About the time Chairman Jones gets Mr. Hill pacified, Mr. Croker breaks out in a new place.

Investigation shows that the voter of German birth is as much in favor of a 100c dollar as ever.

Mr. Bryan owns a farm, but the money he paid for it was earned by the sweat of his brow.

Col. Bryan's proposed tour of the country is no doubt prompted by a desire to get away from business in Lincoln.

PURDIE the last Democratic administration the dinner pail of the working man was usually filled with food for reflection.

FROM the magnificent bursts of silence on the question of free silver it is fair to infer that Col. Bryan considers the money problem fully settled.

"HE voted for Bryan in 1896" is becoming quite a common form of introduction for the speakers at the Republican meetings in Kansas this year.

GENERAL JOHN M. PALMER announces that he will cast his vote for McKinley and Roosevelt this year. The old soldier understands the best way to accomplish a desired result.

AMONG the many exhibits in Kansas prosperity is a potato field forty miles long. It is not believed that even the Hon. William Vincent Allen can out-talk this showing.

AFTER surveying all the predictions he made a less vain man than Mr. Bryan would, emulating the example of the parrot, come to the conclusion that he had talked too much.

FROM the figures of the census already published the experts estimate a total population of 74,000,000 to 77,000,000, which presents the usual interesting variations in expert testimony.

CHAIRMAN HANNA has not been compelled to attempt an explanation of his connection with the trust for the simple reason that, unlike Chairman Jones, he is not a beneficiary of such organizations.

REPUBLICAN management enables the United States to reduce the rate of interest on the public debt to 2 per cent, and thus save an immense amount annually as long as any of the debt remains unpaid.

By mistake a Russian battery opened on the American line in China and wounded a few men. In the Philippines the Bryan fire in the rear has cut down thousands of brave Americans, and is still at work.

UNDER the present administration the United States is sending coal to Newcastle, cottons to Manchester, iron to Russia and machinery to all parts of the world. The Democrats promise to stop this business when they get into power.

THE Hon. George Fred Williams announces the arrival of the empire. George Fred is always a little ahead of time. It will be recalled that last year he took the precaution to select the Massachusetts delegates to the Kansas City convention.

AN American officer writes from the Philippines: "To leave here now would mean the death of every Filipino in the islands who had dared to be friendly to the Americans." It is not the fashion of this country to punish the well disposed to oblige its enemies.

WITH the Hon. Ben Tillman protesting against "government without the consent of the governed," and Dick Croker fulminating against the ignorance of the people, the democratic party backs into the campaign with its accustomed dignity and pliancy.

"BEHOLD a republic," said Bryan in his notification speech, "resting securely upon the foundation stones quarried by revolutionary patriots from the mountains of eternal truth." Just so. Behold it paying out 100c dollars now as always throughout its history, and imagine how it would look with a Jeremy Diddler grin trying to palm off 48c for a dollar.

RUSSELL SAGE is not satisfied with the present prosperity. He complains with bitterness that "money is a drug on the market now." In the hard times of the Cleveland administration Mr. Sage could lend out his money with usury. Now he has to compete even with the farmers of the West, who have become lenders of money where they used to be borrowers. No wonder he is dissatisfied with McKinley prosperity.

IF Mr. Bryan cared to be candid he could discourse more learnedly upon the art of accumulating wealth than any of the other candidates in the field. Mr. Bryan is the wealthiest candidate before the people to-day and he has made his money since the inauguration of the policies against which he detested so vigorously. Yet Mr. Bryan is selfish enough to decline to give the Republican administration the proper credit for his good fortune.

HALF of the last British loan was taken by people in the United States, so that in place of this country having to work to pay interest to British holders of United States bonds, the process is reversed and the Britisher is now compelled to send money to this country to pay interest on his obligations. This is another condition which Bryan promises to change when he gets into power.

The Republican candidate for Governor of Minnesota, a steamboat captain, has boiled down the Democratic platform, and presents this as the residuum: "Pull down the flag. Rip the credit of the country up the back. Get a bugaboo and call it imperialism. Then stuff the people full of chaff." The Minnesota people are warranted in entertaining high hopes of their next Governor as a vigorous and truthful condenser.

MR. BRYAN did not close his predicting department when he received the election returns of 1896. After his defeat he issued an address in which he said: "Before the year 1900 arrives the evil effects of a gold standard will be even more evident than they are now, and the people, then ready to demand an American financial policy for the American people, will join with us in the immediate restoration of the free and unlimited coinage of silver at the present legal ratio of 16 to 1." Has anybody noticed a great rush at the realization entrance of this prediction?

If it had not been for Republican "expansion" Hawaii would not have become a part of the Union; if Hawaii had not become a part of the Union, a Hawaiian delegate-at-large would not have sat in the Democratic convention and been a member of the platform committee; if it had not been for the vote of this Hawaiian member of the platform committee, the 16 to 1 plank would have been beaten despite the telephonic orders from Lincoln; if this plank had been beaten, Bryan, according to his own words, would have refused to run for President. How, therefore, can Bryan logically inveigh against expansion, in view of the fact that he himself is a derivative from it?

