Oil market closed at $1.10. Go to Amster for ammunition. Oil and gas leases at this office. You can get it at Hopkins' store. Best prices at Tionesta Cash Store. Amster will have oysters to-morrow. Fels-Naptha soap at Tionesta Cash Store.

Go to Killmer for window glass of any size. Hopkins' Grand Cloak opening, Friday, Oct. 26. Best rubber shoes sold at Tionesta Cash Store.

Call on F. Walters & Co. for ladies' furnishing goods. James Haslet has sold his Shetland pony to Rochester, N. Y., parties, shipping it by express last Friday.

Judge Criswell of Venango county, in an opinion given Monday, declares the bicycle tax law unconstitutional. P. Walters & Co. held their fall opening last Thursday and Friday, but the beautiful hats are not all gone yet. Go, and see.

All signs fall in dry weather, and the roads are as dusty as ever. Some people declare that there's dust in the river, but that sounds fishy. Ed. Wasson has just finished a week's fishing job at the Jughandia well which he is drilling for Tionesta parties, and has again got the drill to bonning.

A substantial cement crossing has been placed at the corner of the Forest County National Bank, over Elm street, the work of private enterprise. After Nov. 1 the curfew law will be in force in Salamanca, and young people under 16 years of age will not be permitted on the streets after 8 o'clock p. m.

P. S.—That was a fine soaking rain Monday night and yesterday. We have heard no objections from any source to the wetting of everything out-of-doors. Nothing any better than good buckwheat cakes those frosty mornings. Farmers, bring in your buckwheat and get your cash. LANSON BROS.

Following is a list of letters remaining unopened for in the Tionesta, Pa., post-office for the week ending Oct. 24, 1900: Mr. D. F. O'Hern. D. S. KNOX, P. M.

The Blizzard reports a fine catch of fish at Thompson's by an Oil City gentleman Saturday. There were 68 in number and the combined weight was 138 pounds. We have all heard of and condemned the game hog. What's the matter with giving a little attention to the fish hog?

There will be a meeting of the executive committee of the county W. C. T. U., Thursday afternoon, October 25th, at half past one o'clock, in the Presbyterian church of Tionesta. All members are cordially invited to be present. By order of the President.

Following is the program for a Local Institute to be held at Nebraska, Oct. 27: Forenoon Session.—Devootional Exercises; Geography, C. A. Henry; Spelling, Earle Small; Question Box, Chairman. Afternoon Session.—Reading, Miss Ballew; Preparation for Persephone, C. I. Johnson; Artificial and Natural Incentives in School Work, Miss Ellen Ahi; How to teach Grammar, Sept. E. E. Silzinger; Election of officers. Music will be interspersed to add variety. Bring questions for the "Box." Cont.

YOU AND YOUR FRIENDS.

