WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 13.

The Christmas trade this year was phenomenal, every merchant doing a larger business than he did the year previous, which up to that time was a record breaker. But Christmas buying is only an incident of business. It is your -every-day trade of the rest of the year that counts. That is what we want to get and shall continue to offer you the very best service and prices possible in our line which is DRUGS, MEDICINES and Sundries, exclusively.

Sundries in this case means combs and brushes, toilet accessories, pocket books, fine stationery, perfumery, books, toys, etc., and the famous LOWNEY candies.

Stock Taking Price Reductions.

Balance of the month will be devoted to stock taking here—we have already thrown out on the counters quite a lot of merchandise that we positively will not take into stock—rather have the money. So there's a card on each lot of goods to be sold with a "Stock Taking price" that really, in many in-tances, is less than cost.

SILK WAISTS. Made the assertion in these columns last week that we'd sell every Waist in this stock before Stock Taxing—this claim bids fair to be realized—never experienced such waist selling—Some women buy as many as three or four.
