

Published every Wednesday by J. E. WENK. Office in Smarbang & Wank Building, ELM STREET, TIONESTA, PA.

Terms, $1.00 A Year, Strictly in Advance. No subscription received for a shorter period than three months.

FOREST REPUBLICAN.

VOL. XXXIII. NO. 30. TIONESTA, PA., WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 7, 1900. $1.00 PER ANNUM.

RATES OF ADVERTISING:

One Square, one inch, one week... $ 1.00 One Square, one inch, one month... 3.00 One Square, one inch, 3 months... 5.00 One Square, one inch, one year... 10.00 Two Squares, one year... 15.00 Quarter Column, one year... 30.00 Half Column, one year... 50.00 One Column, one year... 100.00

We do fine Job Printing of every description at reasonable rates, but it's cash on delivery.

1900 NOVEMBER 1900

Calendar table for November 1900 with columns for Su, Mo, Tu, We, Th, Fri, Sat and rows for dates 4-30.

BOROUGH OFFICERS.

Member of Congress—J. K. P. Hall. Member of Senate—A. M. Neely. Assembly—Dr. S. S. Towler.

FOREST COUNTY OFFICERS.

Member of Congress—J. K. P. Hall. Member of Senate—A. M. Neely. Assembly—Dr. S. S. Towler.

REGULAR TERMS OF COURT.

Fourth Monday of February. Third Monday of May. Fourth Monday of September. Third Monday of November.

BUSINESS DIRECTORY.

TIONESTA LODGE, No. 309, E. O. U. F. Meets every Tuesday evening, in Odd Fellows' Hall, Partridge building. FOREST LODGE, No. 184, A. O. U. W. Meets every Friday evening in A. O. U. W. Hall, Tionesta.

INSURGENT REACTION.

Past Week Was Notable For Filipino Inactivity.

Music Used to Lure Americans—Native Chieftains Engaged Their Attention While Rebels Attacked Their Rear, Killing Two—Betting in Manila on Result of the Election.

MANILA, Nov. 5.—Last week was devoted to active scouting. The insurgents, having failed to crush a single garrison, are now experiencing a reaction.

Lieutenants Wilson and Dority of the Forty-fifth volunteer infantry, destroyed large stores of rice, four granaries and barracks near Bate.

Senor Guzman, representing the principal ex-insurgents in Manila has requested Judge Taft to forward to Washington, a signed expression of their loyalty. There is considerable excitement over the approaching election with a good deal of betting on the result.

PHILIPPINE CUSTOMS.

October Receipts Broke All Previous Records by Thousands.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6.—The war department yesterday made public the following cablegram from Judge Taft, president of the Philippine commission:

"Manila, Nov. 4. "Root, Washington. "Manila customs $1,088,000 Mexican; increase over previous month $150,000; total revenue $2,200,000; breaks record.

"TAFT."

MINE HORROR INQUEST.

Powder Was Exploded Intentionally or Accidentally by Persons Unknown.

PHILIPPI, V. Va., Nov. 6.—Coroner W. G. Keys held an inquest on the bodies of the victims of the mine explosion starting Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock and continuing without interruption till 5 o'clock yesterday morning.

Every disaster like this has its heroes. The hero of Berryburg is Marks, a man of 17 years of age. He had led the mine but a few moments when he saw the flash. He at once ran back to the mine and found his brother Ollie, the boss, who weighs over two hundred pounds and carried him out after tearing off his clothing which was blazing with fire.

The coroner's jury was out for an hour and a half and returned the following verdict: "We find that Charles Goff, Lewis Pack, W. A. Brown, Andrew Blackburn, J. I. Crawford, Nat Mosby, George Murphy, Richard Johnson, Lawrence A. Duncan and four others unknown and unidentified came to their death by an explosion on the night of Nov. 2, 1900, caused by the firing of powder, in a mine.

INSURE AGAINST STRIKES. Austrian and German Manufacturers Form Protective Association.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6.—A number of Austrian manufacturers have formed an association for insurance against strikes, according to United States Consul Hoesfeld, at Trieste. It is the object of the association to indemnify its members for all losses sustained by them from unjust strikes, which may break out in their respective establishments.

