RATES OF ADVERTISING:

WEDNESDAY, JULY 25

A subject of interest to all housewives is spices and flavoring extracts. Unless the best are used it is impossible to get satisfactory results in cooking and baking. A first class drug tore is the place to buy these articles, as only spices and extracts of guaranteed strength and purity are kept.

A trial will convince you.

THE DAVIS PHARMACY.

Elm and Bridge Streets.

THE FOREST REPUBLICAN.

WEDNESDAY, JULY 25, 1900.

FIRE INSURANCE - - AND - -REAL ESTATE AGENCY -- OF --

C. M. ARNER & SOM TIONESTA, PA.

All Leading Companies Represented.

Wild Lands, Farms, Houses & Lots for Sale or Rent.

LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

New Advertisements.

James, Ad. Lammers, Ad. Robinson. Ad. Amsler, Local. Hopkins, Locals, Nickel Plate Ry Readers, W. N. Y. & P. Ry, Readers, Tionesta Cash Store. Locals.

-Oil market closed at $1.27. -Ice cream soda at Killmer's. -New styles in shoes at T. C. S. -Oil and gas leases at this office. -How do you like the "New Way ?" -You can get it at Hopkins' store. -Don't miss the clean up sale at Tioqesta cash Store.

could it be. -If you are not quite satisfied with -Peaches, pears, plums, pine-apples, and everything in the fruit line at Amsler's. Vegetables of all kinds and fresh from the vine. Don't loose sight of the at the bottom. -Dr. Rumberger's entertainment at the court house last Wednesday evening was attended by a house-full of people who were all well pleased with the show, which was something entirely new in the line of steroscopic art. The church fund received a nice increase as a result of the Dr's, untiring efforts.

-Half of the spans of the Kinzua viaduct are now in position and work is progressing rapidly. One hundred and twenty-five thousand rivets will be driven into the immense structure. Day and night shifts labor incessantly and to facilitate the work gangs are working from each end and will meet in the center.

-One of Cranberry's farmers is just now wondering if there are any honest men. Some time ago he gave an order to an agent for some lightning rods for which he signed an order which he supposed was an order for $8, and which has turned up in the shape of an $80 note, and it looks as if it must be paid.-Seneca Kicker.

-It may not be generally known, but it is none the less a fact, that most of the "limburger" cheese used in the United State is made in Wisconsin, and not above five per cent, of the Switzer article is of Swiss manufacture. It is to the credit of our home make that it is in no wise inferior to the foreign article. How a rear window by cutting away a portion of the sash and removing the bolt, thereby gaining access to the feed and ware-room, and from thence to store room by cutting a hole through a panel door large enough to reach through and unlock the night latch. Up to this time no clue has been discovered as to the perpetrators. -An exchange prints the following curious item : Tie a string about a yard long to a common door key. Then hold it in the right hand and hold it so the key will clear the floor four or five inches. If you can hold the key steady enough it will swing back and fourth in a straight line. Sunday. Let another person take your left hand change from the pendulem to a circular swing. If a third person will put his hand on the shoulders of the second person, the key will stop. Try it and explain it if you can .- Ex. -The first of the new $5 silver certifitreasury for circulation. From an artistic point of view they are said to be the prettiest ever printed. The face of the bill bears the portrait of the typical American Indian of other days. On one fact, either, that he also keeps the nicest side of this portrait is the blue seal of the stock of groceries to be found in the city. treasury and on the other a big letter V As to prices it is well known that he is and the word, Five. These are printed It the bill. On the front of the obligation it had the misfortune to loose a part of the second finger of his of his felt hand, by getting it in contact with the planer at the tannery at West Hickory, yesterday morning In the absence of Dr. Will Morrow, Mr. Roberts came here to have the wound dressed, and Dr. J. W. Morrow made the necessary surgical repairs, amputating the finger at the second joint,

-Lewis Roberts of Portville, N. Y.,

Mr. R. had arrived but a few days previous, being on a visit to his brother, who is employed in the tannery.

-Paul & Son of Corry, the cement or gravolithic walk people, have done a great deal of work in the short time they have been in Tionesta. Scowden & Clark are the latest to have the boardwalk in front of their buildings replaced with this handsome material, and the con tractors are now at work on walks fronting the Capt, and Joseph Clark propererties and Mr. Randall's at the Winans property. When these are completed it will figure up 5632 square feet of walk these gentlemen have put into the town in the month or so they have been here, and they have only just begun. Next season the board walks of the town will have almost entirely given way to cement -The late Edward B. Percival, whose death at Grand Valley was noted in the REPUBLICAN of last week, was born at Portville, N. Y., April 12, 1846. The early years of his life were seent there and at Newtown Mills this county. In 1867 he moved with his family to Palo, Iona Co., Mich., in which state he lived most of the time until coming to Grand Valley in 1886, accepting the office of Secretary of the L. B. Wood Co., oil producers and manufacturers of lumber, which position he held at the time of his death.