Mrs. R. B. Crawford was a visitor to Oil City on Monday. Ed. Dunkle has secured a situation as brakeman on the Penn's. Mrs. S. H. Haslet visited relatives in Oil City the last of the week. Miss Blanche Mays was a guest of Oil City friends over Sunday. Born to Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Hood of Tionesta township, a son, last night. Mrs. R. N. Spear returned Monday from a visit to friends in Cooperstown. Mrs. C. J. Partridge is up from Pittsburgh on a visit to her mother, Mrs. J. G. Dale. G. T. Anderson is in DuBois attending the funeral of a cousin named Elmer Swanson. Miss Ida Skinner of Bradford is a guest of her sister, Mrs. J. D. W. Reek of this place. John Lawrence is home from Chamberlain Insitute, Randolph, N. Y., for a week's vacation. Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Kelly spent a part of last week with relatives in Pittsburgh attending a family reunion. Rev. J. V. McAninch returned last Friday from a month's vacation with relatives in Kansas and Missouri. Mrs. G. E. Gerow of the Central House is a guest of relatives in Hazelhurst, McKean County, this week. Pritner Agnew of Youngsville, Warren county, was a guest of his brother, L. Agnew, a couple of days last week. Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Weaver and children, of Hotel Agnew, visited friends in Fryburg a couple of days last week. W. C. Sallade of Marienville was a pleasant caller at the REPUBLICAN office while in town on business last Thursday. Miss Delva Randall was in Siverly last Friday and Saturday as delegate to the district Christian Endeavor convention. J. S. Seyfang of Bradford was in Tionesta on business a couple of days last week and was a guest at the Central House. Sons were born last week to Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Carson, Hunier Run, and Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Weingard, of Harmony township. Garfield Grove, who has been in the West Virginia oil fields is at home having to quit work there on account of the scarcity of water. J. E. Eck and Julia A. Walters, both of Redelfo, this county, have been granted a license to wed by the Clerk of Jefferson county. Mrs. Jennie E. Agnew and Mrs. L. Fulton were handsomely entertained last Friday evening at the home of the former last Friday evening. Miss Julia Hoskins, a niece of H. H. Shoemaker, aged about 17 years, died at her home in Meador Saturday, the 20th inst., of typhoid fever. Misses Emma Thompson and Edith Gailley were delegates from Nebraska to the Epworth League Convention at Tidoute last Saturday. Congressman Hall was down from Elk yesterday looking after his political fences, which we are inclined to think are badly in need of repairs in Forest county. Mrs. Jennie Clark and Miss Carrie Hamburg, of Philadelphia, sister-in-law and niece of Capt. C. W. Clark are guests at the home of the Captain and other relatives. Mrs. J. W. McCrea and daughter, Lillian spent Sunday in Eagle Rock, with Mr. McCrea's mother, who is quite seriously ill, but was some better at last accounts. Mrs. L. D. Whitcomb and son Francis of West Hickory, departed Monday for Ostrander, Washington, where they will join Mr. W., who has been there for some time. Ernest and Will Vantassel of Ludlow, Warren county, were guests of their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Eden, during the past week, returning home Monday morning. Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Allison arrived in Tionesta last Friday from Wisconsin, where they have resided for a number of years past, and are now visiting at their old home in Nebraska. Mr. J. N. Dunn, who has been stopping with his son, Dr. Dunn, during the summer started for Sistersville, W. Va., yesterday, where he will remain for a while with his in-laws. Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Bender of West Hickory were business callers at the REPUBLICAN office Saturday. Mr. B. advertises his hotel and farm for sale in this week's issue. See the notice elsewhere. Arthur Want of Nebraska, one of Forest county's most excellent young men, has gone to Westford, Crawford county, a thriving town on the Erie & Pittsburgh R'y, where he has purchased a flourishing hardware store, and will probably make that his home in the near future. Arthur's many friends will wish him abundant success. Min. McMichael, a former resident of Tionesta township, returned Monday evening from a trip to New Mexico, Colorado, and other southwestern States. He left this section over a year ago to seek relief from asthma's trouble, and has been greatly benefited by the change of climate. He traveled quite extensively and saw much country—good, bad and indifferent—but thinks he'll take up his home in this section again. Walter J. Christy, one of the brightest staff correspondents in the S. A., has been circulating somewhat of his in the northwestern counties in the interest of his paper, the Pittsburg Courier-Gazette, and dropped off in Tionesta last Thursday. We are sorry that on that particular day it looked as though pleasant and all kinds of game would be free, and we were outwitted away from home, and so missed seeing our genial friend. Mr. Christy is doing excellent work for the party in this end through his spirited articles in the Gazette. Master Carpenter Roberts' office in the west corner of the Pennsylvania railroad station here presents a livelier appearance since the introduction of an office force. Clark Eakon of this city, for some time employed in the Oil City office, has been transferred here and is the master carpenter's clerk. John Duffey of Oil City has also been transferred here and is clerk for Supervisor Thos. Hillard, with headquarters in the master carpenter's office.—Tionesta Herald. Mr. Roberts is an old Tionesta boy, in whose progress and advancement many old friends here take much interest.

Token of Respect.

At a meeting of Capt. Geo. Stow Corps, No. 137 W. R. C., the following resolutions were adopted: WHEREAS it hath pleased Him who doeth all things well to remove from our circle by death on Oct. 7th, 1900 our friend and sister Mrs. Clara I. Dean; therefore be it

Resolved: That while we yield trustingly to the wisdom that has bereft us, we do hereby record our sense of loss; and that this society has lost more than a member, more than an officer, for she was a companion and friend, a woman rich in all the graces of heart and soul, faithful charitable and loving and we mourn her loss as that of a dear friend.

Resolved: That the Woman's Relief Corps of Tionesta extend to the bereaved husband and family their heartfelt sympathy in their hour of need.

Resolved: That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the sorrowing husband and family and that they be printed in the FOREST REPUBLICAN and the Democratic Vindicator.

Resolved: That our charter be draped in mourning for a period of thirty days and that these resolutions be made a part of the minutes of this society.

EMMA DUNN, FRANCES GROVE, ANSIE M. PROPER.

Hunting Rules.

If the advice of one who has hunted for thirty years is worth anything, you are welcome to use the following: While in the woods don't wear a hat and coat of the same color.

Never look into the muzzle of a gun, and never hold it toward anybody—no matter whether it is loaded or not. Familiarity with a gun breeds contempt.

Never put your finger inside your trigger guard until you want your gun to go off.

Always keep your gun pointing upward. If held downward your feet may get in the road.

When going through a fence put down your hammers and handle your gun as though it were a glass toy.

If you should fall throw yourself on your back—holding the gun up. A bruised back hurts less than a hole through you, and your friends may be averse to wearing caps.

