U. S. Consul Fowler Sent News of Dispatches Received From the Japanese and German Legations. The Body of Baron Von Ketteler Reported Safe.

WASHINGTON, July 31 .- The effect of he news from China was to freshen the hope that the government can soon get in direct communication with Minister Conger. The mass of testimony us to his being alive as late as the 22nd inst., as to warrant the department in resuming the considerations of projects for the future. With all of its anxiety to get Mr. Conger and the Americans in Pekin safely away, the department is proceeding with proper caution and is by no weans disposed to accept any proposition that would unduly jeopardize their lives.

Such might! be the result of an offhand acceptance of the proposition to have the Chinese government to deliver the foreign ministers at Tien Tsin, for it is realized that the escort might be overpowered by superior forces of Boxers on the way to the sea. The state department has come to the conclusion that Mr. Conger himself is the best person to judge of the conditions under which his deliverance shall be effected, and, therefore, it is again looking to the Chinese government to place it in communication with Mr. Conger in order that it may be advised by him. That requirement was the first of the conditions laid down by President McKinley, in his answer to the appeal of the Chinese emperor, so that the situation caunot be said to have been materially changed by the developments.

The state department was inclined to regard Consul Fowler's communication as the most valuable confirmatory evidence yet received touching the safety of the Pekin diplomats. No answer had been received to the second Conger message, but in view of Consul Fowler's news the officials were inclined to look forward to an early reply.

The following bulletin was posted at the department of state Monday:

"The secretary of state received at midnight a dispatch from Mr. Fowler, American consul at Che Foo, dated at noon on the 29th. Mr. Fowler says:

"'A letter from the German legation. dated the 21st inst., has been received at Tien Tsin. The German loss is ten dead and 12 wounded. The Chinese ceased their attack on the 12th. Baron Ketteler's body is said to have been saved. The Austrian, Italian, Dutch and Spanish legations were destroyed and the French partially.

" A letter from the Japanese legation, dated the 22d, arrived at Tien Tsin on the 25th. It says: Ten battalions of Chinese shelled the legations incessantly from the 20th of June and stopped on the 17th of July, but may renew. The enemy are decrea-The German, Russian, American, British, half the Japanese and the French legations still defend. Japanese sav they have food for stx days, but little ammunition. LONDON, July 30 .- The Shanghai correspondent of The Daily Express, telegraphing July 29, said:

"A new imperial edict promulgated this evening urgently orders all viceroys and provincial governors to endeavor to negotiate peace with the powers whose ministers are held as hostages pending the result of the overtures for the abandonment of hostilities against China.

"The viceroys are also commanded to guard their territories vigilantly against attack and to prevent, by all means in their power, the advance of foreign troops, especially along the Yang Tse Kinng. The decree says that the officials will answer with their lives for any failure to execute these orders.

"Commands are also given that not a single foreigner shall be allowed to escape from the interior, where there are still fully 2,000 Europeans, connected with missionary work in isolated situations. "When the governor of Shantung communicated to the consuls the imperial decree of July 24 he omitted in portant passages addressed to Li Hung

"It is admittedly inadvisable to kill all the ministers, but it is equally unwise to send them to Tien Tsin. It will be much wiser to keep the survivors at Pekin as hostages.'

"'You are commanded to hasten to Pekin. You are incurring imperial displeasure by delay. You have been appointed vicercy of Chi Li because, with your military experience, you will successfully lead the imperial armies against the foreigners in Chi Li, which You Lu, the present viceroy, is unable to do owing to his ignoronce of military

"Sheng now admits that he has telegrams since July announcing that every foreigner in Pao Ting Fn was murdered, including 40 British, French and American missionaries and announcing also that two French jesuits and 1,000 converts have been massacred at Kwang Ping Fu, on the borders of Shan Tung and Chi Li. A majority of the consuls favor strong measures against Sheng's duplicity.

'Local officials assert that the Italian priests murdered in Hu Nan were wrapped in cotton, which had been soaked in kerosene, and were slowly roasted to death. It is believed that all foreigners in Chi Li have by this time been massacred, and the wave of masacre is spreading toward Ning Po and Hong Chow, from which point 30 English and American missioners are endeavoring to escape in boats down the river to Kiang Su. Him-Sketch of His Career.

Humbert I., Renier Charles Emmanu Jean Marie Ferdinand Eugene, King of Italy, born March 14, 1844. He attended his father, Victor Emmanuel, during the war of Italian independence in 1859. In 1866, when Italy fought with Austria, the prince took the field as commander of a division in General Cialdini's army, and was present at the disastrous battle of Custozza, June 23, 1866.

After Rome was occupied in 1870 by the Italian troops, he took up his residence there, and upon the death of his father, January 2, 1878, succeeded to the throne of Italy. In November of the same year an attempt was made to assassinate him, but failed. When the would-be assassin was condemned to death, Humbert com-muted his sentence to imprisonment at hard labor. During the cholera epidemic at Naples he exposed himself frequently in his en-deavors to alleviate the sufferings of the sick and dying By these and other acfections of the Italian people. In 1868 he married his cousin, Princess Marguerite of Savoy, and a son was born of this mar-

April 22, 1897, another attempt was made to kill him while he was driving with his aides and excerted by two carbineers to the race track at Capanelle. A workman from Artegna named Nietro Acclarito rushed at the royal equipage and stabbed victously at King Humbert. The king leaped aside and the blade of the dagger or stilletto sank to its hilt in the cush-ions of the carriage. The crowd then fell upon the would-be assassin. Acciarito was sentenced to the galleys. At his trial he acted like a maniac, shouting anarchistic denunciations of suclety and declaring that he would like to kill all who lived in comfort.

