W. J. BRYAN NAMED.

DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION NAMED THE NEBRASKAN.

Adlai E. Stevenson, of Illinois, Was Selected For Second Place on the Ticket. Silver Republicans Have the Same Ticket—Democratic Platform For 1910 to 1.

KANSAS CITY, July 7.—The Democratic national convention nominated William J. Bryan, of Nebraska, for president, and Adlai E. Stevenson, of Illinois, for vice president.

The platform contains the following: We, the representatives of the Democratic party, assembled in this hall on the anniversary of the adoption of the Declaration of Independence, do reaffirm our faith in that immortal proclamation of the inalienable rights of man and our allegiance to the constitution framed by many thereof by the fathers of the republic. We hold with the United States supreme court that the Declaration of Independence is the spirit of our government, which the constitution is the form and letter.

We declare again that all governments instituted among men derive their just powers from the consent of the governed, that no government is just that is not based upon the consent of the governed is a tyranny; and that to impose upon any people a government of force is to violate the natural rights of man.

We demand the prompt and honest fulfillment of our pledge to the Cuban people and the world that the United States has no disposition to extend its sovereignty, jurisdiction or control over the island of Cuba except by its pacific action. The war ended nearly two years ago, profound peace reigns all over the island and still the administration of the United States has refused to permit its people while Republican carrying officials plunder its revenues and exploit the colonial theory to the disgrace of the American people.

We demand the prompt and honest fulfillment of our pledge to the Cuban people and the world that the United States has no disposition to extend its sovereignty, jurisdiction or control over the island of Cuba except by its pacific action. The war ended nearly two years ago, profound peace reigns all over the island and still the administration of the United States has refused to permit its people while Republican carrying officials plunder its revenues and exploit the colonial theory to the disgrace of the American people.

The greedy commercialism which dictated the Philippine policy of the Republican administration attempts to justify it with the plea that it will pay, but even this selfish and unworthy plea falls when brought to the test of facts. The war of criminal aggression against the Filipinos entailing an annual expense of many millions, has already cost more than any possible profit that could accrue from the entire Philippine trade for years to come.

We are not opposed to territorial expansion when it takes in desirable territory which can be erected into states of the Union.

We reaffirm and endorse the principles of the national Democratic platform, adopted at Chicago in 1896, and we reiterate the demand of that platform for an American financial system, under the control of the people.

We denounce the currency bill, enacted at the last session of congress, as a step forward in the Republican policy which aims to credit the sovereign right of the national government to issue all money, whether coin or paper, and to bestow upon national banks the power to issue and circulate the same.

We favor an amendment to the Federal constitution providing that the United States senators be direct vote of the people, and we favor direct legislation wherever practicable.

We are opposed to government by injunction and control, and the New Jersey arbitration as a means of settling disputes between corporations and their employees.

In the interest of American labor and the well-being of the people, we demand the restoration of the prosperity of our country, we recommend that congress create a department of labor, in charge of a secretary, with a seat in the cabinet, to be elected by the people.

We favor the immediate construction, ownership and control, by the New Jersey arbitration as a means of settling disputes between corporations and their employees.

place for a vast military service and conscription.

In danger the volunteer soldier is his country's best defender. The national guard of the United States should ever be cherished in the patriotic hearts of a free people. Such organizations are ever an element of strength and unity.

Private monopolies are indefensible and intolerable. They destroy competition, control the price of all material, and of the finished product, thus robbing both producer and consumer.

They are the most efficient means yet devised for appropriating the fruits of industry to the benefit of the few at the expense of the many, and unless their insatiable greed is checked all wealth will be aggregated in a few hands and the republic destroyed.

The dishonest paltering with the trust bill by the Republican party in state and national platforms is conclusive proof of the truth of the charge that trusts are the legitimate product of the selfish and unscrupulous greed of the Republican party.