THE Bryanites are still grumbling because the betting fraternity do not offer bigger odds than 5 to 1 on McKinley. Later on in the campaign perhaps the margin on McKinley will go up to 6 or 8 to 1. The canvass is young yet. The odds against Bryan were never so great in 1896 as they are in 1900. The Bryanites who were howling about the value of the bets as an election indicator in 1896, when the odds against Bryan were only small, ought to be impressed by the figures this year. If the narrow margin against Bryan among the pool sellers of four years ago presaged a majority of 95 against him in the electoral college, what size of a Republican majority do the immensely greater odds this year portend?

CHARLES W. FENWICK, a soldier in the Philippines, has written home to his Democratic father at Derdon, Saline county, Missouri, and declares that the election of Bryan is the one hope of the followers of Aguinaldo. The letter says there is no telling how much longer the bush-whacking warfare will last if the encouragement to the native from the United States is to be kept up. He further expresses very contemptuously the wish that Mr. Bryan himself might have them to deal with, for if he had he would "change his tune." This is in line with the last letter on the subject by the late General Lawton. The troops in the Philippines know where to place the responsibility for the prolongation of their service there.

DR. LEVERSON, who says that he was one of the first members of the Boston Anti-Imperialist League, is very proud of his infamous and treasonable correspondence with the Philippine rebels, captured and exposed by the War Department. He says that he has written many such letters, and other anti-imperialists have done the same thing, and that they are now in correspondence with the agents of the rebels. Leverson practically acknowledges that his work is treasonable, but says the Government "dare not arrest him." He probably relies on his insignificance to protect him. He is a fine specimen of the men who gathered in convention in Indianapolis to endorse Bryan. Another illustration of that gathering may be gained from the names of the members from Washington of the Resolutions Committee. All were former clerks in the departments who lost their positions. One of the speakers was Dr. L. W. Habercom, of Washington, who lost his place in the Treasury Department under this Administration. Great and conscientious men are these anti-imperialists.

1000 REWARD, $100. The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surface of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address, F. J. The Buffalo Moth.

A correspondent writes as follows to the Derick concerning the new house pest known as the buffalo moth: Much consternation and interest has been created by the appearance of the buffalo moth in various sections and this may be of interest to your many subscribers. The "buffalo moth" gets its name from our Western buffalo; the moth has a bunch of hair across its back, the same as the buffalo, or is lion-like. I heard an Ohio dandy spread herself on the subject, and a few people in Oil City have heard of him and are using the necessary precaution to exterminate the critter. He is ten times as destructive as our common white moth and more prolific-will destroy a carpet in less than a week. His nature is to eat in straight lines instead of holes and he will start at one end of a garment or carpet and travel its entire length, thereby leaving the garment utterly worthless. He crawls more than flies. The only peculiarity noticeable about him other than his great destructiveness, is that he seems to be partial to "red" in color and will, as a rule, choose red before other colors. This moth eats cotton garments as well as wool, where our ordinary moth favors wool almost wholly. The moth is said to have originated in Maine.

During the civil war as well as our late war with Spain, diarrhoea was one of the most troublesome diseases the army had to contend with. In many instances it became chronic and the old soldiers still suffer from it. Mr. David Taylor of Wind Ridge, Greene Co., Pa., is one of these. He uses Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and says he never found anything that would give him such quick relief. It is for sale by all druggists.

A AMENDMENT TO THE CONSTITUTION PROPOSED TO THE CITIZENS OF THIS COMMONWEALTH FOR THEIR APPROVAL OR REJECTION BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA, PUBLISHED BY ORDER OF THE SECRETARY OF THE COMMONWEALTH, IN PURSUANCE OF ARTICLE XVIII OF THE CONSTITUTION.

A JOINT RESOLUTION

proposing an amendment to the Constitution of the Commonwealth. Section 1. Be it resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth in General Assembly met, that the following is proposed as amendments to the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in accordance with the provisions of the eighteenth article thereof:

Amendment One to article Eight, Section One.

Add at the end of the first paragraph of said section, after the words "shall be entitled to vote at all elections," the words "subject however to such laws requiring and regulating the registration of electors as the General Assembly may enact;" so that the said section shall read as follows:

Section 1. Qualifications of Electors. Every male citizen twenty-one years of age, possessing the following qualifications, shall be entitled to vote at all elections, subject however to such laws requiring and regulating the registration of electors as the General Assembly may enact:

He shall have been a citizen of the United States at least one month.

He shall have resided in the State one year (or if having previously been a qualified elector or native born citizen of the State, he shall have removed therefrom and returned, within six months, immediately preceding the election).

He shall have resided in the election district where he shall offer to vote at least two months immediately preceding the election.

If twenty-two years of age and upwards he shall have paid within two years a State or county tax, which shall have been assessed at least two months and paid at least one month before the election.

Amendment Eleven to Article Eight, Section Seven.

Strike out from said section the words "but no elector shall be deprived of the privilege of voting by reason of his name not being registered," and add to said section the following words, "but laws regulating and requiring the registration of electors may be enacted to apply to cities only, provided that such laws be uniform for cities of the same class," so that the said section shall read as follows:

Section 7. Uniformity of Election Laws.-All laws regulating the holding of elections by the citizens or for the registration of electors shall be uniform throughout the State, but laws regulating and requiring the registration of electors may be enacted to apply to cities only, provided that such laws be uniform for cities of the same class.
