FUSIONISTS LOSE IN THE COURTS

Important Decisions Which Block the Game of the Insurgent-Democratic Combine.

ELKIN MAKES A PREDICTION.

After a Tour of the State the Attorney General Says There Will Be a Great Victory For Stalwart Repub-Hennism at the Coming Election in the Keystone State.

(Special Correspondence.) Philadelphia, Oct. 23.—As election day draws nearer the indications become more pronounced for a great Republican triumph in the Keystone state on the 6th of November next.

Reports from the various countles and districts all tend to show that there is a cementing of Republican elements throughout the state and that the fusion movement, which was started with such a flourish and blaring of trumpets, has gone to smash.

The action of the Dauphin county court in the cases of Huntingdon, Chester and other counties where the fusionists had plans to work the official ballot in the interest of their candidates, has disheartened many of the leaders of the insurgent cause, and they are seeking to be readmitted into the fold of the Republican organization. Some of them are most conspicuous in their work for the entire Republican ticket.

The fact that the Republican organization leaders of the state, Chairman General Reeder, his chief of staff, T. Larry Eyre, and others identified with the state campaign, are in constant ments as to dates, course, number of communication with the Republican trials, rules and salling regulations, and national committee and with Senator any and all other conditions of the Penrose and Col. Quay holding conferences with President McKinley tends to impress these who strayed from the ranks of the regulars with the fact that they should at once get in line with their party leaders and be prepared to participate in the general Republican rejoicing that will take place on the night of the coming elec-

ELKIN'S PREDICTION.

Attorney General John P. Elkin, who has been traveling all over the state during the last few weeks, is absolutely confident that the regular Republicans will control and organize both branches of the legislature and that a stalwart Republican will be elected to the United States senate. In commenting upon the situation in the state Mr. Elkin said:

"It is apparent that the Republicans of Pennsylvania have become wearied and have grown tired of the internal dissensions in our party during the past few years. Our people are becoming aware of the fact that an imperial commonwealth like ours should have its full representation in the United States senate. With 7,000,000 of the most intelligent people on the face of the earth it would seem as though our state should be represented by two United States senutors. The reason that we are not so represented is that a minority of the Republican party, acting in conjunction with the Demoerats, prevented an election at the last session of the legislature. It is my belief that this can never occur again. Republicans are beginning to realize that a political organization can only be maintained and upheld when party | ward with a broken neck. regularity is respected.

PEOPLE ARE AROUSED.

"Thousands of Republicans not in sympathy perhaps with the regular organization of the party in the state, and not always willing to follow the leaders of our party, have concluded that a majority of the Republicans have a right to decide all disputed questions about which Republicans disagree. Upon this principle we make our nominations. Upon this principle nominate our candidates for the highest office within the gift of the people. For more than a quarter of a century United States senators have been placed in nomination by the majority vote of the Republicans elected to the senate and house of representa-

AND THEY WILL ELECT A

STALWART UNITED STATES SEN-

"The fusion movement has no strength with our people today. It is doubtful whether a single senator or representative would be elected by reason of the fusion movement in our state. For a time a number of our good citizens were deceived and misled by the sham cry of reform, raised by a few selfish leaders of this movement; but the mask has been torn off now, and the people see that these so-called reform leaders are desirous not of promoting the interests of our party, but of gratifying their own selfish ends.

"Fusion is dead. The insurgent movement is dead. The Republican party lives. Majority rule still survives. Party regularity is becoming the watchword of all true Republicans under the splendid administration of President Mc-Kinley, who will march to victory at the November election."

After the lessons of 1896 and 1900 perhaps the Democrats may conclude that the next time it may be well to nominate a Democrat for the presi-

REVIEW OF TRADE. Bradstreet's Report on Conditions of Business Throughout the Country.

NEW YORK, Oct. 20 .- Bradstreet's review of trade says: Prices of farm products have tended downward this week. The most not-able drop has been in cotton 1-2c for the week and le from the highest point reached. Wool is a little more active and firm in tone at eastern markets but the demand is still to cover orders received by manufacturers who are not inclined to buy beyond this. It has been a dull and on the whole weak market for the cereals with liquidation a feature in wheat and corn, better weather in the West inducing a larger movement of the former and improving the condition of the latter. Flaxseed has had another sharp advance and linseed oil reached the highest price ever paid. Dairy products have improved on cooler weather, while hog products have weakened on packers selling and in the face of comparatively moderate hog receipts. Wheat, including flour shipments for the week aggregate 3,796,643 bushels against 4,292,855 bushels last week, 4,-160,618 bushels in the corresponding week of 1899, 4,282,773 bushels in 1898, 6,-552,171 bushels in 1897 and 4,067,217 bushels in 1896. Corn exports for the week aggregate ,886,993 bushels against 2,896,037 bushels last week, 5,058,697 bushels in this week year ago, 2,537,191 bushels in 1898, 1.-177,543 bushels in 1897, and 2,779,984

Stevenson Figures Victory.