Each member is to pay a weekly premium equal to from 3 to 4 per cent of the amount of his payroll. When a strike occurs a committee will be appointed to investigate all the circumstances and if the cause of the strikers be found just no indemnity shall be paid.

A similar insurance association, although on a smaller scale, is said to have been organized in Germany. "Both the Austrian and German associations, it appears," says Consul Hoesfeld, "recognize in principle the justness of strikes, which is, in Germany, at least, an important concession to labor."

Grounded Steamers Floated. HAMBURG, Nov. 6.—The Hamburg-American line steamers Furst Bismarck, Captain Barends, due to sail on Nov. 7 hence for New York via Southampton and Cherbourg, and the Pretoria, Captain Callow, which had sailed hence for New York via Boulogne and Plymouth, reported Sunday grounded in the Elbe, but have been floated.

Grandson of President Adams Dead. QUINCY, Mass., Nov. 6.—Ysaac Hull Adams, a grandson of President John Adams and a nephew of President John Quincy Adams, died at his home here yesterday, aged 87 years. Mr. Adams was married. His father, Thomas Roylston Adams, was justice of the supreme court of Massachusetts from 1855 to 1869.

None Left: Rheumatic Aches, Head Ache or Lumbago, After Using WAND ELECTRIC OIL—25C It Removes Pimples and Makes the Skin soft and fine.

ALL DRUG STORES, or sent pre-paid. THE WANO CO., Warren, Pa.

DEVERY OUT ON BAIL.

Said That Indictment Is Void and Will Not Hold Water.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—Chief Devery who was indicted for alleged interference with Superintendent of Elections McCullagh was released in $1,000 bail. Assistant District Attorney O'Reilly, speaking for District Attorney Gardner, gave out the following statement:

"The indictment does not charge an overt act and without the commission of an overt act there could be no interference. The indictment will not hold water."

Chief Devery after giving bail made the following statement: "When I was sworn in as chief of police of New York city I swore that I would do my duty and protect the people of this city. I propose to do my duty toward the whole of the people here. I do not propose to be bulldozed. I am going to see that the people's rights are protected and that every one entitled to vote will be allowed to vote. I am going to see that the policemen in my charge are not bulldozed even by John McCullagh."

Mr. McCullagh refused to talk concerning the indictment. He said, however, that he was a witness before the grand jury yesterday.

The indictment against Chief Devery charges felony. It charges in part: "That he (Devery) did attempt willfully, knowingly and feloniously to hinder said John McCullagh in the performance of his duty as state superintendent of elections."

PUBLIC DEBT.

Decrease of $1,754,351 Effected During Month of October.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 2.—The monthly statement of the public debt shows that at the close of business Oct. 31, 1900, the debt, less cash in the treasury, amounted to $1,104,402,320, a decrease as compared with last month of $1,754,351. The debt is recapitulated as follows:

Interest bearing debts, $1,001,499,750; debt on which interest has ceased since maturity, $5,200,000; debt bearing no interest, $107,702,570; total, $1,114,402,320.

This amount, however, does not include $740,965,579 in certificates and treasury notes outstanding which are offset by an equal amount of cash on hand. The cash in the treasury is classified as follows:

Reserve fund, $150,000,000; trust funds, $740,965,579; general fund, $123,628,052; in national bank depositories to the credit of the treasurer of the United States, $89,818,485; to credit of disbursing officers, $5,659,688; total, $1,111,071,877, against which there are demand liabilities outstanding amounting to $324,066,544, which leaves a cash balance on hand of $887,005,332.

WASHINGTON SLAVE.

Dies at Homestead, L. I., at the Age of 123 Years.

HEMPSTEAD, L. I., Nov. 3.—George Washington Freeman Homer Green, a negro, died in the almshouse here on Wednesday at the reputed age of 123 years. Green always maintained that he was born Jan. 1, 1777, on a farm near Elizabethport, N. J., which was owned by a man named Freeman.

Green's parents were slaves, and when he was a boy sold to a Virginia planter named Homer, who afterwards sold him to General Washington. At Forest View, Green used to say, he spent the happiest days of his life. In 1812 Green was made a free negro, and coming to Long Island, entered the service of George Green, a wealthy farmer. He worked for Green 40 years, and when Green died the colored man worked for Sylvanus Carman of East Meadow. Fifteen years ago he became an inmate of the almshouse.

