The wholesale falsehoods told in certain American newspapers about the terrible hardships of the tariff on the people of the island and their great indignation against it are now shown in their true light by the action of the Porto Rico Legislature. While it had the power it never for one moment considered a proposition to repeal the tarifflaw.

From Foreign Lands.

All day Feb. 10th we sailed the Med

lterranean. Toward night the shores of Africa appeared, I was awakened at daylight by an infinite clatter, the running of ropes and pulleys, etc. I went or deck and saw before me the city of Algiers, covering the slopes of a semi-circle range of hills, thousands of its Arab population squirming about on the quay in front of the city and hundreds offnear vessels loading or unloading all sorts of merchaudise. After breakfast we has tened ashore and passing through masses of half-dressed and awful dirty Arabs we found the carriage stand and getting on four wheels drove up a broad incline to the elevated boulevard and then through the city to the suburbs. My preconcieved idea of Algiers had to be changed as soon as I saw the city. It is now on its main street practically a French city, Governor was fully justified. Now the business blocks. Trolly cars, American make run to all principal points. Every where French is spoken and the first day I was with a fellow passenger who could talk French, so we had no trouble. But the next day I tried it alone. I got on a street car and they asked me in French where I wanted to go. I wanted to go to the end of the line, but I could not make him understand. I gave them ten centimes and the conductor gave me a paper with the names of two streets checked off: the place I started from and the place my ten centimes would take me o. when we come there I wanted to pay nore and stay on, but they could not understand so I was put off. I got on the next car and had the same trouble. I saw a sign "English Tailors," and went in out not a word of English could they talk. I had some buttons sewed on my coat for which they refused to take anything, but this was only a bluff as they expected to get more thereby than if they had set a price. Algiers is one of the most wonderful cities of the world. At one time it was a grand rendesvous for outcasts and criminals from all over the world, and its government was an organized piracy that preyed upon the commerce of Europe. At one time it had about 30,000 white Christians in slavery. In the year 1816 an English general, Lord Exmouth, de--All grades of carpets to choose from at stroyed their navy and in 1830 the French captured their city and country, which it still retains. The men wear long cleaks with hoods attached. These cloaks reach to the knees or a little below. Their legs are bare, but they keep their heads covered with the hood. One mosque we entered was a large one and upon the holy carpet which covered the floor were probably three hunded Moslems at prayer. They were prostrat-

Yes, August Flower still has the largest sale of any medicine in the civilized world. Your mothers and grand mothers never thought of using anything else for Indigestion or Billionsness, Doctors were scarce, and they seldom heard of appendicitis, nervous prostration, or heart failure, etc. They used August Flower to clean out the system and stop fermentation of undigested food, regulate the action of the liver, stimulate th nervous and organic action of the system, and that is all they took when feeling dull and bad with headaches and other aches. You only need a few doses of Green's August Flower' in liquid form, to make you satisfied there is nothing the matter with you. Get Green's Prize Almanac at The Davis Phaamacy, Tionesta.