-Miss Lizzie Randall was a visitor Oil City last Saturday. -Miss Mary Joyce visited friends Oil City over the Sabbath. -Mrs. W. W. Grove visited friends in Oil City the first of the week.

here at 5 p. m.

-Miss Maggie Kline has gone to Oil 8go City for a couple of weeks visit. -Rev. C. C. Rumberger is on a visit to

YOU AND YOUR FRIENDS.

-K. C. Heath is over from Faunce town for a few days.

-The general store of J. W. Black & his father in Armstrong county. Son, at Pigeon, this county, was broken -G. H. Killmer was in Buffalo, N. into Monday night and about $100 worth on business Monday and Tuesday. of groceries, tobacco and cigars stolen. -Mrs. Suie M. Sharpe is visiting her The thieves effected an entrance through sister, Mrs. H. S. Bates at Titusville. -Nute Zahniser and Jim Hood have returned to the West Virginia oil fields. -Dr. Ritchey of Oil City visited his brother, T. F. Ritchey, Esq., here yesterday.

-Harry Blose is up from New Kensington visiting his friend Archie Hole-

-John Lawrence is at Foxburg watcha fleet of barges for Lawrence & Smearbaugh.

-Miss Mary Denslinger of Oil City, was a guest of Mrs. C. F. Weaver last

-Mrs. Alice Vought and daughter, in his and the motion of the key will Bertha, visited friends at Baum over Sunday

> -John Ritchey entertained a large number of his young friends last Friday evening.

-Miss Kathleen Joyce, teacher in No. 2 room, is a guest of friends in Oil City cates have been printed and are in the this week.

Endeavor.

-Editor White of the Tidioute News was a business visitor to town yesterday afternoon

-Peter Karns and family left yesterin blue. The figure five is repeated over day for a few days visit with relatives in Townville, Pa.

is found in each corner. The back of the -Chas.and Harry Zahniser and Trume bill contains considerable scroll work, two Copeland of Stewarts Run have gone to large open spaces and the usual lettering. the Ohio oil fields.

> -Dr. M. L. Chadman of Lancaster, who was a guest of his sister, Mrs. Whittekin, has returned home.

> > -C. H. Donnell, a former Tionesta eacher, has been elected principal of the Pleasantville schools.

-Jeweller Charles Uller, was down from Tidioute Sunday, shaking hands with Tionesta friends.

-Miss Kate Guenther of Kellettville left Saturday for a couple of weeks sojourn at Chantauqua.

-S. F. Newkirk and son Frank of Sandy Lake, Pa., were guests of Mrs. A. Carson last Saturday.

-Fred Klinestiver of Nebraska, returned Monday from a trip to Niagara Falls and Chautauous.

-Fred and Dale Partridge are up from Pittsburg on a visit to their grandmother, Mrs. J. G. Dale.

ter, of New York, are guests of her sisterin-law, Mrs. Chas. Amann. -Miss Nettie Holden, instructor in the kindergarten at Endeavor, was calling on Tionesta friends Saturday.

-Miss Lydia McKinney, of Titusville, was a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs.

for the past three weeks returned home Monday. -Harry Bruner of West Hickory leaves on August 6th for near Seattle, Wash., where he has secured a good position and where he hopes to regain his comewhat impaired health. Harry has many friends in this vicinity who will be sorry to have him leave, and who will join us in extending best wishes for his future health and prosperity. -George W. Weller and Miss Anna

Boyle of Emlenton, were married at the Grand Central Hotel, Olean, N. Y., on the 20th inst. George and his bride visited his parents on German Hill a few days on his return, and while here receive the congradulations and best wishes of his many friends. He has disposed of his producing intrests in the vicin ty of Emlenton, and will make his home in the West Virginia oil regions. -George A. Percival of Palo, Mich., who has been in this section for some days past, being called hither on the sad mission of attending the funeral of his -Mrs. Hal Davis of German Hill is brother, Ed. R. Percival, called on the visiting her sister, Mrs. E. W. Whaley at REPUBLICAN a few minutes this mornng. He was accompanied by his uncle, > while here to yisit again the scenes of his early manhood. Mr. Percival reports his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Percival, still living and quite hale at 84 and 83 at the residence of Mr. A. P. Anderson last Friday evening, 20th inst., when his daughter, Miss Sarah was joined in marriage with Mr. Claude Campbell of Tionesta. Rev. F. W. McClellan, of the Free Methodist church officiated, the ceremony taking place at 8 o'clock, only the members the immediate families of the young couple, with a few invited guests, being present. The happy bride and groom are of Tionesta's nicest and most highly respected people, and the best wishes of a large circle of friends go with them on their journey torough life.

