OUT IN KANSAS. All one needs to start a drug store is a barrel of whiskey and a pair of show bottles filled with colored water. This isn't a Kansas drug store. We don't keep whiskey and have no show bottles, but if you want anything that ought to be found in a first class pharmacy, this is the place to come.

All $1.00 patent medicines sell at 89 cents and other articles at relatively low prices.

The dancing club held a very enjoyable party at Boyd's hall last evening. The Fessenden orchestra of Oil City, furnished the music and supper was served at Hotel Weaver.

—And now the voice of the peep-frog is heard in the swamps. This is the dead sure "harbinger," and after his music has been three times interrupted by frost, then look out for spring.

—Following is the list of letters remaining uncalled for in the Tionesta, Pa., post-office for the week ending Mar. 27, 1901: Mrs. Frances L. Diker, Jas. J. Forester, D. S. Knox, P. M.

—The Ladies' Aid Society of the M. E. church will give a warm maple sugar supper in the Lanson building this Wednesday evening, commencing to serve at 5:30 o'clock. Price, twenty-five cents.

—Rev. John Yonkers will preach in Mt. Zion Lutheran church, German Hill, next Sabbath morning at 10 o'clock, and on the following Sabbath, Easter, at the same hour. All are cordially invited.

—There will be held in the Methodist Episcopal church at Tionesta a series of Gospel Meetings beginning April 1st and continuing through the month. Robt. L. Jones, Evangelist, of Jamestown, N. Y., will assist the pastor.

—An artistic and very sensibly gotten up calendar is one sent out by the Standard Air Line Railway. It can be had by addressing R. E. L. Bunch, Gen. Passenger Agent, Portsmouth, Va., and it is worth your while to secure a copy.

—Our job department is as well equipped with the latest fashions of type as that of any in this vicinity. Our work is neatly and artistically done, and in appearance equals that of any city office. Let us try your order. Our prices are moderate.

—An exchange remarks that when a man gets mad at what the minister says and leaves the church and another gets mad at the editor and stops his paper, the two ought to get together, compare notes and see which is the biggest goose.

—The story of a duck is the newest thing which Ernest Ston-Thomasson, the author of "Wild Animals I Have Known," has written. It is called "The Mother Teal and the Overland Route," and will be published in The Ladies' Home Journal.

—Miss Proper has returned from Pittsburg with the new spring millinery for F. Walters & Co. She is accompanied by an up-to-date professional trimmer and they are now very busily engaged in getting ready for their Easter opening which will be held April 5 and 6.

—Our science department is prepared to give students excellent opportunities for the study of chemistry, zoology, and biology as well as physics and physiology. Spring term opens April 5th. JOHN F. BLOKIN, Prin. Edinboro State Normal School.

—Early spring vegetables can be had as soon as they are in market at Ammer's, who still continues to keep the best and freshest assortment of groceries, canned goods, tobacco, cigars and confectionaries to be had in the town. Either 'phone will catch him and bring quick results.

—The snow has gone unweaving to sight a huge amount of accumulated rubbish. It will be in order now to clean up and burn all accumulations as soon as possible. Do not leave rubbish lay around till the warm weather approaches. It is a disgraceful thing to the town and may endanger health.

—In the Review of Reviews for April Mr. W. T. Stead contributes an illustrated character sketch of England's new Queen, Alexandra, of whom comparatively little is known in this country. Mr. Stead draws an attractive picture of the Queen's domestic graces and substantial womanly qualities.

—The shoot between the crack English regiment and a picked team of sharpshooters from the Sixteenth N. G. P., arranged some time ago, will be postponed another year on account of the South African war. Colonel Hollings hopes that arrangements may be perfected so that he can take his team to England during the spring of 1902.

—A "grater" is said to be invading some parts of the state, he to receive his pay from a percentage of the fruit after his grafts begin to bear. Of course he has an agreement for the farmer to sign, which is the catch. He pays cash and a big price. It is hardly necessary to warn our readers, for surely no one will sign such a self-evident fraud.

