson over Sunday.

Chas. Berlin, who has been employed at L. S. Clough's mills for the past two years, was visiting his mother, a few days last week. Chas. was unfortunate in severing an artery or cord in his right foot about a month ago, which has laid him off duty ever since. He has about fully recovered.

F. R. Lanson of Tionesta was up to our "burg" nearly all of last week looking over the stock in the Collins store. Mr. Lanson, we understand, will occupy a very prominent position with the Salmon Creek Lumber Co., after April 1-4.

T. D. Collins is having a band mill put in the old mill at Buck mills. This will make up to date band mill district, Mr. C. alone being interested in five such mills on Tionesta creek and at Golizna. The cut of these mills combined for the coming season will perhaps be the largest ever cut in Forest county.

Mrs. M. Andrews was summoned by telegram to Hornelville, N. Y., two weeks ago by the serious illness of her favorite sister, Mrs. Wm. Garrison, of No. 58 Bennett street, Mrs. Andrews had reached her sister's bedside but a short time before she was relieved of her sufferings and went to her final resting place on Wednesday, Feb. 28, 1900. While the long and severe illness of Mrs. Garrison extending over a period of three years, had prepared her faithful and devoted husband, children, relatives and friends for the worst, yet her demise has completely crushed those near and dear to her. Her life was a beautiful exemplification of true womanhood, her long illness a demonstration of her fortitude. She bore pain smilingly and viewed death without alarm, for she was prepared to meet it whenever the summons came. Mrs. Garrison was but 40 years old. Besides her husband leaves two children, a mother, five sisters—Mrs. Geo. W. Brown and Mrs. Geo. Garrison of Hornelville, Mrs. Frank Smith of Painted Post, Mrs. Walter Phillips of Dundee, and Mrs. M. Andrews of this place, and two brothers. A very touching incident took place near the bier of the dead woman the day following her death. The grief-stricken husband stood beside it gazing upon the face of her whom he loved so dearly. Tears were trickling down his cheeks and beside him was his little thirteen year old daughter. The latter looked up and taking his hand in hers said, "Papa don't feel so badly, for we have much to live for in the hope of seeing dear mamma in heaven, where I know she has gone." Could anything better demonstrate the teaching of a good mother? Mrs. Andrews returned home on last Tuesday with her niece, Miss Pearl Garrison, who will evidently make her home here since her mother's death.

Capt. J. J. Haight and J. W. Black, both of Howe Twp., and both aspirants for legislative honors, were in town over Monday night looking up their Republican friends. This reminds us that Republican primaries will soon be here.

Mrs. Southworth of Newtown Mill, an invalid old lady, died at the residence of W. F. Jones on Tuesday and was buried at Town Line cemetery on Thursday of last week.

Mrs. Sue Bean of Endeavor, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. C. Southworth, of the Kingsley House, for the past three weeks, returned home last Monday. She was accompanied by her niece, Miss Bell Southworth, who will make her a visit.

A large majority of the townspeople met at the residence of Mrs. E. D. Miller on Thursday evening and tendered a surprise to Richard and Flora Miller, who on Saturday were 19 and 17 years old respectively. The party was given two days ahead so as not to interfere with other enjoyables of somewhat similar nature. There were fifty responded to invitations and the night being lovely everyone enjoyed themselves. Quite a display of presents were given to show the donors' friendship.

There is to be a regular old time quilting bee at Mrs. John Wilson's on next Friday. All the ladies who have learned to manipulate that small but useful article, the needle, are cordially invited to come, and those that wish it will be allowed the privilege of dancing in the evening.

A large part of our merry-goers were up to Porkey hall to attend a general dance on Friday given by the U. S. society.

Some few—very few we are glad to note—seem to think that a public gathering is one of the best places to settle personal grievances, or in fact the only place it can be done a la Corbet. The last dance was no exception to the rule, and unless this style of entertainment ceases the power of the press will be brought to bear to break it up. Let the guilty parties beware or ye shall be a power such as will extend to these miscreants a lesson that will not soon be forgotten. If any of those Sharks and Jeffories don't like this arrangement they know who the society reporter is, and they can be accommodated with a little bear dance on short notice. We trust we are understood. We know our gut and think we are able to maintain it. It is not a very enjoyable thing for a man to attend a social in his best bib and tucker that "shuts like the paper on the wall," and at the end of the festivities he two sizes too small. And for that matter this little free fight has caused ye to be to some what puffed up, too, if you will pardon the witicism. This was the only regrettable feature of an otherwise social and jovial event.

There will be local institutes in the schoolhouse on next Saturday. All those interested in educational matters are cordially invited to attend. HAY WARD.

It is very hard to stand idly by and see our dear ones suffer while awaiting the arrival of the doctor. An Albany (N.Y.) dairyman called at a drug store there for a doctor to come and see his child, then very sick with croup. Not finding the doctor in, he left word for him to come at once on his return. He also bought a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, which he hoped would give some relief until the doctor should arrive. In a few hours he returned, saying the doctor need not come, as the child was much better. The druggist, Mr. Otto Scholz, says the family has since recommended Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to their neighbors and friends until he has a constant demand for it from that part of the country. For sale by all druggists.

Try the "New Way" for better prices. John Durr, Poseyville, Ind., says, "I never used anything as good as One Minute Cough Cure. We are never without it." Quickly breaks up coughs and colds. Cures all throat and lung troubles. Its use will prevent consumption. Pleasant to take. Heath & Killmer.

Hopkins sells the shoes and rubbers. A. R. DeFloet, editor of the Journal, Doylestown, Ohio, suffered for a number of years from rheumatism in his right shoulder and side. He says, "My right arm at times was entirely useless. I tried Chamberlain's Pain Balm and was surprised to receive relief almost immediately. The Pain Balm has been my constant companion of mine ever since and it never fails." For sale by all druggists.
