Thursday afternoon last the Braver Whig Hill and Town Line Valley, schools met at the last named school house to honor the name of our great and good George Washington. Not the schools alone, but the aged and middleaged were there to encourage by their words and presence, the young Amerians. A considerable number of the old comrades of Eli Berlin Post were present to participate in honoring the father of our great country. The singing of patriotic songs, diaogues and recitations were beautifully executed by the schools, illustrating the talent and patriotic energy of the teachers. Rounds of applause followed the many acts, recitations, etc. Town line school executed a manual frill so perfectly that the house went off a perfect storm of applause. After the exercises by the schools the visitors were called upon to make some remarks. Comrade Stoughton was first and opened the way by saying he could not make a speech, but before he sat lown he convinced the people that he was not a judge of speech making, or for the moment he lost sight of the one great principle for which "George" was noted, Comrade J. Albaugh was then called upon. He responded in a twenty minite talk and although suffering from the ffects of the grip he was listened to with marked attention, dropping mony grand thoughts for the boys and girls, He paid a glowing tribute to the educational system of our corntry and urging us on