—The Chicago Interior, under whose auspices the party of tourists, of which Rev. J. V. McAninch of this place is a member, are making a pilgrimage of the Holy Land, publishes a very good photograph of the twenty-four persons comprising the party as they had boarded the vessel just before sailing. The party was due at Gibraltar on the 18th, and after exploring Sorrento, Pompeii and the Island of Capri, should this week be in Egypt among the ruins of the ancients. The party is made up of New York, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Illinois, Iowa, Texas and California people.

—The Warren Press, the new insurgent organ which was begun with a grand flourish of trumpets in that town a few weeks ago, has flunked out, the Times having bought the plant outright. The paper started with very strong backing, but found that the matter of "filling a long-felt want" was too expensive a luxury to be long indulged in.

—Last week Albert and Kitty Bradbury were conveyed to the Polk institution for feeble-minded children, where for a season at least they will make their home. Commissioner J. T. Carson accompanied the children to their new home and reports that they seemed quite taken with their surroundings. The institution is a model of completeness and comfort, and the large band of children kept there seem as happy as birds on a spring morning.

—When you are thinking of a new spring suit, just take another think, and after you have thought, go to F. E. Dick, the merchant tailor, and look at his new samples for spring and summer wear, and leave your order for a suit that is made right and that will keep its shape and always look right. Also take orders for clothing made out of town, and if the goods don't fit, I'll make 'em fit before you get 'em. There's a good reason for ordering from a tailor.

—S. W. McCuen is in receipt of a letter from Farmer Dean, who is at Beaumont, Tex., signing up the new oil territory. He says there are twenty-five rigs erected in sight of the big Guffy "gusher," twelve of which are drilling, and three, he thinks are below the gusher level without showing any signs of gushing. It is his opinion that the people who are laboring under the delusion that the Beaumont field covers a vast lake of oil will be sadly disappointed.—Blizzard.

—As the years go by it is pleasing to note that more farmers write letters on printed letter heads and have their cards and envelopes. It was once thought that no one could do this unless he was engaged in the production of some specialty or breeding some pure blood farm stock. No one believes that now. Every farmer and every household from which any correspondence is done should have printed note heads and envelopes, no matter how few the letters written, it costs so very little more than the blank paper that all can afford it, and the benefits more than counterbalance the small additional outlay.

—The other day a commercial agent, who is somewhat of a ventriloquist, was having some fun with a little five-year-old daughter of Landlord Weaver, at Hotel Weaver, and pretending to whisper in her ear, started the little girl by making a sound closely imitating a cornet. He explained that he had once swallowed a horn and that was why he could make that sort of noise. A little later, while the girl's attention was attracted in another direction, the gentleman imitated the meowing of a cat. This was too much for the little one, and with a merry twinkle she inquired, "Say, did you swallow a cat, too?"

—Acting Postmaster General Johnson has issued a general order prohibiting all renters of lock boxes and drawers at post-offices throughout the country from using keys not regularly obtained by themselves from the respective postmasters, and directing that after April 1st each postmaster shall inform the renters of lock boxes and drawers that all except regular manufacturers of postoffice furniture and fixtures are enjoined from making or causing to be made any key or appliance for unlocking or opening any lock box or drawer in a postoffice. All persons renting boxes hereafter must agree to these prohibitions.

—Having just returned from New York, with a nice line of millinery goods, I would respectfully announce to the millinery public, that on and after April 1st I will be ready to show my spring and summer styles. My line comprises ladies and misses ready-to-wear cutting hats, walking hats, round hats, sailors' and dress hats, and all kinds of untrimmings, and material in newest shapes and colorings trimmed to order; all in new and exclusive styles. In connection with my millinery department, I have added laces, embroideries, ladies' belts, ties, gift buttons and ornaments, and other novelties of the season. Don't forget the place, Mrs. H. A. Lynch, Edinboro, Pa.

—John Smith of Mayburg, Forest county, returned last Saturday from a trip to England, to visit his father and other relations there. On his way home he stopped at West York, Waterbury and Pittsburg to visit members of his family. He spent three months in England. His father is 81 years of age, and still quite stout and healthy. On Christmas day the old gentleman played the violin at a concert. Mr. Smith saw the Queen's funeral, and saw King Edward open Parliament in full state, at the North Fork creek, including what is standing and the cut logs, to Cook & Graham, who will manufacture it at their town mill. After saving out the logs in the beam below town, and disposing of the sawed lumber there, the mill will be abandoned.—Brookville Democrat.