CHICAGO, Oct. 22,-Adial E. Stevenson who returned to Chicago Saturday from his campaigning trip through the eastern states in an interview spoke enthusiastically of the Democratic as tivity in the state through which he had passed. Mr. Stevenson made the declaration that the Democrats would carry Indiana and he added: "Ohio should be put down as very likely to give its electoral votes for Bryan. To my mind the two great doubtful states which lean more strongly to the Democratic than to the Republican side in this fight are New York and Ohio."

Jones Says Bryan Will Carry New York. CHICAGO, Oct. 23.-Chairman Jones of the Democratic national committee said yesterday: "I don't believe there is any doubt that Mr. Bryan will carry New York. I believe our chances for carrying Ohio are better than the Republicans'. I regard Illinois as an exseedingly doubtful state. Telegrams from the chairman of the state Democratic committee of California say we are going to carry California, I have no doubt of the election of Mr.

OLEO AGITATION PURELY POLITICAL

Farmer Cope Challenges All Who Criticise His Department to Face Him.

CONGRESS . IS IN DOUBT.

Pennsylvania Republicans Warned of the Danger in Fusion With a United States Senator to Elect and With a Poll of the Country Showing But Six Probable Republican Majority in the House.

(Special Correspondence.) Harrisburg, Oct. 23,-The political character of the agitation over the oleo issue is becoming known to the voters of the state. The willful misrepresentations of the work of the department of agriculture have been going on so long and the associations of the men back of the attacks are now so well known that the farmers and dairymen of the state are not being deceived. This was apparent in Chester county last week, when men who are identified with the insurgent Republican movement got up a meeting and sought to help along their fusion legislative campaign through it. Their gathering was a small one, and it was evident losing game. FARMER COPE'S CHALLENGE. Farmer Cope, after reading the re-ports of what was said atthis insurgent meeting in West Chester, promptly isued the following challenge:

"Having noticed the proceedings of the meeting held at Smith's Hall, West Chester, Pa., on Oct. 16, I beg leave to make the following statement in order to sustain the action of myself and the attaches of the dairy and food department of the commonwealth of Pennsyl-

"To Edward Walter, George Rhoads, Samuel E. Howell, Penrose Maule, John Battin and John C. Sharpless: challenge you collectively or individually or any one connected with that meeting or any one in the common-wealth of Pennsylvania or any newspaper published in this state to proluce any evidence before any court of this commonwealth or board of arbitration that will sustain them in making the following charges:

Whereas, By the sworn testimony of witnesses and the records of the several courts of quarter sessions of the commonwealth of Pennsylvania it has been shown that officials of our state and others under them have conspired with the oleomorgarine dealers and actually did aid and abet them in committing crimes and violations of our laws prohibiting the illegal sale f oleomargarine.

'Whereas, By the violation of the laws regulating the sale of oleomargarine the farmers of the state of Pennsylvania have been systematically and leliberately robbed out of several million dollars annually in the sale of their dairy products."

"I furthermore challenge any one in this commonwealth or any newspaper in this commonwealth to produce any evidence since my taking charge of this division that will be sustained by any court of this commonwealth or board of arbitration, that any attorney, chemist or agent has by any act or in any manner hindered or prevented the arrest and conviction of any person or persons violating the pure food and oleomargarine laws of this state.

"Furthermore, I most emphatically deny that I am under control of any machine, faction, party or association or that either Governor Stone, Secretary Hamilton or any one else connected with the state administration has at any time used or endeavored to use any influence or pressure in regard to my actions as dairy and food commissioner of this commonwealth.

"I honestly and conscientiously believe by the condition in which I found this division upon taking charge on the 19th day of June, 1900, that there has been neibling criminal that can be attached to any official connected with this department. That the attack upon this department has been prompted entirely as a partisan movement to polson and prejudice the minds of the farmers of the state. JESSE K. COPE.