Green was married seven times and was the father of 37 children, most of whom are dead. He drank whiskey whenever he could get it and used tobacco constantly.

ALVORD'S POSSESSIONS.

Contents of His House Appraised at Only $5,438.00.

NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—The appraisers appointed to make an inventory of the contents of the house of Cornelius L. Alvord, National Bank of New York, have completed their work and appraised the value of them at $5,438.00.

Sheriff Molloy of Westchester county will summon sheriff's jury on Monday morning next to decide who own the property attached belongs. The Alvord residence is still in charge of deputy sheriffs.

Richest Man in Syracuse. De SYRACUSE, Nov. 2.—Jacob Crouse, regarded as the richest man in Syracuse, died at his home in this city yesterday afternoon. He was 78 years of age and had retired from active business except in the management of his real estate interests, which were the largest held by any Syracusean. His estate is estimated at about $5,000,000. Mr. Crouse was a Republican in politics, but never held but one office, alderman of his ward. He is survived by a widow and one son, Charles M., and a daughter, Mrs. Frank B. Klock.

Monthly Health Bulletin.

ALBANY, Nov. 3.—The health bulletin for the month of September, issued by the state board, shows that 10,251 deaths occurred, representing a death rate per 1,000 population of 16.5. Of this number 245 died from typhoid fever and 889 from consumption.

Plumbers Strike Compromised.

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 6.—The journeyman plumbers, who have been on a strike since Oct. 1, returned to work yesterday. The strike was compromised, both sides making concessions.

Dressing Fish in 1575.

Prepare fish after this sort: Set a good quantity of white strong vinegar and stale ale, with a cursey of salt, a little mint, origanum, parsley and rosemary, and when your liquor boileth fast upon the fire stop the mouth of your fish with a nutmeg thrust down into his throat and cast him skipping into the liquor, keeping him down till he be thorow dead and perfectly sodden. Dress pike, roches, carps, grillings, mullets and all great fish of the river in the like sort, for it will make them to eat pleasant, crisp, brittle and firm, not watrish and flabby, as most fish do, because we know not how to use and order them.—Dr. Thomas Moffett, 1575.

Well-known Missionary Dead.

BOSTON, Nov. 6.—Rev. Lafayette M. Gordon, D. D., a missionary of the American Board in Japan for 28 years, is dead. Dr. Gordon was born July 18, 1842, at Wainsburg, Pa. He served three years in the army from 1861 to 1864 in connection with a Pennsylvania regiment.

JONES CONFESSES ALL.

Saw Patrick Holding Saturated Sponge on Rice's Face.

Vallet of Dead Millionaire Tells of His Duplicitly, Saying Patrick Planned All the Details and Forced Him to Obey. Attempted Suicide at Patrick's Command, But Failed.

NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—The death of the wealthy William Marsh Rice at his Madison avenue apartments on Sept. 23; the attempt of his New York attorney, Albert T. Patrick, to cash checks for large amounts which purported to be signed by the millionaire; the refusal of one bank to cash the checks drawn on it and the discovery by the bank officials that Mr. Rice was lying dead at the time the checks were presented; the subsequent claim by Patrick that Mr. Rice had made him by will the trustee of his estate which amounts to anywhere from three to eight millions; the charge of forgery both as regards the checks and the will placed against Patrick and Mr. Rice's valet, Charles F. Jones; the arrest of Patrick and Jones and their lodgment in jail have kept the public interested for over a month in what, by the developments of yesterday, promises to become the most celebrated of the many celebrated crimes which the courts of this city have been called on to investigate.

The first incident which led up to yesterday's climax was the fact disclosed that Valet Jones had been taken to the district attorney's office and the subsequent rumor that he had made a confession to the authorities. Before the public had time to learn if the report of a confession was true came the more startling news that during the silent hours of the night Jones had in his cell in the Tombs attempted suicide by cutting his throat with a pen-knife.

The front engine was pushed over the ties some distance and was finally thrown sideways and overturned and the cars behind shoved into it.

and his fireman were thrown out, and before the rear engine was finally started by the wreck they were run over by the train. When the crew was able to get them out after was dead. His head and chest were crushed and both legs cut off. The fireman was badly, but not dangerously, injured.

