

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 9.

The Christmas trade this year was phenomenal, every merchant doing a larger business than he did the year previous, which up to that time was a record breaker.

Sundries in this case means combs and brushes, toilet accessories, pocket books, fine stationery, perfumery, books, toys, etc., and the famous LOWNEY candies.

J. E. Jones the blind evangelist of Franklin, Pa., is conducting services at the White Church, Stewart Run, this week. He will sing several salvation songs next Sunday evening. All are cordially invited.

There will be a special meeting of the Woman's Relief Corps, at their hall at 2 o'clock this Wednesday afternoon, for the purpose of installing the remaining officers of the Corps. A full attendance is desired.

There's a heap of sickness of the type akin to grip prowling around this section just now, about every other person you meet having a touch of it; the severity of the touch being generally measured by the size of the grovel.

The ice harvest was begun the first of the week in this place and a good quantity and a very fine quality has already been hauled. Wise is the man who puts up ice when it's to be had, for verily it is as uncertain as an insurgent.

The dwelling occupied by Mr. Swanson, and situated near the railroad track a mile above town, took fire last Saturday afternoon and burned a considerable hole in the roof near the chimney before it could be extinguished. The damage was slight.

The borough council has passed finally the curfew ordinance which has been approved by Burgess Ritchey, and is to take effect February first. The official document is published in this issue so that all may read and know its import. Get ready to "turn in" after 8 o'clock, boys, for "curfew will ring" sure.

The Supreme court refused the petition for an allowance of an appeal from the Superior court to the Supreme court in the case of Proper, use of Donit vs. Campbell, administrator of Peters, which was carried up from this county some ago.

Messrs. Bell & Graybill have been so rushed with orders at their hub factory at Marionville that they have started another plant at Bowmanville, where they have a large amount of good timber to work up, enough to keep them running for several years.

The many friends of ex-Judge Edward Kerr of Barnett township will be pained to learn of his serious illness from stomach trouble. The Judge is one of our oldest and most highly respected citizens, and we all hope his illness may not be as serious as reported, and that he may be spared yet many years.

Prof. Coles, the stormy weather man of Kirgston, claims to have discovered that there has been a great mistake in our enumeration of time, and that we are really a hundred years ahead on the calendar. That is, instead of writing the year 1901 now we ought to be writing the year 1801. This will help out a great many prophets who were calculating on the end of the world coming with the close of the nineteenth century.

The Tidoute News celebrated the new century by a complete change of make-up—from a folio to a quarto form—and, while it don't look like the old familiar face we were wont to see each week, the change is quite an improvement in many respects, not the least of which is the additional advertising space which Bro. White finds necessary in his increasing business. Continued success to you, Charles.

James Landers has hit upon the proper card to make a little profit during the dull season in lumber and lath. He has procured an ice plover, built a slide and elevator up near the creek bridge, and is putting a splendid quality of eight-inch ice out on the bank for those who want it at the rate of 40 cents per ton. The scheme works well and our citizens are getting up a fine crop of the stuff at a considerably reduced price from former years.

The year 1901 comprises the latter part of the 125th and the beginning of the 126th year of American Independence, and corresponds to the year 6014 of the Julian Period; the year 5901-952 of the Jewish Era; the 2054 since the foundation of Rome according to Varro; the year 2961 of the Japanese Era; and to the thirty-fourth year of the period entitled "Meiji." The year 1319 of the Mohammedan Era begins on the 23rd of April, 1901. The first day of January is 2,415,293 day since the commencement of the Julian period. In the year 1901 there will be two eclipses of the sun, one of the moon and a Lunar Apse, none of which will be visible in America.

That was a very happy company which assembled at Corps Hall last Wednesday evening to witness the joint installation of Relief Corps and Snow Post officers, and to partake of the splendid banquet provided by the ladies of the Corps. Many and interesting were the speeches listened to at the campfire held after the exercises and luncheon were disposed of, and the large gathering dispersed at a late hour with pleasant memories of the delightful occasion.

These annual events are among the most satisfying and enjoyable of all the social functions of the year, and the fellow who is lucky enough to get a "bid" to one of them never lets anything but the direst indisposition interfere with his attendance. The pretty exercises of installation were performed with precision and grace, eliciting favorable comment from all the guests of the two excellent orders. A list of the officers was published heretofore.

