

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 14.

The fall is the best time of the year to paint—especially this fall. Painters can tell you why it is best time of year to get best results from the paint. We can tell you why this fall is the time to get best value for your money. During the spring and summer we bought a large quantity of prepared paints. Within the past ten days all paint manufacturers have notified their customers that the price of paints had been increased 10 to 15c, per gallon owing to the failure of the flaxseed, crop and other causes. This means an increase of 15 to 25c per gallon to the consumer. As long as they last we will sell paints at the old price. If you intend to paint within a year it will pay you well to buy before the advanced prices rule.

The first snow of the season to amount to anything fell last Thursday night, about four inches of it. Back on the hills it laid till Monday. The Emery avalanche in McKean county carried with it the two Republican legislative nominees who were defeated by about the Emery majority.

Following is a list of letters remaining uncalled for in the Tionesta, Pa., post-office for the week ending Nov. 14, 1900: Mr. Ed. Baly. D. S. Knox, P. M. Nothing any better than good buckwheat cakes these frosty mornings. Farmers, bring in your buckwheat and get your cash. LAMMERS BROS.

It is scarcely necessary to call attention to the broad-gauge ad. of the Tionesta Cash Store on page four of to-day's REPUBLICAN. The "card" speaks for itself. Now is the time to advertise.

Court convenes next week for the trial of civil and criminal causes. The civil list is not so large, and the criminal business will amount to little or nothing, the grand jury having been notified not to appear.

A recount of the votes cast in the Second ward of Titusville was made at Meadville Friday. By this count Ray, Republican, who entered the ward eleven votes ahead of Wilson, Democrat, is defeated by three votes. This elects all three of the Democrat-Populist Representatives in Crawford county.

The Masonic lodge of this place initiated a number of members Monday evening and after the ceremony the brethren enjoyed an appetizing oyster supper at the Central House. Members from out of town who assisted in the work were C. E. Cooper and Wm. Y. Hill, of Oil City; E. P. Bennett, of Titusville, and L. H. Irwin, of Rousseville.

Wm. Sligo, a lifelong resident of near Newmansville, Clarion county, died at the home of his brother, George, on the 6th inst. He was aged about 50 years, and had been troubled for some months with a dropsical affection. His remains were interred in the burying ground near Wolf's Corners, the funeral being held on Wednesday last.

See here, Mr. Farmer, says a farm exchange: You are doing using those plows, harrows, cultivators, hoes, rollers, binders, mowers, and some of your other machines, and you will not need them again for several months, but you will need them again, so we want you and the hired man and the boys to see that they are all under shelter, where the roof does not leak, and the snow does not blow through.

It is incontestable that the intellect of our country is fast being represented by our daughters. The last report of the Superintendent of Public Instruction of Pennsylvania is significant. It shows the number of high school graduates in this state for the year 1899 to have been 3475, of which 2,122 were girls—or nearly twice as many girls as boys who pursue the public high school course. The majority of teachers in the state are women.

A well known writer on hygiene condemns the habit of indiscriminate kissing and says the proper way to give a kiss is to press your lips lightly, but firmly, against the cheek and let them rest there for an instant. There must not be anything suggestive of a "smack." Which inspires the epistle of the Oil City Blizzard to accord this profound kick: "There musn't eh! Well, if that isn't about the silliest fol de rol we have seen in some time."

Mrs. Nicholas Lawson died at her home at Eagle Rock Saturday morning. Her death was caused by a complication of diseases and she had been an invalid for twelve years past. Besides her aged husband she leaves three sons and four daughters, who are well known and have many friends in Tionesta. Mrs. Lawson was a native of Sweden, but had lived in this country for many years. She was aged about 67 years. The interment was in the cemetery at Tidouote.

Indiscriminate banging at anything and in any direction came near costing Ralph, eldest son of Treasurer Henry, an eye last Saturday. He was in the woods with some other boys hunting, and when a pheasant flew up some one near the boys fired. One of the pellets struck Ralph on the nose directly between the eyes and imbedded itself so deeply that it could not be extracted without considerable danger. Another pellet struck Nelson Russell on the fleshy part of the hand but "didn't hurt much." The boys say they don't know who fired the shot, but it was quite likely one of their own crowd that had gotten strayed a few rods from his companions. With so many boys in the woods ranging in age all the way from 9 years up, and provided with every description of fire-arms, it is a wonder we haven't had a whole lot of accidents to record since the hunting season opened.

An Opinion on the Curfew. There having been some talk of adopting the Curfew in Tionesta, we print by request the following from the annual message of Mayor McCrum, of Titusville, on the question: "The Curfew Ordinance at the time of passage was considered by many as a doubtful experiment, but I believe it now has the endorsement and support of the entire community. No harsh means have been required to enforce it, and the parents of our young rising generation cannot but see the good resulting from it to their children."