The Clarion Jail Breaking.

jail breaking last week by C. O. Thomas, in for robbing a store, and George Gordon awaiting trial on a charge of rape, are furnished by the Jacksonion of the 19th inst:

At 2:10 a. m. Tuesday a great many -Mrs. Ira C. Huey and young daugh-Clarion people were aroused by a tremendous explosion. People in the vicinity of the county jail had no trouble in locating the explosion slthough the cause of it was not explained for some minutes. Sheriff Hugus was awakened by the explosion. He says the noise seemed to in which the explosion occured they found great confusion. Two men had escaped and a third, Murphy, whose

J, Gordon Percival, who took occasion respectively.

-A pleasant home wedding took place

-Zine and grinding double the wear.

your flour try a sack of Banquet at Hopkins.

-The old-fashioned hay-ride is a very popular evening sport among the young those days.

1

×

r

1

-The national encampment of the G. A. R. will be held in Chicago from August 27 to September 1.

-If you want your prescriptions filled by a regularly graduated, registered pharmacist bring them to The Davis Pharmaev.

-The Northwestern association, G. A. R. will hold its 17th annual reunion at Exposition park, Conneaut Lake, on September 13th.

-Charles Killmer has the foundation well along towards completion for a new dwelling house up on Vine street. It will be quite a commodious building.

-Following is a list of letters remaining uncalled for in the Tonesta, Pa., post preside over the destinies of the new office for the week ending July 25, 1900 ; publication. We understand this is one D. S. KNOX, P.M. B. E. Egles.

-The season at Lily Dale is now open with a large attendance of people, the hotels and cottages being well filled There is also a good snpply of Mediums and other devices on hand.

-A fine new-milch cow belonging to J. F. Fredrikson died Friday night. As the sale of milk from this cow was one of the sources of revenue for the family the loss is a very unfortunate one.

-The Ridgway Advocate says that Ed. Marvin and James Tompkins, when peeling bark on Kersey Run on Tuesday of last week, killed a rattlesnake eight feet long, and carrying twenty rattles. That's a big one-rattler, we mean.

-Theodore Roosevelt was once asked how he pronounced his name, when it was introduced in this country, and what it meant. Here is his answer : "My name is pronounced Ro-sa-velt, the s with almost a z sound ; introduced about 1629; Dutch; means field of roses."

-Marienville is expecting to entertain some extra large crowds Aug. 2d and 3d, when a street fair balloon ascention and of the season. There has been a sort of parachute leap will be held there. The base ball rivalry between the two towns, manager says there will be many very fine attractions, and that all who attend will be amused and entertained in a high degree.

-Clinton Blakeslee, whose home is in Meadville, but who has been peeling bark on the Carter tract, West Hickory, cut a his left foot last Saturday that will lay day afternoon, and had a large and espechim off for a short time. It reduired ially fine and appreciative audience. By close the wound.

-Another wonderful flower-piece has run in 20 scores and the fats 11, with the Sunday Press, next Sunday, July 29. prejudiced that the heavy-weights would The size of this picture is 10 by 30 inches. have won in a ten or twelve inning game It is a splendid panell one of the great- as they seemed to be just warming up to est works of Sandon, and represents a the situation while their adversaries becluster of the most beautiful flowers of gun to show unmistakeable signs of the season. As the supply will be limited weakening, having already begun to you will make a mistake if you do not kick on the umpire's decisions. The fea- | joining the county home property on the order next Sunday's Press.

-Zinc and grinding double the wear, no features.

-The Oil City races were a right smart | On Nov. 4, 1891 he married Miss Carrie success, and the management is entitled Newkirk, who with their three year old to much credit for the nice, clean sport son, Norton, survives him. He is also furnished the large crowds in attendance survived by his father and mother aged during the four days' races. A large 84 and 83 respectively, who with their number from this section attended the son George A. reside at Palo, Mich., Thursday events, a special train bring- and by three other brothers, James C., ing the people home in the evening after of Stanton, Mich.; Fred C., of St. Mary's, the races were over. -Arthur Rudolph of Newtown Mills Mich. He was converted early in life was quite severely injured while peeling and joined the M. E. Church, remained bark on Fools creek last Thursday. He a consistant, earnest worker in the same was standing near a falling tree, a large till the hour of death. piece of which split off and flew back striking him in the face, and rendering him unconscious for some time, but his injuries are not serious and he will be at work again soon.