We denounce the tariff appropriations of recent Republican congresses, which have kept taxes high and which threaten the perpetuation of the oppressive war levies. We oppose the accumulation of a surplus to be squandered in such increased frauds upon the taxpayers as the shipping subsidy bill which, under the false pretense of prospering American ship-building, would put unneeded millions into the pockets of favorite contractors to the Republican campaign fund.

Believing that our most cherished institutions are in great peril, that the very existence of our constitutional republic is at stake and the decision now to be reached will determine whether our children are to enjoy those blessed privileges of free government which have made the United States great, prosperous and honored, we earnestly ask for the declaration of principles, the hearty support of the liberty-loving American people, regardless of previous party affiliations.

DAVID B. HILL, of New York, was evidently a favorite, as he received great applause at times. He apparently could have been the vice president of the convention.

DUN'S REVIEW OF TRADE.

Figures on the Failures For the First Half of 1906—Some Other Features.

NEW YORK, July 7.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review of trade, issued today, said in part: Failures in the first half of 1906 were 5,392, with liabilities of $103,570,124. There were 30 failures of banks and financial corporations for $5,822,283, leaving 5,362 commercial failures, with liabilities of $74,747,841.

Had it been predicted that the vast iron industry would be thrown from unprecedented activity into great depression, with many works closed and prices reduced fully as much, without failures amounting in all to $60,000, it would have been thought impossible.

The Fall River committee has decided to close their cotton mills for a time, and some of the largest woolen works have been closed or much reduced in force. A large share of the boot and shoe force is inactive, and no change in prices has resulted since those of some weeks ago, which, according to later accounts, were made by fewer of the manufacturers than was at the time believed.

The crop year for grain is over and the outward movement of wheat has not been stopped, although somewhat diminished by the vagaries in prices. While exact figures for the year will not be known for some days to come, they differ very little from 60,000,000 bushels of wheat and corn together, which was almost exactly the quantity exported last year, while in 1905 it was slightly larger.

FOREIGN LEGATIONS SAFE ON JULY 4.

Foreign Consuls at Shanghai United in the Announcement—Counter Revolution in Peking.

LONDON, July 9.—The foreign consuls at Shanghai met on July 7 and officially announced that the legations at Peking were safe on July 4.

LONDON, July 9.—The consuls of Shanghai reported that the Peking legations were safe on July 4, and that the Chinese had ceased their attacks. The only fear felt at that time, according to the reports of the consuls, was regarding the food supply.

BRUSSELS, July 9.—A dispatch from Shanghai received here said that, according to a high Chinese official, the two legations which were still holding out July 2 were the object of incessant attacks. There had been some losses among the troops guarding the legations, but the diplomatists were safe.

The dispatch also said the loyal troops under Prince Ching, who was heading a counter revolution, had attacked the rebels in Peking. The governor of Shan Tung, according to the same authority, was reported to have declined to obey Prince Tuan's orders to seize Nankin.

Further dispatches from Shanghai said the legations were holding out on July 3, that the rebels had been repulsed with a loss of about 2,000 and that the Boxers were discouraged. They also reported that a Chinese journal confirmed the announcement of Prince Ching's counter revolution in Peking.

LONDON, July 9.—A dispatch from Tien Tsin, dated July 3, contained the following: "Since early morning the Chinese have heavily bombarded the settlements. Admiral Seymour has ordered the women and children conveyed to Taku at the earliest possible moment."

BERLIN, July 9.—A dispatch from Tien Tsin said the Russians unsuccessfully bombarded the native town on July 2. The strength of the allied troops was about 10,000. There was no fresh news regarding the situation in Peking.

EVENTS OF A WEEK.

NEWS OF THE WORLD BRIEFLY NARRATED.

The War in the Philippines, Crimes, Trials, Happenings, Foreign, Business and Other Events Briefly Told For the Reader in a Hurry.

NEWS FROM THE PHILIPPINES.

