PENROSE MEETS THE PRESIDENT

An Important Federal Appointment Quickly Follows.

REGULAR ORGANIZATION REGOGNIZED

Discussion of the Ontlook For the Political Campaign Gives Assurances of Republican Success to November.

(Special Correspondence.) Philadelphia, July 24.-United States Senator Boies Penrose has returned from a visit to Washington, where he went to look after some official business with the departments. He met President McKinley when he went to the national capital to confer with his cabinet officers relative to the crisis over affairs in China. Senator Penrose, who had a long talk with the president, says he is entirely satisfied with the outlook as far as the political situation

While in Washington Senator Penrose had a conference with United States Senator Nathan Scott, of West Virginia, who was on his way to New York to take charge of the Republican committee headquarters, which will be opened this week. Senator Scott had just returned from a three weeks' trip through the west and porthwest, and predicts that those states will be carried for McKinley and Reosevelt beyond a doubt.

He says this certainty of the fluxl outcome, however, does not mean that the Republican campaign managers will take anything for granted. The opening guns of the campaign will be fired some time between the 15th and 20th of August, and from that time until election day the canvass will be Senator Scott declared that he believes that the Republicans will carry Colorado this fall. He visited Pueblo during his stay in that state, and while there a McKinley and Roosevelt club was formed. The remarkable thing about this was that 62 members of this club voted for Bryan in 1896. This is only one example of the way people are dropping the free silver idea.

the Republicans wish to evade," said Senator Scott to his friend from Pennsylvania. "If the Democrats want to make imperialism the paramount issue we will meet them on their own ground. We will talk also about 16 to 1 and the prosperity that has resulted from the wise Republican legislation. We will stand upon the record of the administration of William McKinley, in which there is nothing to apologize for.

"In Indiana, Illinois and Wisconsin, where the Democrats have been making claims of dissatisfaction among the Cormans because of the so-called imperialistic policy of the Republican party, I look for increased gains for McKinley and Roosevelt. All these the Republican candidates. The dis-Republican column. The farmers in that state look upon McKinley as the agent of prosperity and are going to give the ticket their unanimous support. I also think we have a good chance of carrying Nebraska and electsured that West Virginia will give a plurality for the Republican ticket,"

New York headquarters.

STALWARTS HONORED. One of the results of Senator Penrose's conference with President Mc-Kinley was the appointment of State Senator Waiter T. Merrick, of Tioga county, as naval officer for the port of Philadelphia. Senator Merrick voted for Penrose for United States senator and was one of the stalwart friends of Col. Quay in the deadlock over the United States senatorial election in the Pennsylvania legislature last winter. The appointment by President Mc-Kinley of Senutor Merrick is regarded as a crushing rebuke to the insurgent Republicans, following so closely, as itdoes, upon the appointment of another supporter of Quay and Penrose, James Holland, of Montgomery county, who was a few days ago sworn in as United States attorney for the eastern district of bennsylvania upon the recommendation of Col. Quay and Senator

The selection of Senator Merrick will be received with general approval among active Republicans residing in counties east of the Alleghenies, where he is well known to the men identified with the Republican organization. He has many admirers among the party men throughout the commonwealth. Senator Merrick was born in Charles ton township, Tiega county, Pa. June 12, 1859. He was educated at the Mansheld State Normal school and the Elmira Free academy. He studied law with the Hon. Charles H. Seymore, of Tioga, and at Wellsbore was admitted to practice at the bar in 1886. He followed his profession at Blossburg, the mining center of Tioga county, where he still resides. Senator Merrick has had considerable experience in the Pennsylvania lagislature, both as a member of the house and of the senate. He was elected to the house in 1893, and in 1895 and 1896 he was promoted to the senate from the district which embraces Tioga, Potter and McKean

In the recent senatorial contest he was one of the lenders of the regular Republicans and made a strong speech in the Republican caucus in favor of the selection of Col. M. S. Quay as the Republican nomines for United States senator. He was one of the most aggressive stalwarts in fighting the Flinn-Martin combine, both in the joint senatorial convention at its daily sessions and on the floor of the state senate. STATE SHARES IN PROSPERITY.

Philadelphia Republicans were de-lighted to read a local announcement this week that a vessel had been chartered to sail from this port with a cargo of four thousand tons of Pennsylvania coal for England.

Ten years ago the idea that British railways and factories would become dependent in even a partial degree upon coal supplies from this side of the Atlantic would have have been received with derisive incredulity in the United Kingdom. But in this case, as in many others, the unexpected has happened, and the forthcoming ship-ment of coal from Philadelphia to England promises to mark the beginning of a new era in the development and transportation of the world's coal sup-

Not only in Great Britain, but in some continental countries, many coal veins are either becoming exhausted or their working has grown unprofitable, owing to the great depth to which they have been followed. Modern industry has an inexhaustible appetite for the black fuel from the bowels of the earth, and the European magazines of coal are showing distinct signs of impoverish-

The United States already supplies the countries of Europe with a large proportion of their bread and meat. It does not seem unlikely that the next few years will see this country also acting as a producer of coal in large quantitles for foreign consumption. Fortunately our own resources in this direction are practically limitless, and Pennsylvania has the finest facilities of all the states for taking a prominent part in this movement.