-Warren is to have another daily newspaper. It will be called the Evening Times and S. E. Walker, lately identified with the Warren Democrat, will of the early outgrowths of the Sibley-Emery hullabaloo that is just begining in the 27th congresional district. -Since the loose stones have been raked from the center of the Hunter run road it is a very pretty driveway. Our township commissioners should be more prompt in removing loose stones from the roads after the large scrapers have October. Till that time, the distress and been used as they are very dangerous to the safety of horses as is evidenced by a The death rate from cholera added to couple of badly crippled horses in town now.

-The Free Methodists of the Oil City risen above six millions-6,148,000. There District will hold a camp-meeting in the are many thousands of orphans absolute- and Washington, Pa., and Wheeling W. grove near Tidioute, commencing Au- ly destitute. The British government gust 1, and closing on the 9th. Bishop Edward P. Hart and wile, of Almeda, California, and others will be present. All orders for tents should be sent to Mendal B. Miller, D. E., Oil City. In- ain and her colonies, and the splendid formation may be had of Rev. R. A. gifts of America and other countries." Robertson, Tidioute, Pa.

-The fat men of Tionesta against the fat men of Marienville, on the latters' grounds to-morrow, is to be the ball game which this event is expected to allay. provided Tionesta wins. As the combined weight of the two nines will be not less than two tens-gross, it will readily appear that it's to be no skin game, but a tussle for your life.

long gash diagonally across the instep of of real base ball at the grounds last Fri- There will be noted soloisis, the great seven stitches of the surgeon's needle to mutual consent only five innings were direction of Dr. Palmer, the great chorisplayed at the end of which the leans had | ter of New York.

been secured by the publishers of the latter coming up rapidly on their skinny home at an early hour. Do not miss great Philadelphia Sunday Press, and rivals. Both sides were satisfied to quit, this opportunity for a delightful day's will be given free with every copy of the but it was the general opinion of the un-) outing.

W. Va. aud Wm. J., of Lake Odessa, -Zinc and grinding double the wear.

Tionesta's Gift to Stricken India.

Mr. L. T. Chamberlain, of New York, chairman of the executive committee of the Committee of One Hundred on India Famine Relief, writes Mr. A. B. Kelly of this place, acknowledging receipt of $95.30 as the gift of the people of this vicinity, and among other things says:

"It gives me much pleasure to acknowledge your courteous favor of July 12th. Please accept for yourself and convey to the citizens of Tionesta, our hearty thanks for the generous gift in aid of stricken India.

"Rains have begun in India, but they are insufficient and are a full fortnight late. No harvest can be gathered before mortality from hunger must increase. famine, is apalling. The number of persons receiving official daily relief has has already expended on this famine more than fifty millions of dollars, to which are added many millions of private charity contributed by Great Brit-

Chautauqua Lake Annual Excursion August 3rd.

The W. N. Y. & P. Ry. will run their annual excursion to Chautauqua Lake, Friday, August 3rd. Train will leave Tionesta at 7:45 a. m. Fare for round trip $1.25, which includes 40 miles of boat ride on the Red Stack Line steamers on Chautauqua Lake. The usual strong attractions will be offered at Celeron and at the Chautauqua Assembly there will be a grand corcert, in which over seven

-The fats and leans gave an exhibition | hundred trained voices will take part, pipe organ played by Dr. Flagler and the full Rogers orchestra, all under the Seven hours on Chautauqua Lake and

Oil Notes. Morgan & Co. on the Cole farm, near Nebraska are shut down for the present, but expect to drill deeper. A well on the Truman Hill place ad-

tures of the game-well, it was one of the river bank tapped the sand Monday. It good old-fashioned kind, and there were will be shot to-day.

The Sowers run well is a duster.

W. Boyard over last Sabbath -Misses May and Colyn Clark were in Oil City over Monday night, the latter remaining for a few days' visit.

-Milton Corah came down from Warren on his wheel last Friday for a short visit with his sister, Mrs. F. S. Hunter. -Mr. and Mrs. S.W.Coleman returned Monday to their home in McDonald, Pa., jail from the front it was found that in after a two weeks visit with the former's parents here. -Mrs. S. H. Hoskins and daughter Minnie, of Mercer, were guests of the former's brother, H. H. Shoemaker, during the past week.

-Misses Mabel Siggins and Sarah Atchison of Pleasantville are guests of Miss May Sanner at the home of Capt. and Mrs. C. W. Clark.