KILLED IN WRECK.

Locomotive Engineer's Head and Chest Crushed in Duquesne.

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 6.—Harry P. Alter, a locomotive engineer on the U. S. railroad, was killed in a wreck in the yards of the Carnegie Steel company at Duquesne Sunday. He was in charge of a train of 30 cars, being hauled through the yards. Another engine, a pusher, was at the rear, and while rounding a curve Alter's engine jumped the track. The engineer in the rear could not see the forward end of the train and kept going ahead.

The front engine was pushed over the ties some distance and was finally thrown sideways and overturned and the cars behind shoved into it.

and his fireman were thrown out, and before the rear engine was finally started by the wreck they were run over by the train. When the crew was able to get them out after was dead. His head and chest were crushed and both legs cut off. The fireman was badly, but not dangerously, injured.

Coroner McGeary went to Duquesne and inquired into the accident in person. He did not ask for the name of the fireman nor the extent of his injuries when told they would not result fatally. Alter was married, 35 years old, and lived at Copeland Station on the Pennsylvania railroad. An inquest will be held.

Waylaid and Beaten.

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 6.—Charged with assault and battery William Smith, Albert Young, both of Mount Oliver, and Frederick Nils of South Eighteenth street were arrested and locked up in the police station on an information made by William Priest of Brownsville avenue.

Priest claims that the boys have harbored a grudge against his two sons for some time. On Wednesday night Priest says they assembled at the St. Nicholas cemetery. All were disguised in fancy dress costumes and waited for the approach of his sons, who would have to pass on their way home. Later the two Priest boys passed and the disguised lads jumped out of their hiding place and beat them. The assailants could not be located by the police until Sunday night when they were arrested.

Mob Hated the Town.

CONNELLSVILLE, Nov. 6.—After the Republican parade Saturday night and till late next morning Connelleville was in the hands of a mob. Fights were so numerous that all track of their number was lost.

David Harris, colored, it is alleged, slashed another man on the thigh. Benjamin Williams is charged with attempting to shoot Ernest Trump A. Stoddard woman was run over by a buggy and seriously injured. Michael Coyne was struck with a stone, and John Staley was gashed with a bottle. Many other injuries were reported.

Mysterious Death.

JOHNSTOWN, Nov. 6.—Considerable mystery attaches to the death at Lilly last Thursday night of George Chamberlain of Bens Creek. Chamberlain was at Lilly that night and attended a Democratic meeting, taking part in a parade. He had a gun, which he said he was about to sell to a foreigner in the lower part of Lilly. Later he was seen in the lower section of the village with the gun.

Shortly after midnight Chamberlain's body was found on the railroad tracks, cut to pieces. His hat, coat and gun are missing. Chamberlain leaves a wife and five small children in destitute circumstances. He was about 35 years old.

Skull Fractured at Football.

EASTON, Pa., Nov. 3.—Charles Schmidt, who graduated last June at Lafayette college, is at the hospital here with his skull fractured. He was brought from Nazareth, where he was injured while playing with the Nazareth school team against the Lafayette freshmen football team Wednesday.

B. & O. E. Killed.

CUMBERLAND, Md., Nov. 6.—John Foust, a Baltimore and Ohio engineer, fell under the wheels of an approach engine while stepping from the pilot of his own locomotive to open a switch near the East End tunnel, and was crushed to death.

ITEMS IN BRIEF.

UNIONTOWN—James B. Sterling, a wealthy farmer, sued the Fayette Gas Fuel company to recover $1,100 alleged to be due for unpaid rentals.

WASHINGTON, Pa. A cigar box containing a large sum of money was stolen of Joseph Camella, the thieves covering their escape with revolvers.

PRIZES AWARDED.

Paris Artist Carried Off First Honors at Carnegie Art Gallery.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Nov. 3.—One of the most important events of the art year in America, the award of prizes at the international exhibition of paintings in the Carnegie Art Gallery, took place here Thursday. The award was part of the "Founder's Day" exercises.

When the names of the prize winning pictures were announced it was found that the first award, gold medal and $500 in cash, had gone to A. Daubigny, of Paris, for "The Kelp Gatherers." The second, silver medal and $1,000, was made to Ben Foster, of New York, for his "Misty Moonlight Night." The third award, bronze medal and $500, went to Sergeant Kendall, for "The End of the Day," the same picture which he has exhibited in New York, and which received much praise there.

