

The Christmas trade this year was phenomenal, every merchant doing a larger business than he did the year previous, which up to that time was a record breaker. But Christmas buying is only an incident of business. It is your every-day trade of the rest of the year that counts. That is what we want to get and shall continue to offer you the very best service and prices possible in our line which is DRUGS, MEDICINES and Sundries, exclusively.

Sundries in this case means combs and brushes, toilet accessories, pocket books, fine stationery, perfumery, books, toys, etc., and the famous LOWNEY candies.

-An exchange very truthfully says: that a man who stops advertising is forgotten as soon as a man who stops living; and the rapidly with which the forgetting business gets in its work after we are out of sight and the insurance collected, is what makes some of us want to live a thousand years. Life is something, however, we cannot control, that is as far as keeping it going is concerned. But the power is within our hands to keep our advertising going, and just in proportion as we keep it going it will keep us going.

-Rev. W. P. Murray's lecture on Abraham Lincoln at Bovard's hall Monday evening was attended by a crowded house, and if expressions count for anything, a decidedly well pleased audience. The large assemblage showed a marked interest from beginning to end in the speaker's eloquent eulogy on the great emancipator, and many pronounced it the best lecture they had listened to in years. Mr. Murray could draw double the crowd were he to repeat the lecture here and were it possible to secure a larger auditorium.
-John A. Stewart, well known to many of Forest county's citizens, died at the home of his brother, A. A. Stewart of Cherrytree township, Venango county last Friday, 23d inst., from the effects of grip. Mr. Stewart was well up in the 70's, and was one of the well-known lumbermen and river pilots of this section for many years, having lumbered quite extensively in this county in the early days. He was a thoroughly honest man in all his dealings, and had the full confidence of his fellowmen. Funeral services were held in the Presbyterian church at Cherrytree Monday of this week.

Meader-Weingard Nuptials.

A very pleasant event took place Thursday, Feb. 21, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Weingard of German Hill, at which time their daughter was given in marriage to Mr. George Meader of Tionesta. The occasion was a very pleasant one, there were about 50 guests present. The marriage was solemnized at 12 o'clock, the ceremony being performed by the Rev. C. A. Rheil, former pastor of the Lutheran church of that place. The ring ceremony was employed and was conducted beneath fastidious coverings. The bridal party entered the parlor to the strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March.
Miss Emma Weingard, sister of the bride, acted as bridesmaid and Mr. H. M. McAndrews, of Tionesta, as best man. The bride was dressed in white albatross, wore a bridal veil, and carried white bride's roses. The bridesmaid wore a gown of pink cashmere. The young couple received many pretty and useful gifts. After the wedding dinner Mr. Meader and his bride left for a short wedding trip after which they will make their home in Tionesta. This occasion was especially interesting in that it was also the celebration of the 50th anniversary of the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Deikrager, grandparents of the bride, who also received congratulations from all present. Mr. and Mrs. Deikrager have for the past 40 years lived on German Hill, where they have always been held in the highest esteem. Both couples have the best wishes of their many friends.
The personnel of the wedding party who accompanied the groom from Tionesta and who stopped at the Central Hotel here for supper were his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Meader, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Jacobson, and Mr. and Mrs. Emory Meader.

SANNER.

John Sanner, one of the aged citizens of Tionesta, died at his home on Monday, Feb. 25, 1901, at the age of 71 years, after an illness of about four weeks of grip. The deceased was born at Sunbury, Pa., Sept. 1, 1829. Moving to Crawford county, he was united in marriage with Miss Debbie Turner of Cochran, Pa., Nov. 30, 1848, and there resided for a number of years. A considerable portion of his life was spent on Oil Creek, where he was during the stirring times of the oil excitement of the early 60's. In April, 1881, he moved with his family to Tionesta where they have continued to reside ever since. Besides the aged wife five children survive, namely: William of Colorado City, Colo., James of Ohio, Smith of Chipmunk, N. Y., Edward of Tionesta, and Mrs. Hattie Sible of German Hill.
Mr. Sanner was one of Tionesta's quiet, industrious citizens, highly respected and esteemed by all who knew him. He was one of the charter members of Lodge No. 7, A. O. U. W., and was a member in good standing of that order in Tionesta at the time of his death. The funeral services will take place at his late residence this afternoon at 1:30 o'clock, conducted by Rev. Mrs. Hannah Louise, wife of W. C. Bromley, died suddenly at the family home, Marston block, Main street, Oil City, Pa., at 7:45 o'clock on Sunday night last. The deceased had been ailing for the past two years, but seemed to be in fair general health until Saturday night, when she grew so sick that a physician was called and found symptoms of apoplexy. She grew weaker steadily until death resulted at the hour noted.
Mrs. Bromley was born in Mercer county July 22, 1849, and for some time previous to her removal to Oil City, 11 years ago, she made her home at Stewart's Run, Forest county, and was a member of the M. We're Champions of Quality

While others talk price, we talk quality and price. Our position is this: A man may forget what he paid for his clothes, but never how they looked, fitted and wore. "Lammers" clothing is the safe middle ground. It saves a man paying made to order price, and the unhappiness of wearing ordinary ready-made. It is the cheapest clothing to buy because it will outlast any other at the same price—suit or overcoat—and looks well all the time it is being worn. In a nutshell, when you buy "Lammers" clothing, you get a quality of fabric and workmanship, an individuality of style and an exactness of fit, with which only the handwork of the best merchant tailors is comparable—all at the ready-made price.
