

THE FOREST REPUBLICAN

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 25, 1900.
Republican Tickets
NATIONAL
VICE PRESIDENT—THEODORE ROOSEVELT

Auditor General—E. B. HARTENBERG, Wayne County.
Congressman at Large—GALUSHA A. GROW, of Susquehanna County, ROBERT H. FOERDERER, of Philadelphia County.

Assembly—A. M. DOUTT, Tionesta Borough.
Associate Judge—W. H. H. DOTTERER, Kingsley Twp.
District Attorney—SAMUEL D. IRWIN, Tionesta Borough.
Coroner—DR. J. W. MORROW, Tionesta Borough.

THE workmen are understood to be still calling for dinner pails, McKinley style.

WHAT has become of Mr. Maerum? A while ago he was to be the paramount issue.

MR. BRYAN will hardly be so reckless as to paramour one of his nominations.

BRYAN'S former paramount issues were free trade and free silver. The third is imperialism—and out.

IT is believed that Mr. Bryan has turned out more perforated predictions than any other man in public life.

IT is as hard to figure out a respectable cabinet for Bryan as it is to fix up a list of States by which he can be elected.

THE Hon. John P. Altgeld as Attorney General of the United States would be a fine thing for the anarchist industry.

THE prompt relief of the legations in China is a clear-cut instance of the ability of President McKinley to meet a sudden crisis.

IT is no joke or dream, but a hard, cold fact that many of the Filipinos think that Aguinaldo is running on the ticket with Bryan.

IT will be perceived that Gov. Roosevelt is not going about the country apologizing for his views of Democratic encouragement for the Tagals.

IF, as the Democrats affirm, The Dingley bill is the mother of trusts, it must be admitted that quite a large family of children was born before the mother.

GEN. ROBERTS' latest fight is along a "perimeter" of thirty miles, which is one way to admit that there is still a good deal of warlike spirit left in the burghers.

THE Philadelphia Press remarks that the late C. P. Huntington "failed" at last, since he left for benevolent objects only $125,000 out of a fortune of $70,000,000.

INDIANA went Republican in 1896 by a plurality of 18,181 and in 1898 by 17,515. Bryan was at the front on both occasions, and Indiana's opinion of him is not in doubt.

THE Grand Army still marches as if it paid no heed to increasing years. Though not as nimble as they were, the boys still swing along in cadence step when the music strikes up.

THE fact that Chairman Jones is connected with the cotton bale trust is in a measure consoling to the Van Wycks and other Tammany statesmen. Misery doesn't like exclusiveness.

MR. BRYAN has one speech for the Democrats, another for the Populists and a third one for the free silver advocates. In view of the nature of his support the many-sided Kansas City platform was absolutely necessary.

IN 1846 the Democrats were charging Abraham Lincoln with being an imperialist and a republic wrecker. The Indianapolis Sentinel was particularly vigorous in this work. Mr. Bryan is not quoting from the files of his Indianapolis organ.

THERE is one proposition that the free traders cannot answer, and do not seem to understand; it is the enormous and unprecedented increase of our export business. All of them said that kind of thing was impossible under a protective tariff.

CINCINNATI, with a population of 325,219, has dropped three places in this year's census. It has been passed by Cleveland, with 381,768; by Buffalo, with 322,219; and by San Francisco, with 342,752. Pittsburgh gives it a close race, with 321,616.

THE Hon. Charles A. Towne is to attempt to answer Governor Roosevelt's speeches. It will be recalled that Mr. Towne is the gentleman who was unable to successfully answer the arguments of the men who wanted him off of a certain Presidential ticket.

THE volume of money in the United States, gold valuation, has increased more than $100,000,000 each year since McKinley's election. It is a financial fact of the first magnitude and refutes the silver argument heard most frequently four years ago.

THE Hon. George Fred Williams has been up in Maine and Vermont warning the voters of the presence of "the empire." An inspection of the election returns from these two States will show how much of a prophet George Fred is considered in his part of the country.

NEVER before in the history of Presidential campaigns have the supporters of a candidate been asked to believe that the platform means the reverse of what it says. The Democrats argue that Bryan will not do anything to advance the cause of silver, as he has promised to do. They are also being convinced that he would not retire the army from the Philippines as he has promised. Such an anomalous condition should not begot confidence.

"What I denounce," said William J. Bryan when a Congressman, "is a protective tariff; it is false economy and the most vicious political principle that has ever cursed the country." Since then the gold standard and the most vicious principle that has cursed this country.

THE Hon. George S. Boutwell, most prominent of all the anti-imperialists, so-called, thinks that the financial panic due to the common dread of Bryan's election would only be a short one. We also recall the case of the dear old boss that died of the diet of ten-penny holl just as he was getting used to them.

THE anti-Goebel Democrats of Kentucky will support the Republican nominee for Governor and many of them, remembering Mr. Bryan's unqualified endorsement of Goebellism, have declared their intention of voting for McKinley and Roosevelt. The prospect for a general political house-cleaning in Kentucky this year is excellent.

