"But the world never forgives," observes one of the characters in a popular novel; "it is only God and our mothers that can do that."

Editor Shick and Squire C. H. Wilton of Marienville have been drawn as jurors for the term of United States Circuit Court which begins at Pittsburg on the 12th day of November.

Wm. Haslet killed a good sized bear near Guiltonville one day last week. The "saddle" was purchased by the Butler meat market, where the "steak" was put on sale and went like hot cakes.
Hallow e'en to-night, but that does not imply that it is lawful to do all sorts of mischief. Fun's fun, boys, but don't get rude and destroy property, because it is often very expensive business.

The County Commissioners have decided to accept the ruling of Judge Lindsey, of Forest county, that the verdict in the Valley bridge case be made $15,870, an increase of $2,000 over the verdict of the jury.—Franklin News.

Following is a list of letters remaining uncalled for in the Tionesta, Pa., post-office for the week ending Oct. 31, 1900: Capt. C. A. Smith, Mr. Lewis Emmet, Dawson J. Kirby, Hanna Holmberg, D. S. Knoox, P. M.

The Y. P. S. C. E. of Endover held an echo meeting last night following the convention at Siverly. The entire program was quite fully rehearsed by the seven delegates who attended the convention. After the meeting a social was held in the hall and refreshments were served. A party of about twenty-five drove up from this place to attend the meeting.

A great many persons are applying for mail routes under the new order of things. There can be no subletting in the matter, but the bidding between contestants may be so sharp as to leave little or no profit to the party getting the job.

The Oil Well Supply Co.'s large plant at Oil City was greatly damaged by fire last Friday night. The loss will reach up close to the $100,000 mark, but is covered by insurance. The shops will be rebuilt at once. A good many skilled employes are thrown out of work for a time.

Mary E. Wilkins has just finished a new novel, which has been secured by the Ladies Home Journal. The social life of a small town is her theme. She reveals its romance, its humors and tragedies with that charming realism which characterizes the writings of this popular novelist.

There will be Quarterly Meeting at the Free Methodist church, of Stewart Run, beginning Friday Nov. 2, and continuing over Sunday. Rev. C. H. Miller, of Tionesta, will preach Friday evening, and Rev. M. E. Miller, the presiding elder, will have charge of the meeting from Saturday evening. All are cordially invited to attend.

According to our exchanges, two swindlers are abroad in the land selling towels and table linen. If they call on you, hit them with the flying pan. The goods that they deliver are nothing like the samples they display. In some instances they have received orders amounting to as high as $50, for which they give about $5 worth of cheap goods. It always pays best to patronize home merchants.

"Pur" Fitzgerald met with an accident while assisting to load a car of lumber for Landers & Wyman at their siding near Hunter station last Friday afternoon. He was removing a skid stick to let a freight train by, but did not get it out of the way in time, and the engine struck the end of the stick knocking the young man down and breaking one of his legs near the ankle. He was otherwise bruised but not seriously.

Now is the time to think about your winter suit. In winter you want a warm suit. You want a suit that is properly made, as well as being made of good material. You can get neither in a "hand-me-down" suit. When you want a suit go to F. E. Dick the merchant tailor. He guarantees both fit and quality of goods. If foreign made goods are desired he can furnish them at prices that can't be beat. Examine his samples.

Mrs. Jennie R. Allender, of West Hickory, will dispose of most of her household goods consisting of furniture, stoves, beds and springs, book case, sewing machine, etc., at auction, on Saturday, Oct. 10th, beginning at 1 o'clock p. m. Included in the list will also be a horse, harness, buggy, sleigh, saddle, cutting box, a quantity of hay, and many other useful articles. Terms, sums of $5 cash, over $5 three months' time with approved security. Remember date.

Down in Huntington, West Virginia, a town on the Ohio river, so the story goes, there lives twin sisters, who less than a year ago, were married at the same time to twin brothers. Walter J. Swanson and Howard E. Swanson. A little over a week ago Mrs. Walter J. Swanson gave birth to triplets and an hour later her sister, Mrs. Howard E. Swanson, similarly surprised her husband with a trio of young Swansons. If this be a true story it is only another evidence of the booming Republican prosperity, for the Swansons are all Republicans.

Forest county is ahead of any other in the State in the matter of good roads. This is a pretty broad claim, perhaps, but it's the facts in the case nevertheless. Jenks township is one that particularly excels in this respect. A road built from Marienville to the new town of Loleta, in Elk county, and finished less than a year ago is quite a boulevard in point of beauty, grade, etc. Artist D. W. Clark of this place laid out the road, which has less than a five degree grade, and there is scarcely a rod of the way that a team cannot trot upon with ease. The last mile of the road lies in Millstone township Elk county, and so great is the difference in the quality that one can distinguish within a very few rods where the line crosses, making it very evident that the road commissioners of Jenks township thoroughly understand their business, believing in the maxim that "the best is the cheapest." This is the case all over the county, and strangers who have occasion to drive over our roads say they can tell at once when they strike the Forest county line by the difference in the roads. The friendly rivalry between the neighboring townships has much to do with this state of affairs, while the good judgment displayed by those having charge of the road making is responsible for most of it.

The teachers' institute of this county will begin December 24th and last five days.

October has done itself proud in the matter of fine weather. Now if November will behave as well we may all be happy, whether the gas man likes it or not.

To-morrow will be deer-killing time. Two deer in any one season is the lawful allotment for one person. In other words we're all entitled to two each if we can get 'em, and we don't see why we can't.