Sheriff Jamieson returned last Saturday from the Pennsylvania Reform School at Mo'ganza, whither he had conveyed young Fred Copeland of Stewart Run, recently sentenced for an indefinite period by Justice Randall on the charge of incontinability and vicious conduct, preferred by his father, Rufus Copeland. The young man is just past 17 years of age, and despite the good example and careful training of his Christian parents seemed determined to be bad. The evening before Christmas he had managed, with some other boys, to procure a quantity of whiskey and became badly intoxicated. The bottle was taken from him, but next day he demanded his return, which of course was refused. An altercation ensued, and in the mix the young man, who had gotten possession of a revolver, fired twice but fortunately hitting no one. The grieving father found there was no other remedy, and so had the boy dealt with as above. In the hope that a term in this model institution will bring him to a realization of his waywardness.

Please Note. Having disposed of our mercantile business in Tionesta to Messrs. Heath & Felt, we ask those having unsettled accounts with us to call and adjust the same. Our books will be kept at the store for a short time for this purpose. LAWRENCE & SIMKINSON, January 8, 1901.

—The Republican joins the many friends of the happy young couple in congratulations and best wishes to Mr. and Mrs. David Blum, upon the event of their marriage last Thursday evening. May they live long and be ever prosperous and very happy.

Adam Stille of German Hill made his annual call at the Republican office last Friday to square up for the first year of the new century. Adam, of course, is older than one than one year, we are glad to say, but he never misses his visit about this time of the season.

Miss Maude E., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Canfield, entertained fifty-three of her young schoolmates at the home of her sister, Mrs. G. T. Anderson, from 7 till 9:30 on New Year's night, it being her eleventh birthday. Elegant refreshments were served during the evening, and many beautiful presents were left to remind her of this happy gathering.

Livery Barn Burned.

The Oram & Urey livery barn in rear of Hotel Agnew was partially destroyed by fire last Wednesday afternoon. A load of hay had been driven into the barn, the team unhitched, and Mr. Oram and his young helper had just begun to unload the hay, when a lighted gas torch came in contact with the inflammable substance and almost instantly the entire inside of the building was on fire. The horses and live-stock were in the basement and were quickly taken out, but so rapid and furious was the spread of the fire that only a few of the vehicles were saved. Two streams of water were soon playing on the burning building, and strange to say, succeeded in extinguishing the flames after more than an hour's hard and persistent work, but the building above the ground floor is practically worthless.

The loss to Messrs. Oram & Urey in feed, buggies, sleighs, harness, robes, etc., fells up over $1,400, but this is fully covered by insurance through the Turner Bros. agency of Marionville, they having policies to the amount of $1,600 on the property. The barn is the property of L. Agnew on which he has an insurance of $100 through the Mitchell agency at Warren. This amount will not more than half reach the amount of loss. W. A. Gorce boarded his driving team at the livery, and lost his handsome new surry and a set of new double harness. He had no insurance on these.

Messrs. Oram & Urey are still doing business at the old stand, and expect soon to be in as good condition to accommodate their customers as heretofore.

There's a chance for some one to get a bargain in a set of the new "National Dictionary Encyclopedia and Atlas" by calling at this office. The set is fresh from the publishers, and contains 18 volumes. Drop in and see what a bargain you can secure.

J. W. Burton of this place is in receipt of a letter from his son Clarence, in which was a clipping from a San Francisco sporting paper, where he is now located. The clipping says, "for the information of those who keep a tab on the jockies, there seems to be only about five in that set-on word considering. These are O'Connor, Coburn, Donielok Monroe and Burton. Of these O'Connor is the pick, though Eason is a most promising lad. He can ride at about 70 pounds, and can put up a "snatch" as strong as any of them. He is the coming light weight, positively, and would be a good acquisition to a big eastern stable. He is under contract, but will on the market if sufficient inducement were offered for his services. He rode "Gold Ore" a mile in 1:49, and that with five ounces and forty to one against him. He is a boy of remarkable intelligence and a natural rider, none of the jockies being able to out-general him at the post. The young man's Tionesta friends will be pleased to hear of his success.

Free of Charge. Any adult suffering from a cold settled on the breast, bronchitis, throat or lung troubles of any nature, who will call on J. D. Davis, will be presented with a sample bottle of Boschee's German Syrup free of charge. Only one bottle given to one person, and none to children without order from parents.

No throat or lung remedy ever had such a sale as Boschee's German Syrup in all parts of the civilized world. Twenty years ago millions of bottles were given away, and your druggists will tell you its success was marvellous. It is really the only Throat and Lung Remedy generally endorsed by physicians, one 75 cent bottle will cure or prove its value. Sold by dealers in all civilized countries.