REV. DR. THEODORE L. CUYLER, of Brooklyn rejects the programme of the anti-imperialists who met at Indianapolis because he considers Bryan "an eloquent political agitator, without a shred of executive experience," who has "never originated a solitary scheme of statesmanship, and has constantly employed his vigorous literary powers in the advocacy of the most pestilent heresies," while his "reiterated and confident predictions made in his campaign of 1896 are now a laughing stock. Mr. Boutwell must feel lonesome when he counts up the results of his effort at Indianapolis.

Twenty-first Congressional District. They seem to be having a little hitch over in the 21st district, composed of Indiana, Armstrong, Westmoreland and Jefferson counties, in the nomination of a Republican Congressional candidate. At a meeting held in Indiana last week, after several ballots, the present incumbent, Hon. S. M. Jack withdrew his name and asked his conferees to support Hon. W. O. Smith, who has twice had the instructions of Jefferson county for this honor. In this district the one-term rotation system seems to have been pretty thoroughly established, bad and all as that system is, and as Mr. Jack seems to have conceded the honor to Jefferson at this time it should of right go there. Both Armstrong and Westmoreland have had the nomination twice since Jefferson, which county has had two Republican Congressional nominations since the county was organized, ninety-six years ago. What could be fairer or more equitable now than that the other two counties should unite with Indiana in extending the honor to Jefferson county's candidate, Mr. Smith. He has twice come before the conference with his stalwart Republican county at his back, and this time is joined by another of the great Republican counties of the State. Why, then, should the other two counties stand out? Of Mr. Smith's eminent fitness for the place there is not the remotest doubt. His eight years of legislative experience admirably qualifies him to represent in a most intelligent manner the interests of that large constituency, and there should be no hesitancy whatever in choosing him under all the circumstances. In fact we cannot understand by what sort of argument the conferees, or those having to do with the nomination, are going to refuse it. The claims of Jefferson county are too strong to be turned aside at this time, and in order to make all things harmonious and insure the election of one of the best men in the State to Congress, the nomination of W. O. Smith should be made with the greatest promptness and unanimity. The district has few equals, and certainly none better, equipped for the place than he.

FORGET YOUR TROUBLES,
And Remember the Great Oil City Fair, Sept. 11, 12, 13 and 14.

There is only one Great Oil City Fair and Olesignous Exposition. It stands alone and unapproachable, and it will be greater than ever this year, the progressive policy of the management being to constantly go forward, making each succeeding fair an improvement on the one preceding it. The success attending the preceding efforts of the association has been such as to induce it this year to present everything on a scale of magnitude never before undertaken in this section of the country. There will be nothing small about it but the price of admission, which will be twenty-five cents.

In addition to the fine exhibits, guaranteed by liberal premiums, and fast races, insured by large purses, the olesignous and agricultural exhibits will be on a much larger scale than ever before. In addition to the regular premium, offered in the agricultural department, there are special premiums amounting to several thousand dollars, given by business men of Venango county. One of these premiums is the Jersey bull or $300 in cash, contributed by Miller & Sibley.

Perhaps the greatest novelty, in the special line, is Mrs. Murphy, the monkey aeronaut and parachute jumper, who will make two balloon ascensions each day, morning and afternoon, jumping from the balloon at a height of from 1,000 to 5,000 and returning to earth with a parachute. This is a great attraction, having been in this country only since July 22, and appearing only at Chicago, St. Louis and Cincinnati.

The platform performances, in front of the grand stand, will be of unusual excellence. Howard, the great equestrian; Verona, the gymnastic marvel; the Simpson and French acrobats, and others will appear daily.

There will also be scores of tent performances and all the attractions which go to make up a great fair.

New street car line direct to the gates. For additional particulars address I. N. Hinderlighter, Secretary.

Always an Indian.

Henry Hall is writing very interesting letters from the West to the Pittsburgh Times, and in speaking of the Crow Indians, who have churches, schools and missionaries on their reservations, has this truthful statement:

A number of the boys and girls have attended the schools at Carlisle, Pa., and other eastern schools. It is to be regretted that here, as at all other agencies, the evidence does not go to show that an eastern education benefits an Indian. Some graduates sustain themselves on the same plane to which they have been elevated, but most of them go back to where they began. They are hardly to blame for this. The other Indians make fun of them and never rest until they have got them back to the old life. An official told a very pathetic story of one young girl. "When she came back," he said, "she was bright and well-dressed almost stylish in fact. For a time she evidently struggled to live up to what she had been taught, but the contest was an unequal one. Gradually she went back to the Indian way of living. She became more and more careless in dress, and at last put on squaw's clothes. When she first came back she would talk freely and in excellent English. Now when you speak to her she hides her face in her blanket and won't say a word. She is only a Crow squaw now."
