

WEDNESDAY, MAY 2.

The coming of Spring is associated in the minds of most people with house-cleaning and the general renovating that makes the immortal words of Payne—"There's no place like home"—a hollow mockery and burlesque. True, there is no place like home, at such times, and we are very glad of it. But after order has come out of chaos and a man ceases to run the risk of death by lock-jaw from coming in contact with the business end of a tack while hunting the colic bottle in the dead of a dark night, "There is no place like home" again means something to humanity and man decides that after all house-cleaning pays.

It is wonderful what a lot of beauty can be gotten out of a few dollars' worth of paint and paper properly applied. And it doesn't take many dollars' worth either, when one can buy paper as low as 6 cents a single bolt. Good paper, too. We have as good a line of paper as can be seen elsewhere in Tionesta, perhaps better, but we'll let you judge for yourself as to that.

A word about paint—Unlike wall paper, low-priced paint isn't cheap. In wall paper you get good value for what you pay—little or much, but there is only one kind of paint that is cheap and that is the best that can be bought. John Lucas & Co. have been making paint for a great many years. It may not be the only good paint made but there is none better and you're not taking chances when you buy it, as you are in purchasing paints made by comparatively new and obscure manufacturers. It is the only brand we keep. Color cards can be had for the asking.

smokey season in October than the fresh rain soon the entire wooded land of the county will be fire swept.

ing unclaimed for in the Tionesta, Pa.,

Mrs. Marcia Dewey. D. S. KNOX, P. M.

arms last Thursday. He was making broke down Saturday and has been taken to Warren for repairs. This will necessitate a temporary shut-down of a greater part of the works, which is unfor-busy.

—Elmer E. Fleming has moved his family from Flemish Hill, Harmony township, to the Dr. Hunter homestead, corner of May and River streets.
We join all in extending the glad hand and welcoming Elmer and his to our pretty little town.
—Amster has arranged to keep a constant supply of fresh bread from the famous Brundage bakery of Oil City. He will make a specialty of this branch and will promptly fill all orders for pies, cakes, cookies buns, etc., for parties, banquets, and special occasions. 2 —There is still no news of Rev. J. H.
Deyo, who left Saegertown April 9. His wife died shortly after he left home. If the stories in circulation regarding the matter are true it would seem as if something more than church discipline would not be out of place.—Tionesta Courier.
—Rev. R. L. Foulke of West Hickory has been assigned to the pulpit at Elling-ton, N. Y., made vacant by the death of Rev. I. D. Darling.—We understand that the Free Methodist camp meeting will be held at Tidoute this year in the ready been dispatched in this vicinity.

the annual summer outing, and haven't gotten very far away from home yet.
Two or three have been killed at Zip Guiton's old den on the hill back of the railroad station.
—The seventeen-year locusts are due again this year according to exchanges.
Every year for the past seventeen at least these pests have had their inning—in the minds of the editorial profession—and still we have the first specimen yet to see.
They are like the Delaware peach crop —We meet at the table three times a day in most families, and our best opportunity for conversation is found there. To sit at a meal in silence, speaking only about the affairs of the moment, asking and answering questions, but having no genuine table talk, is a mistake.—May —Albert Fernandez, who had been employed for a long time at the mantel works here, and who recently returned to Jamestown, N. Y., intending to go into business for himself there, lost his pocketbook containing over $500, but was fortunate in having it returned to him a short time afterward by M. C. Holt, who had found it.

—A total eclipse of the sun, which is scheduled for May 28, will be the first in eleven years, and it will be eighteen years before this country will have another opportunity to observe one. The eclipse will be visible in this section, but not in its totality. According to the Philadelphia Inquirer Almanac for this year, which gives the times when the eclipse will be visible at different points in Pennsylvania, the eclipse here will begin at 7:20 a. m. and end at 9:55 a. m.
—Here is the simple and business-like manner in which a wedding was conducted at a Quaker settlement. The couple having agreed to marry, quietly informed the congregation of their intention. A committee was appointed to see that there were no obstacles. After 30 days the committee reported that there were none. Accordingly next meeting day at the close of the services, the young couple stepped before the congregation, joined right hands, the bridegroom repeated a simple formula promising to be a faithful husband, the bride said a few words in response, and in two minutes' time, with no preacher, no ushers, no best men and no wedding fee, they were married for life.
—The stock of ladies' tailor-made skirts and petticoats shown by F. Wal-—Twenty dollars a month on a farm is very much better than $35 a month in a city store. As a general thing at the end of nine months the farmer has $150 in cash, three pairs of overalls and a straw hat, while the latter has two or three suits of clothes, a pair of golf socks and is $17 in the hole. Yet there are seventy-five applicants for the latter job to one for the former.