Don't shoot at an object until you positively know what it is. Take no chances. Rather let a thousand head of game escape than kill one man.

If you must have a crutch, get a stick. Never lean on a gun.

Notice.

Having made arrangements with one of the leading cloak firms of the East, we wish to announce to the ladies of Tionesta and vicinity that on Friday, October 25, 1900, we will have a grand opening of ladies' jackets, collarettes, furs, etc. On that day we will show the largest line of ladies' wraps ever shown in Forest Co.

Every lady is respectfully invited to be present on that date and look them over whether you wish to purchase or not.

Remember the date. Only one day—Oct. 25. L. J. HOPKINS.

Home-seekers' Excursions.

On the first and third Tuesdays in each month during 1900, from Chicago via Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul railway, to points in Iowa, South and North Dakota, Minnesota, Montana, Colorado, Utah, Nebraska, Oregon and Washington at the rate of one fare plus two dollars for the round trip, good 21 days. For further information call on or address W. S. Howell, G. E. P. A., 321 Broadway, New York, or John R. Pott, D. P. A., 486 William street, Williamsport Pa.

RECENT DEATHS.

Mrs. JAMES JOHNSON. Mrs. Johnson, wife of James Johnson died at her home on German Hill last Wednesday morning, very unexpectedly. Mr. Johnson had gone to the woods about two miles distant to do some hauling, leaving his wife and two adopted children at home, she being in her usual health that morning and being able to attend to her usual house work. Some time during the forenoon she went with the daughter and young son to gather apples, when she became ill, and was assisted to the house by the daughter. In a few moments and before assistance could be summoned, she told the daughter that her end was near, and after a few words of cheer and comfort to the children she expired. Mr. Johnson was quickly summoned from his work and was almost prostrated on arriving at the house and finding his beloved wife a corpse. The deceased was a woman of noble Christian character, a kind and affectionate wife and a good mother to her adopted children which she raised from infancy. She was aged 61 years. The funeral took place on Friday afternoon last, the interment being in the Mt. Zion Lutheran cemetery, German Hill. The family of the deceased desire to return thanks to the neighbors and friends who so kindly assisted in their hour of bereavement. May God bless them.

ROBERT W. ELDER. Robert Wellington Elder died at his home in this place at 8:55 o'clock on Thursday morning, October 18th, 1900, after an illness of three weeks. He was taken with inflammatory rheumatism while at West Alexandria fair, Sept. 20th, and the disease developed into rheumatic meningitis, which was the cause of his death. He was a son of Thomas and Lucinda Elder, and was born June 7th, 1849, near Rimersburg, Clarion county, Pa. Previous to his removal to this section ten years ago, he was an active figure in the political affairs of his native county, where he was widely known. He was married January 29, 1868, to Miss Mary L. Bennett, who with six of their eight children survive him, among whom is Mrs. J. P. Huling of Tionesta. His mother, two sisters and five brothers also survive. Of these Mrs. Mary Hunter, John and Will Elder reside at West Hickory, Pa. He has been running a restaurant since he came from Taylors town in 1897. He was a member of the M. E. church for many years. He was quick at making up with strangers, generous to a fault, kind hearted, his hand never closed to human need. Thus it was that he was respected of his fellow men. Services were held at his late home at 8 o'clock Thursday evening conducted by Revs. J. A. Cook and R. L. Erhard. The family and kinsmen left on the eight train Friday morning for East Brady. A funeral service will be held there on Saturday and the interment will be at Brady's Bend cemetery.—Clayville (Wash. Co.) Republican.

Mrs. J. P. Huling, of this place, daughter of the deceased was present in her father's last illness and at the funeral, also Mrs. Hunter, of West Hickory.

THOMAS W. ALLENDER. Thomas Whitefield Allender died at his home in West Hickory, Saturday morning, October 20, 1900. The deceased was born in Harmony township, Feb. 26, 1838, and spent his whole life near the place of his birth. His parents were Joseph and Elizabeth Allender, and his mother, now 83 years of age, has her home in Tionesta, Forest county. Mr. Allender leaves a wife and one son, whose home is in Lucas county, Kansas, one brother, J. B. Allender, of Cleveland, Ohio, and two sisters, Mrs. Elizabeth Hunter, of Millville, Pa., and Mrs. Hannah Siggins, of Tionesta. For several years Mr. Allender was a member of the M. E. church at Hickory and his usefulness in the church cannot be estimated. During the last seventeen years of his life he was employed as toll-keeper by the West Hickory Bridge company, and his integrity justly won the esteem of his employers. All acquainted with the deceased will feel the loss of a friend of a beautiful Christian character and deep piety of life. The burial took place in the M. E. cemetery at East Hickory, on Monday afternoon.