Honorable mention was received by Robert W. Allen, London, "Waterfall in Winter," W. Elmer Schofield, Oponitz, Pa., "Twilight."

The awards were made by an international art jury, composed of Frank Weston Benson, Salem, Mass.; Kenyon Cox, New York; Thomas H. Davis, Boston; Thomas Eakins, Philadelphia; John I. Enneking, Boston; Frederick W. Freer, Chicago; Thomas A. Harrison, Paris; Eugene A. Poole, Pittsburg; Frederick P. Vinton, Bangor, Me.; and Anders L. Zorn, Sweden.

In the evening Victor Herbert gave a concert with the Pittsburg Symphony Orchestra.

LOCOMOTIVE ENGINEER'S HEAD AND CHEST CRUSHED IN DUQUESNE.

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 6.—Harry P. Alter, a locomotive engineer on the U. S. railroad, was killed in a wreck in the yards of the Carnegie Steel company at Duquesne Sunday. He was in charge of a train of 30 cars, being hauled through the yards. Another engine, a pusher, was at the rear, and while rounding a curve Alter's engine jumped the track. The engineer in the rear could not see the forward end of the train and kept going ahead.

The front engine was pushed over the ties some distance and was finally thrown sideways and overturned and the cars behind shoved into it.

and his fireman were thrown out, and before the rear engine was finally started by the wreck they were run over by the train. When the crew was able to get them out after was dead. His head and chest were crushed and both legs cut off. The fireman was badly, but not dangerously, injured.

Coroner McGeary went to Duquesne and inquired into the accident in person. He did not ask for the name of the fireman nor the extent of his injuries when told they would not result fatally. Alter was married, 35 years old, and lived at Copeland Station on the Pennsylvania railroad. An inquest will be held.

Waylaid and Beaten.

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 6.—Charged with assault and battery William Smith, Albert Young, both of Mount Oliver, and Frederick Nils of South Eighteenth street were arrested and locked up in the police station on an information made by William Priest of Brownsville avenue.

Priest claims that the boys have harbored a grudge against his two sons for some time. On Wednesday night Priest says they assembled at the St. Nicholas cemetery. All were disguised in fancy dress costumes and waited for the approach of his sons, who would have to pass on their way home. Later the two Priest boys passed and the disguised lads jumped out of their hiding place and beat them. The assailants could not be located by the police until Sunday night when they were arrested.

Mob Hated the Town.

CONNELLSVILLE, Nov. 6.—After the Republican parade Saturday night and till late next morning Connelleville was in the hands of a mob. Fights were so numerous that all track of their number was lost.

David Harris, colored, it is alleged, slashed another man on the thigh. Benjamin Williams is charged with attempting to shoot Ernest Trump A. Stoddard woman was run over by a buggy and seriously injured. Michael Coyne was struck with a stone, and John Staley was gashed with a bottle. Many other injuries were reported.

Mysterious Death.

JOHNSTOWN, Nov. 6.—Considerable mystery attaches to the death at Lilly last Thursday night of George Chamberlain of Bens Creek. Chamberlain was at Lilly that night and attended a Democratic meeting, taking part in a parade. He had a gun, which he said he was about to sell to a foreigner in the lower part of Lilly. Later he was seen in the lower section of the village with the gun.

Shortly after midnight Chamberlain's body was found on the railroad tracks, cut to pieces. His hat, coat and gun are missing. Chamberlain leaves a wife and five small children in destitute circumstances. He was about 35 years old.

Skull Fractured at Football.

EASTON, Pa., Nov. 3.—Charles Schmidt, who graduated last June at Lafayette college, is at the hospital here with his skull fractured. He was brought from Nazareth, where he was injured while playing with the Nazareth school team against the Lafayette freshmen football team Wednesday.

B. & O. E. Killed.

CUMBERLAND, Md., Nov. 6.—John Foust, a Baltimore and Ohio engineer, fell under the wheels of an approach engine while stepping from the pilot of his own locomotive to open a switch near the East End tunnel, and was crushed to death.

ITEMS IN BRIEF.