Last week's scouting in Luzon resulted in 11 Americans being killed and 16 wounded. One hundred and sixty Filipinos were killed during the week and eight Americans who had been prisoners in the hands of the rebels were surrendered, and about 100 rifles were turned over to the United States officials.

The enemy ambushed a wagon train between Itang and Nalc. The Third infantry lost nine men while on an expedition to punish the ladrones in the delta of the Rio Grande.

In the Antigua, province of Panay, a running fight of about three hours' duration resulted in the killing of a large number of the enemy. There were no casualties among the Americans.

The insurgents were slowly accepting the amnesty provisions. In some instances the Americans were suspending operations in order to give the rebels an opportunity to take advantage of the decree.

HAPPENED IN WASHINGTON.

The following cablegram has been received at the war department from General MacArthur, at Manila: "Colonel James S. Pettit, Thirty-first United States volunteer infantry, acquitted by general courtmartial."

Colonel Pettit was tried on a charge of having turned over a native prisoner to a Dato in Mindanao, who cruelly executed the man. The courtmartial was founded upon a charge that Colonel Pettit's conduct was unsoldierly and tended to bring the American arms into contempt. It was at one time reported that Webb Hayes, a lieutenant colonel of the same regiment, had thrown up his commission because of dissatisfaction with Colonel Pettit's conduct in this affair. Upon his arrival in this country, however, Mr. Hayes contradicted this statement and came out in a strong defense of Colonel Pettit's course.

General MacArthur sent a casualty list containing the following: Killed—Twenty-fourth infantry, Will Webb; Twenty-sixth infantry, Frank J. Cagney; Thirty-eighth infantry, Clyde M. Davis. Wounded—Seven soldiers.

TRI-STATE EVENTS.

In a collision of cars on the Scranton Railway company's Duryea line, at Old Forge, Pa., the motorman was fatally crushed and a number of passengers injured.

Falling floors in a burning building in Pittsburg killed five firemen and injured nine.

Fifteen hundred men were thrown out of employment by the banking of five furnaces of the Lackawanna Iron and Steel company in Lebanon county, Pa.

A tornado unroofed eight houses in Lanesdale, Pa., and during the storm, the dispatch says, there was a fall of hailstones as large as hens' eggs.

President McKinley took a short drive Sunday at Canton, O. He put Mrs. McKinley and Mrs. Julius Whiting, Sr., an old friend of the family, on the rear seat of the surrey and took his own place beside the coachman for a turn about the city. As the bells were summoning worshippers to church the president's carriage stopped at the First Methodist church.

The president entered the church and the women continued their drive. At the conclusion of the service the president walked to his home. Another drive was taken towards evening, and then the president, Mrs. McKinley, Secretary Cortelyou and Dr. Rixey went to the home of Judge Day for dinner, and to spend the evening. It was a quiet and restful day, marked by comparatively few calls.

Helen, the 2-year-old daughter of Mrs. D. P. Nelson, died, making the ninth victim of Wednesday's explosion. The newly born suffered a relapse and his death will probably occur. William Carr and Frank Plimley are both in a critical condition and are not expected to recover.

A canvass of Riverside developed that the following persons, whose names were not before published, were more or less injured by the explosion: Rosmond Anderson, John Thornton, David Rancho, Paul and Charles Batcher, Walter Behan, Roy Lynch, Lola Jenkins, William Smith, S. M. Hill, William Jones, James Beyland, Edward Kelly, E. T. Howell, N. E. Farness, Grant Jenkins and Wallace Bennett Cole. This swells the list to 63 killed and injured.

During a fierce squall the yacht Idler, owned by John and James Corrigan, was capsized and sank six miles Cleveland and six lives were lost, as follows: Mrs. James Corrigan, wife of the well-known vessel owner. Ida Corrigan. James Corrigan. Mrs. Charles Riley, all daughters of James Corrigan. Etta Corrigan, daughter of Captain John Corrigan.