All these conditions may fairly be attributed to the wise and statesmanlike policy that has been pursued by the leaders of the Republican party in national affairs. McKinley prosperity seems to pervade every section of the United States, and fresh evidence comes almost daily of the determination of the American people to continue the Republican party in power. The coming election will show how appreciative the people are of the efforts of the Republican party to advance the commercial interests of the nation.

SHORE MANNERS BAD.

Captain Singlewhip Wishes He Could Teach Landlubbers Some Things.

"I knew a man," said Captain Singlewhip as he warped to the lee of the ship's broker, who was negotiating for the grog. 'I know a man in Calcutta who killed a lusear because he insisted upon using mustard with his rice. all the issues, for there are none that knocked off going to sen and have cruised alongshore among some of these landlub bers I feel like committing justifiable homicide myself. The drycobs seem to rub me the wrong way. The other night I set off on a voyage up Brondway. It was as black as Welch in the lower hold, except for where the electric beacons at the street corners winked their friendly rays. I don't know why I never noticed it before, but aloft on every other build ing the house flags were flying, and there were ensigns up there in plenty too.
"If there is anything that makes me hot in the collar it is to see a flag, especially a national one, flying at night. I nover saw one at sea, save on one occa That was when a pack of Italian loons abandoned their craft and didn't know enough effquette to haul their col-ors down. There is something uncanny to sailor folk in the sight of a flag flying states are sure to cast their votes for by night. I don't know why, but it just freezes my blood. I felt so mad the parsatisfaction among the Germans exists ticular night of which I speak that if I only in the minds of the Bryanites. had had a hatchet or a crowbar I would can be safely counted in the have knocked in a few of the lower gangaloft to teach the landlubbers a few lessons in good manners. "Another thing that makes me find Senator Scott will be chairman of fault with the landhubbers is that they do the eastern speakers' bureau at the not know how to walk along the side walks. It is with the greatest delight that they cross your laws, or give you a poke in the ribs with their elbows, o walk all over your feet. I say that if shore people were to sit down for a few hours and study the rules of the road as provided for the sen there would be less confusion on Broadway and the big streets during the busy hours. Red to red or left side to left side when passing in opposite directions would be a golden rule on the land, as it is on the deep And the fellow who does the most colliding on the street is the chap who says 'Let us go up stairs' when he gets aboard ship. He is the same chap, too, who blocks the doors of the big business entrances when he wants to have a friendly chat with a green landiubber like himself. Blocking a gangway abourd ship is an unpurdenable offense. I repeat that I don't stand indersement to the man in Calcutta who killed that laseur. He was n crank. GUFFEY IS TAKEN TO BRYAN'S BREAST

Pennsylvania's Leader to Help Run the National Campaign.

FOR FUSION AT HOME

But He Will Find That Sound Money Democrats of Pennsylvania Are Going to Vote the Whole Republi-

Harrisburg, July 24.-The announcement came a few days ago that Col. William Jennings Bryan had insisted upon the appointment of Col. James M. Guffey, of Pennsylvania, as a member of the executive committee of the Democratic national committee. While this intelligence to the outside world would not be calculated to cause more than passing comment to Pennsylvania Democrats, and Republicans as well, this selection is particularly significant. Col. Guffey, as one of the chief advisers and manipulators in the Democratic national campaign, will be looked upon with interest and curiosity as the prime mover in Pennsylvania in the great fusion movement for the capture of the legislature of the Keystone state from the Republican organization and the possible election of Col. Guffey himself as a fusion candidate for United States senator.

While Col. Guffey, as a member of Bryan's Democratic national committee's executive committee, will be appealing throughout the national campaign to Democrats to stand by the Bryan ticket, in the hope of capturing the presidency, he will in Pennsylvania be the leading figure among those Democrats and insurgent politicians who will, under the guise of reform, seek to lead Republicans from their party organization to help elect fusion members of the legislature. The insurgents under the lead of Martin, of Philadelphia, and Flinn, of Pittsburg. will work hand in hand with Guffey in the legislative fight. Guffey will wisely take advantage of the opportunity to elect Democrats, where, with the Republican party united, there would not be any chance for a Democrat to go to Harrisburg. Besides aiding in making strife in the Republican party, Guffey sees a chance to elect Democrats to congress, where otherwise there would be not the slightest show for the defeat of the regular Republican nominees While Col. Guffey will be entreating Republicans in Pennsylvania to desert their party candidates and support the fusion tickets for the legislature, he will find that he will be without the votes of the sound money Democrats, who are openly declaring their purpose to vote for President McKinley and the whole Republican ticket this fall. Pennsylvania is furnishing her full share of this former Democratic vote which will continue to be cast with the Republican party as long as the Democracy stands for the 16 to 1 idea on the financial issue. AGAINST 16 TO 1.