UNIONTOWN—James B. Sterling, a wealthy farmer, sued the Fayette Gas Fuel company to recover $1,100 alleged to be due for unpaid rentals.

WASHINGTON, Pa. A cigar box containing a large sum of money was stolen of Joseph Camella, the thieves covering their escape with revolvers.

BRIEF NEWS ITEMS.

Pointed Paragraphs Chronicling the Week's Doings.

Long Dispatches From Various Parts of the World Shown of Their Paddings and Only the Facts Given in a Few Words as Possible For the Benefit of the Hurrled Reader.

Seven people killed in a wreck on the Northern Pacific railroad at De Hart, Montana.

Charles T. Yerkes begins the excavating work on his underground railway scheme in London.

Five children left alone in a hut at Egg East Lake, Manitoba, burned to death.

Marcus Earle, a well-known Adirondack guide, is mistaken for a deer by a hunter and killed.

Abram Jago, of Auburn, N. Y., attempts to kill his wife and then draws a razor across his throat. Neither he nor his intended victim will die.

THURSDAY.

Dock caves in at Buffalo, N. Y., carrying with it many tons of iron ore and three valuable electric hoists, entailing a total loss that will not be less than $100,000.

Two men seriously injured by the premature explosion of a campaign cannon at Buffalo, N. Y. One's hand was blown off, while the other will suffer the loss of one or both of his eyes.

Ex-Congressman Buchanan of New Jersey dies.

France and Belgium enter into alliance to protect their mutual interests in China.

British have surrounded Bloemfontein to prevent all Boers over 14 years of age from joining the commandoes.

Several bands of Carlists appear near Barcelona and more evidence of Carlist activity are cropping out. The Madrid government sends soldiers to the various towns where the Carlists are expected to gather.

FRIDAY.

George Gould is appointed trustee to administer the income and fortune of his sister, Countess De Castellane, whose husband, Count Boni, has spent about $5,000,000 in four years.

Two Utica (N. Y.) students at a New York college find themselves in trouble, having registered illegally in that city.

Clark tunnel miners who struck because they were compelled to work under an objectionable boss, gain their point and return to work, the boss being discharged.

Anti-tax riots in Roumania result in the killing by peasants of two collectors and eight soldiers.

Spanish troops sent after Carlists near Berge, large numbers having been reported from there.

Commandant General Botha, with a large force of Boers, marches to invade Cape Colony.

SAUNDAY.

Alfred Friedland, a trusted employee of Eldridge T. Gerry, is found drowned in a small lake near Delhi, N. Y.

General Leonard Wood leaves for Havana.

Stanley Waterloo, the well-known author, files a petition in bankruptcy.

Man arrested at Chicago for throwing an egg at Bryan, which, however did not hit him.

Ray Cooley killed at Carthage, N. Y., while jumping from a train.

Big printing house of W. L. Raeder at Wilkes-Barre, Pa., destroyed by fire; also the plant of the Chipper Chilled Flour company at Elmira, N. Y.

Work of searching for bodies in the Tarrant fire ruins continues, though no more bodies are recovered.

Saratoga race track, the oldest race course in the country, sold to a syndicate headed by W. C. Whitney.

MONDAY.

J. Lewis, a prominent farmer of Lambeth, Ont., shot his wife twice in the head, then turned the revolver on himself and fell dead. Mrs. Lewis may recover.

Official reports show the grain has been completely burned up by the drought in portions of Siberia. The fields have not been harvested and are used for pasturage.

Russian grain exports to November amounted to $1,000,000, as against 217,000,000 pound for the same period of 1899 and 317,000,000 pound in 1898.

The last of the plague sufferers has been dismissed from the hospital at Glasgow.

A German army paymaster named Wild, at Darmstadt, has fled. Large defalcations in his accounts have been discovered.

Motion for a new trial has been filed by Murderer Ferrell's attorneys, at Marysville, O., on the ground that one of the jurors said Ferrell was guilty and his life was no better than Lane's, his victim.

Latest reports from the mine disaster at Berryburg, W. Va., show that 13 are dead and three dying.

Evidence found in letters from Assassins Bresel to his wife that she knew of the plot to kill King Humbert.

Two men fight to the dizzy height of 212 feet at the Pan-American exposition grounds at Buffalo one being forced in a dangerous position from which he was rescued by the other.