King Humbert's reign has been marked more for his ability to keep his people knit together than for any extraordinary activity he has shown in the affairs of the nations of Europe. Most of the his-torians of modern affairs contend that Italy's stability since 1861, when Victor Emmanuel was first saluted king, has been due to the sagacity of her ministers rather due to the sagacity of her ministers rather than to the greatness of either Humbert or his father. But it is memorable that even when Humbert ascended the throne the army and navy of his country were as nothing, his people were impoverished roads were unbuilt and the nation had poor standing among the nations of the

The most minister from place and power. The most notable achievements of King Humbert's reign had been the consummation of the triple alliance between Germany, Austro-Hungary and Italy, and the securing of Turkish adhesion to the compact as a precautionary measure against the possible encroachments of Russia and other powers. Beyond this achievement he seemed to have been content to care mostly for the internal and material advancement of his people as though they were his neighbors, companions and friends.

Dun's Review Notes Them Getting Togather In More Than One Direction

New York, July 28 .- R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review of trade, issued today, said in part:

Speculative activity in raw materials is not present to discourage new business. Pro-ducers and consumers are getting together in more than one direction, although midsummer inactivity is emphasized by disturbed for eign relations and hesitation always attend ing a national political campaign. False starts are to be feared, but the dangerous optimism of last autumn is lacking, and new business is at lower prices.

As to stop decline in wool brought many manufacturers in the market asking terms. Good sales of California and territory wools were made to mills and the trade expects larger purchases to follow the opening of spring goods by the American Woolen company next week. Holders who have had difficulty in storing were the chief sellers. Saies of wool at the three chief markets were only 4,307,500 pounds, against 10,775,000 last year. In iron, the depression in which has resulted in hesitation and fear in other industries, the tone is better, and in the Pittsburg district the mills have booked a line of fair orders in bars and plates. Structural and bridge materials are better taken. The refusal of the Amalga-mated association to allow a change in the wage scale adopted in May has led to strikes at numerous bar mills and the Republic company is to dismantle some plants to secure concen tration, but the non-union capacity will pre-vent serious scarcity. Further business in bare servines scarcity. Further outsiness in oars shows that agricultural implement makers are more scrive. Grey forge has fallen to $15 at Pittsburg, and Bessemer steel billets sold at $15. With the uncertainty of the conference of steel companies at Chicago removed, buyers may proceed with less anxiety. It was not surprising that wheat declined still further this week, for the price had been held far above the quotation ruling at this date in 1899, and crop conditions are so gener-ally satisfactory as to assure an abundance for all home requirements and the usual amount for export. High prices have curtailed foreign buying to some extent, and in four weeks At-lantic exports of wheat, including flour, have been only 7,205,430 bushels, against 8,450,431 last year.

The shipments of corn make a more satis

Last evening the president and Mrs. McKinley were the dinner guests of Judge and Mrs. Day, together with Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Lynch and Mrs. M. C. Barber. Senator Fairbanks, of Indiana, is ex-

NEWS FROM THE PHILIPPINES. During last week's scouting ten Americans were killed and 14 wounded. One hundred and eighty Filipinos were killed and 60 taken prisoners. Forty insurgent rifles were captured. The fiesta, in Manila, organized by ommemorate the amnesty, resulted in a fiasco. The people were passive, unenthusiastic and not even interested. Failing to preceive any tangible, effective results of amnesty they say they can see no reasons for celebrating.

Judge Taft and his colleagues of the commission felt constrained to decline to attend the banquet, as they had been informed that the speeches would favor independence, under American protection and they could not passively lend their acquiescence by being present. Senor Paterno, foreseeing the suspension of the banquet without the Americans, frantically appealed to them to attend, promising that there should be no speeches The provost's precautions were extreme. The guards were doubled both days and the authorities forbade the display of Filipino flage and of pictures of

HAPPENED IN WASHINGTON. A dispatch from the German legation at Pekin, dated July 21, reported all well. United States Consul Fowler, at Che Foo, sent similar news of letter from German legation, and German loss ten dead and 12 wounded. Body of Baron von Ketteler saved.

In the city of Washington, news was received of the death of Lewis "Harvie Finney, private secretary to Secretary Long, at Warm Springs. Va. He had been away from the office a month and more as the result of an attack of fever. A message was received at the navy ior officer commanding the squadron at Taku, containing the following: "CHE FOO, July 24 .- A written mes sage, signed Conger, dated July 4, received at Tien Tsin the 21st, says: Have been besieged two weeks in British legation. The Dtate department was expecting important new from Pekin. It was believed that the basis for the expectation is the knowledge on the part of the officials that certain machinery heretofore set in motion may result in the opening up of communication through some secret but rehable channels. It was known that a second effort has been made by our own government to get another message from Mr. Conger, and that nearly all of the powers also have resorted to private agencies in their own interest with a like object.

The fact developed that one of the last acts of Colonel Liscum before his death at Tien Tsin was to undertake the dispatch of a spy to Pekin. General Dorward the British commanding officer at Tien Tsin, also sent out two messengers, and it was believed that the Japanese did the same. As far as developed here Sunday, not one of these messengers had returned to Tien Tsin nor had there been a single word heard from any of them. This fact, however, had not caused the abandonment of hope, and this was true in particular of the message expected from Mr. Conger. Minister Wu is perhaps the basis of this hope on our part, and he maintained an unshaken confidence in his original assertion that the news, when it does come, will show that the legationers are alive. The message reported to have come through Missionary Wilder, at Che Foo, was regarded as most promising