-E. Leroy Grubbs of Guitouville and home is at Byromtown was evidently Minnie Bradybaugh of Kingsley townready to fly. He had his shoes and coat ship were granted a license to wed by on when the Sheriff entered the jail but Clerk Robertson on Monday of this week. soon slipped into his cell and removed

-Mrs. M. B. Cook and young son, of them. Why he did not escape with the Buffalo, N. Y., are expected to arrive others is a mystery. He was evidently here to-day, and will be guests a day or in the plot to blow up the jail and was two of the family of her brother, James ready to go with the others but for some reason he remained. Thomas and Gor-D. Davis. don ran down Fifth avenue toward the

-A. R. Mechling of Clarington passed through town yesterday on his way to river. They were seen by several people but made good their escape to the woods. Cambridge Springs, where he will visit The blowing up of the jail is a most for a few days, and then visit his old dastardly and daring trick. The winhome in Butler county. dows of the jail are about 5 inches high

-Miss Susie Hulings, teacher in No. 3 and 31 feet long a swinging glass shuts room this place, and Miss Willabel Elder out the cold in winter and is easly openof West Hickory, left last Thursday for a ed for ventilation in summer. The winmonth's visit with relatives in Pittsburg dows are cased with heavy metal casings nearly two inches thick and over 18

Va. inches wide. Two sticks of dynamite -Mrs. J. C. Martin, of Lancaster, and were placed in the northeast window and Miss Grace Chadman of Duke Center, exploded. The concussion was trewho have been guests of their sister, Mrs. mendous. A window over at Stein's F. F. Whittekin, for the past three weeks restaurant was broken and the noise went to Titusville Monday where they was heard at Stranttanville. In the cell will visit relatives. the effect was disastrous the iron frame

-Miss Josie Zahniser, who has been of the window was torn to pieces and spending a month's vacation with her the stone work badly shattered. The father, H. M. Zahniser, and other relahole left easily permitted the escape of a tives in this vicinity, returned to her lasmall or medium sized man. Thomas' bors as nurse in West Penn hospital, coat was left at the window, he probably Pittsburg, Monday. was obliged to drop it in getting out. It is evident the prisoners had outside help, -C. H. Lawrence returned Saturday Their good clothes and other belongings evening from a six weeks vacation spent were all taken away by some one. No with his uncle, Alexander Gordon, at doubt this same person was waiting on Elkhart, Ind. His sisters, Misses Laura some road across the river to give them a and Emma, who went with him, will relift or furnish them with provision to main there for some time yet.

keep in hiding. -F. X. Kreitler of Nebraska left yes-Sheriff Hugus is severely criticised for terday for New York where he will join allowing the prisoners to run in the cor relatives in an extended European tourridors at night instead of locking them Geo, F. Watson of Golinza, departed at up in their cells. Had the prisoners been the same time for a couple of months' locked in their cells no dynamite would visit to Paris and the exposition. have been used. It would have meant

-Mr. and Mrs. T. T. Reddington, of instant death to remain in the cell when Landsdale, Pa., are guests of Mr. and such an explosion as wrecked the win-Mrs. C. A. Hill, Mrs. Reddington was dow occurred.

formerly Miss Aggie Sibbald, and has -Zinc and grinding double the wear. many friends still living in this section The Nickel Plate Road who are pleased to meet her again.

-Gen. W. J. Hulings and family, who were mentioned last week as making a pedestrian tour from Oil City to Dew Drop, Warren county, from which place For time and rates at intermediate stabrop, Warren county, from which place they were floating down the river in a house-boat, passed through Tionesta tast Saturday. A number of lady friends of Pa. H. C. Allen, C. P. & T. A. 138-11 and did not investigate the jail for s Streets. ral minutes, Harry Rimer Esq. who lives across Liberty street from the jail saw two men jump from the jail window amid the smoke which poured out of the building. Hastily dressing he reached the jail and with Ed M. Bell joined the Sheriff befere he had got the explosion located. When they tried to enter the order to give themselves more time Thomas and Gordon had fastened the inner wicket. They took the chain from a

Would be pleased to water closet and with a piece of wire and a broomstick made the door good and have you attend our fast. The Sheriff could not get in until JULY REMNANT helped by the prisioners inside. When they finally got in and reached the cell

AND CLEARANCE SALE.

if'in town this week. Sale lasts till Saturday Night, July 28th.

WILLIAM B. JAMES,

HALF - PRICE.

We've too many Men's Straw Hats and want to let go, therefore we will sell you any

MAN'S STRAW HAT

in Our stock at ONE-HALF the PLAINLY MARKED PRICE.

Arlington Hotel directly opposite as UAMES. Oil City, Penn'a.