CHICAGO, Nov. 1 .- As a result of his deal in pork here yesterday Sir Thomas Lipton is believed to have made $350,000. There were only 35,000 barrels of pork that could be delivered and the Englishman owned them all, as well as twice that number bought from people who did not have a barrel they could deliver.

When the price reached $16 some time ago the majority of shorts thought it time to buy some of the pork they had contracted to deliver at approximately $11 per barrel during October.

Numerous private settlements are said to have been made so that while bearish speculators in pork have received some painful financial inturies the wounds have not been mortal. A private settlement of 1,000 barrels was made near the end of the sustion. Lipton's representative allowing a belated short to take that amount at $13 a barrel, assuring the buyer that at the close the price would be $20. That he knew whereof he spoke was made plain to everybody later for as the closing bell sounded shorts were shouting bids of $20.