Every county in the Keystone state has its due proportion of former Dem ocrats who will not vote the Bryan ticket this year and who will not be led by Guffey or anybody else in touch with the Bryan campaign into voting the fusion tickets for the legislature, They are for straightout Republicanism and all that implies, and they will be among the most ardeat opponents of fusion. They want to see a full delegation sent to congress to thwart the Democratic plans on the silver issue, and they know that the only way to accomplish this is to make the Republican organization in this state as strong

Pennsylvania is relied upon by the advocates of the gold standard to send almost a solid delegation to congress. A Democratic house, even though Me-Kinley would be elected, would embarrass the Republican administration in many respects. It is, therefore, important that a solid front should be presented to the common enemy. With the Republican party, aided by the sound money and rational element of the old Democracy, standing side by side in the coming campaign there will be no occasion to regret the result of the coming election in the Keystone state. Some little interest is taken in the coming meeting in Indianapolis, where it is proposed to discuss the advisability of nominating a third presidential ticket; that is, a ticket which sound money Democrats might support.

But the feeling is so intense against the action of the Bryan Democracy at Kansas City in interjecting the 16 to 1 plank in the platform that the men who were the leaders of the third party movement four years ago in the Democratic party are now advocating the support of the Republican ticket from top to bottom in order to wipe Bryanism from the face of the earth.

A SOUND MONEY DEMOCRAT. In discussing the present political situation an anti-Bryan-Guffey Democrat said: "No selfish pursuit of per-sonal comfort called the gold Democrats to Indianapolis in September, 1896, and there moved them to nominate Palmer and Buckner. That third ticket was nominated at a sacrifice. It cost time and labor and money. They were not cranks and visionaries, the men of that convention. They were practical men, and they had sound political and moral reasons for their action. Among the chiefs of the Republicans and the gold Democrats the opinion prevailed that the nomination of a third ticket was advisable and necessary as a means to make sure the defeat of W. J. Bryan. It was thought that in certain doubtful states a sound money Democratic ticket would get votes that would otherwise go to Bryan and might elect him. In the panic of fear that seized upon the managers in the month of August this consideration was held to be important. But that wave of apprehension had an unforeseen effect. It swept so many gold Democrats straight into the Republi-can camp that the election of McKinley and Hobart was assured without the assistance of the third ticket. But that fortunate condition became evident much later.

"It was only deemed a necessity that somewhere in the United States a flag be raised in the sight of all the people bearing the word gold. Bryan's plat-form was an unspeakable abomination. The Indianapolis Democrats ran the gold standard flag to the masthead and nailed it there. They have never regretted it. The people, misled by years of preaching about the double standard, had to be set right. They are now familiar with the facts and they recognize that there is but one thing to do this year, and that is to support the McKinley ticket in the presidential contest and to elect Republicans in every district, so as to emphasize the feeling of disgust with the present management of the Demo cratic party.

"Guffey working Bryanism in the national campaign and fusion in the state contest is not deceiving anybody. The sound money Democrats propose to make the net result for the Demo cratic party in Pennsylvania this fall will be rebuked and the 16 to 1 radicals will be driven from control of the that we have the most popular BUS-Democratic organization in the Keystone state.

BRYANISM IS NOT DEMOCRACY. Congressman James Rankin Young Philadelphia, the well knows Washington correspondent, appreciates the fact that the Republican party is going to get the benefit of the support of many former Democrats, but in this campaign sound money Me-

"The Republican party is opposed in the pending campaign, not by the old time Democratic party, as it used to be in former campaigns," he says "but by all the rag-tag and bobtail of discontented and dissatisfied humanity. These masquerade under the various names of Silverites, Populists at Socialists

The old Democratic party has passe from existence for the time being and the worst element has become affiliated with the various parties enumerated above. They are all summed up under the one name of Bryan or Bryanism. When the latter is mentioned every voter understands that it represent the forces of discontent in all parts of the Union.

"The sound money Democrats of four years ago are now for McKinley.

"In 1986 these forces made their ex istence felt in a most unmistakable manner. But the attempt of the un holy combination to lower the standard of honesty in governmental affairs was frustrated. They have now returned to the fight with vigor worthy of a better cause. Whether or not the nation should adopt 50 cent dollars in payment of its obligations or retain its reputation for paying 100 cents for every dollar due, was the burning is sue four years ago, and the same horts which assembled under the banner of 16 to 1 have once again responded to the call for a depreciated currency. "This time large numbers of the Bryan aggregation seek to becloud the issue and to make another topic the paramount subject for discussion, but there is no voter in the land, however ignorant, nor however willing he may be to be blinded, who can recognize in Bryan or Bryanism anything but "In the discussion of all questions the press and the public may well drop the terms Populists. Silverites and Democrats and combine them all under the one comprehensive name of Bryan. enceforth during the camp is just opening the forces of Republicanism are opposed to and are fighting, not against Democracy, but against Bryanism, the synonym of all that stands for a debased currency and retrogression in the affairs of the nation. It is not difficult to decide which the voters will choose.