On and after Nov. 1st, the Forest Telephone Co., will put a three minute limit on all conversations over their line. Persons insisting on talking longer at any one time will be charged five cents per minute.

Don't lose sight of the fact that Amisler keeps an especially fine stock of groceries, in which line everything is of the freshest and best brand. It will pay you to call on him for all such goods because they are sold at a very narrow margin.

A couple of freight cars were derailed and thrown across the track at the lower end of the switch at this place Monday morning, but by prompt work of the wrecking crew the track was cleared so that there was no delay in any of the passenger trains.

Death on Wednesday morning last, relieved the suffering of Miss Teresa Kopinski, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kopinski, of East Titusville, whose strange malady has attracted so much attention during the last couple of months. Deceased was just passed 29 years of age. She had been a sufferer for over eleven months from a complication of diseases which terminated in a slow petrification of the body.—World.

A party of six boys whose ages ranged from 12 to 17 years passed through here Monday morning on their way to "any old place." They claimed Eric as their home and had run away to get rid of going to school. They were a sorry looking bunch and their breakfast menu consisted of apples, which they roasted in the stove at the depot. Every one of them would have been in a much more comfortable frame of mind had they been in hearing distance of their home school bell.

Marienville is to have a national bank in the near future, an institution which the business people of that thriving town have stood in need of for several years. The Express says "the necessary amount of stock has been pledged, but there is yet an opportunity for any of our home people to invest who wish. The bank will be a great convenience, and our people will have the satisfaction of knowing that our most substantial business men will be interested with practical bankers in its control."

The public is warned against a new counterfeit silver certificate that has made its appearance. It counterfeits the new issue of silver certificates, is a photolithographic note, looks well, bears treasury number 2,418,003, check letter B, plate number 20, series of 1899 and has the usual signature of J. W. Lyons, register of the treasury, and Elias H. Roberts, treasurer of the United States. Defects in the bill are white spots on the right cheek of the Indian portrait, and lack of life like appearances in the left eye. The paper is also a darker shade of green than is the color of the genuine note.

Robert Bean killed a bear in his orchard on Beaver creek, Hickory township, last Thursday night that weighed nearly 400 pounds. The old cuss had been helping himself to apples for several nights previous and Mr. Bean laid in wait for him on the night in question and succeeded in getting a bullet into his anatomy in about the right spot. It is said the brute had shortly before carried a fine calf off the premises. The bear was taken to Oil City where it was furnished with a fine dinner of the hub for several days. The people of that district need a little bear meat during this heated congressional campaign to keep up their ferocity.

Thanksgiving Proclamation.

The State Department at Washington has issued the following:
"By the President of the United States of America—A Proclamation.
"It has pleased Almighty God to bring our Nation in safety and honor through another year. The works of religion and charity have everywhere been manifest. Our country through all its extent has been blessed with abundant harvests. Labor and the great industries of the people have prospered beyond all precedent. Our commerce has spread over the world. Our power and influence in the cause of freedom and enlightenment have extended over distant seas and lands. The lives of our official representatives and many of our people in China have been marvelously preserved. We have been generally exempt from pestilence and other great calamities and even the tragic visitation which overwhelmed the city of Galveston made evident the sentiments of sympathy and Christian charity by virtue of which we are one united people.
"Now, therefore, I, William McKinley, President of the United States, do hereby appoint and set apart Thursday, the 29th of November next, to be observed by all the people of the United States, at home or abroad, as a day of thanksgiving and praise to Him who holds the Nations in the hollow of His hand. I recommend that they gather in their several places of worship and devoutly give Him thanks for the prosperity wherewith He has endowed us, for seed-time and harvest, for the valor, devotion and humanity of our armies and navies and for all His benefits to us as individuals and as a Nation, and that they humbly pray for the continuance of His divine favor, for concord and amity with other nations, and for righteousness and peace in all our ways.
"In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.
"Done at the city of Washington this 29th day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred, and of the independence of the United States one hundred and twenty-five.
(Seal) WILLIAM MCKINLEY.
"By the President,
"JOHN HAY, Secretary of State."

Written on the Death of Mrs. James Johnston.

Asleep in Jesus and at rest,
From all her labor and unrest,
Our mother closed her eyes in death,
And ere she breathed her latest breath
She said, "tell them all good-bye."

Her life's earthly work here is done,
Her race is finished, her crown won;
Her hands now folded on her breast
Are clasped within those of the best,
While to us here she said "good-bye."

She's met with loved ones gone before,
From whom she ne'er will part no more.
With sister, father and mother,
How happy are they greet each other
In heaven! while here she said good-bye—

How we miss thee, dearest mother,
Thou hast left us for another
Home, where none is but peace and joy,
And where no fears can ever ally,
And yet, how hard today good-bye.

Yet ere long we hope to meet thee
On the "Shores of Eternity."
Where with friends we'll meet in gladness,
Where will come no tho't of sadness,
For in Heaven we'll never say good-bye.
L. M. J.

Letter to Furniture Dealer.

Tionesta, Pa.
Dear Sir: There are two sorts of furniture. You know both; for you sell 'em both. One sort looks better than it is, and the other is better than it looks. There isn't any other sort.
The same, two sorts of paint, no more; and we make 'em both—we make 'em both of stuff that is 't worth its freight. Belongs to the business—have to.
But this is aside. We put into cans, with our name on, the very best paint there is in the world: Devco lead and zinc. It is twice as good as lead and oil; lasts twice as long. And we take the risk of it—there isn't any risk.
Yours truly,
F. W. DEVOR & CO.