—Buds are fast bursting in this latitude and soon the fruit trees will be in blossom, and leaves on the shade trees will have developed sufficiently to afford comfort to the fellow with that "tired feeling." Glorious summer is not far distant and yearnings for the sunny southland will again be dispelled by a realization that, after all, we are living in the loveliest latitude in the land.
—The finishing touches having about all been put on the new Forest County National bank building the owners will begin moving into their elegant new home in a few days. For beauty and convenience we doubt whether the northwestern portion of the State possesses anything in comparison to this model institution. Would that our town contained a hundred such buildings.
—A mathematician furnishes the following interesting figures in answer to the query: "How many miles will the jaws of a gum-chewing girl travel in the course of a year?" He says: "Giving her jaws the play of an inch, or an inch of travel for each chew, thirty chews a minute, sixty minutes an hour, ten hours a day, 365 days a year, her jaws have traveled 6,750,000 inches, or a fraction over 103 miles. This is for a girl with a small mouth. The big mouthed girl can beat that record."

and Mrs. Smiley, who have many friends still resident in Tionesta, have the sympathy of all in this bereavement.

Oil Notes.
Tionesta parties operating on the Jas.
Carson place on Hunter Run, opened a small pump Monday. They calculate they have a four or five barrel well.
A company composed mostly of Tionesta people has located a well on the head waters of Sowers run, not far from the above property, and will be putting up a rig in a few days. These people drilled a well on their lease last fall, but the showing was light. They look for better results this time.
Breen & Co. of Oil City who are operating near the Patrick Donovan place on Stewart's run, just over the Forest County line, have a very nice showing in their well just drilled into the sand.
The Standard has a well drilled in on Sugar run between the Donovan farm and Farmer Dean's lease. This oil is what is known as the amber variety.
Mr. Darrah of Oil City brought in a fair pump on the Sugar Camp run a short distance southeast of the Donovan farm on land that joins the Donovan farm.
The Overlander tract on Jug Handle, Kingsley township, is to have another test before long. Parties have taken an gas engine up to their lease Monday which is to do pumping duty on the COMMENCEMENT.

The graduating exercises of the class of '30, Tionesta High School, at the court house last evening, were attended by a very large audience, filling the court room until there was scarcely standing room left. The stage decorations were very pleasing, the national and class colors—blue and silver—predominating, while massive potted flowers set off to pretty effect the handsome picture presented by the members of the class as they were ranged across the rostrum. A class of ill-fits trained by Mr. Ritchey furnished the vocal music, while the cornet band discoursed some of its sweetest strains. The essays and readings by the graduates were delivered in splendid style, not a halt nor break in any of the renditions. The class had carefully prepared for the occasion and gave the audience no possible chance for adverse criticism. Rev. C. A. Rheil closed the evening's pleasures in an earnest and impressive address to the class, and presented the diplomas as follows: Mr.
Harry Patterson Bankhead, Miss Daisy Frances Craig, Mr. Robert Augustus Fulton, Miss Claudia Dal Graham, Miss Violet Belle Jamieson, Mr. John Gilbert Jamieson, Miss Bessie Mae Morgan, Miss Emma Mae Salsgiver, Miss Laura May Smith. The baccalaureate sermon was delivered in the Presbyterian church last Sabbath evening. The large Sabbath school room was thrown open, but still there was scarcely sufficient space to seat the congregation, which had the pleasure of listening to a most excellent sermon by the popular pastor, Rev. J. V. McAnlinch.

RECENT DEATHS.
MRS. CYNTHIA DALE BALL.
Miss Sarah A. Dale of this place, received the sad intelligence last week of the death of a sister, Mrs. C. M. Ball, the following account of which we take from the Fredonia (N. Y.) Centinel of the 18th inst. Mrs. Ball is well and favorably known to many of our older citizens:
Mrs. Cynthia Dale Ball died at her home, 238 East Main street, Tuesday afternoon, April 16th, 1930. She had been in good health till she received injuries from a fall last January which undoubtedly hastened her death. The deceased was born in Tionesta, Pa., December 31st, 1823, and was married to Mr. Clinton M. Ball, about fifty nine years ago. The last thirty years of her life have been spent in this village where she has resided as a quiet citizen. She aimed rather to make herself the center of her home than to make herself prominent in social affairs.
Eight years ago her son, William Ball, died in Olean and seven years ago her husband died at the old homestead in Fredonia. Mrs. Ball is survived by three sisters, Mrs. Margorie Walters, Beldenville, Wis., Mrs. Emily Gorman, East Hickory, Pa., Miss Sarah A. Dale, Tionesta, Pa., and by one brother, Marvin Dale, of St. Paul, Minn.
Six children also survive her: Mrs.
Edward Howard of Buffalo; Mrs. Fred Harris of Westfield; Mrs. Albert Bartlet of Sisterville, West Virginia; Mrs.
John B. Alden of Jamestown; Jasper C.
Ball of Dunkirk, and Frank P. Ball of this village.
The funeral services were held from the residence on East Main street at two o'clock Tuesday afternoon and the Rev.
Edwards P. Cleveland, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, officiated.
JOHN WALTER WATKINS.

DEAFNESS CANNOT BE CURED by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear.
There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies, and that is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surface.
We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.