His Left Hand Ground off. Harry Condrin of Oil City, met with a distressing accident at the depot at this place last Friday forenoon, costing him his left hand. The injured man had been employed about eight months as fireman on the "Penny" and was with the freight engine that was pulling train 88 going south. The train stopped at this station to take water, and the young man went to the rear of the tank and lifted off the lid of the manhole and was swinging the spout into place when the engineer applied the air and the train came to a stop, and the jar threw Condrin backwards and on to the track. When his hand was released the train moved forward a few feet and the wheels of the first car back of the engine passed over his hand, crushing it in a shocking manner. Dr. J. D. Greaves was summoned and after staunching the flow of blood and giving the injury the necessary temporary dressing, accompanied the young man to Oil City, the engine being detached from the train and coupled to the caboose. Dr. Greaves turned his patient over to Dr. C. W. Coulter, the company's physician. It was necessary to amputate the hand at the wrist.

—Miss Florence Klinefelter has taken a position as clerk in Metzgar & Hogan's dry goods store, Warren, Pa., entering upon her duties Monday of this week. Should any one of the ladies hereabouts be sending any orders to that establishment Miss Klinefelter would be pleased to have them addressed to her care, in which case they will receive prompt attention, besides giving her the credit of the patronage.

—Rev. Joseph P. Calhoun, D. D., pastor of the Homewood Avenue Presbyterian church of this city, was last night called to the pastorate of the Bellevue church, Presbytery of Allegheny. The salary promised is $2,500. Dr. Calhoun was born in Armstrong county and is a graduate of the Western Theological seminary. The Bellevue congregation will this summer erect a new church building as soon as the new pastor is installed. About $50,000 will be invested.—Pittsburg Com. Gazette.

Dr. Calhoun is a brother of our townsman, S. C. Calhoun, Esq. Shortly after his graduation he preached for a time at Marienville, using the old school house, before the Presbyterian church was erected there.

The School Teacher Won.

The following from the Clarion Democrat of last week would indicate that school teachers have rights which even County Superintendents are bound to respect:

In the matter of the petition of Miss Mame Stroup for a writ of mandamus on W. A. Beer, county superintendent of Clarion county, to compel him to examine her and if found qualified to grant her a certificate, the court filed his opinion last Monday and granted a mandamus on W. A. Beer.

Miss Stroup was elected teacher of one of the schools of Millersburg township, and the school board requested Superintendent Beer to examine her, and if found qualified to issue a certificate to her, in order to teach said school. Superintendent Beer refused to examine Miss Stroup for the following reasons: That the teacher's examinations for 1900 had already been held, being held from April 28th to May 25th inclusive; that he had examined 287 teachers holding high grade certificates, making 134 more teachers than there were schools; that the rules and regulations published for said examinations provided that there should be no other examinations for the year 1900 and on special examination except in urgent need to fill a vacancy; that Miss Stroup had been elected by the school board June 30, 1900, and her election was certified July 18, 1900, to him which employment he believes to be illegal.

In the opinion handed down last Monday Judge Clark says the law applicable to this case is as follows:

First. "It shall be the duty of the county superintendent to examine all candidates for the profession of teacher, in the presence of the board of directors or controllers, should they desire to be present, to whom they should first apply in his county, and to give each person found qualified a certificate setting forth the branches of learning he or she is capable of teaching," etc.

Funeral of the late William Coleman.

The funeral services over the remains of the late William Coleman were held in the M. E. church last Friday forenoon, Rev. W. P. Murray officiating, assisted by Rev. A. S. Stewart of the Presbyterian church. The singing was by a choir consisting of Mrs. W. P. Murray, Mrs. Z. T. Shriver and Mr. F. R. Lanson of the M. E. church, and Mrs. Sule M. Sharp and Mr. O. F. Miles of the Presbyterian. Mr. Stewart spoke a few words of consolation and comfort to the bereaved parents, brothers and relations of the deceased, and he was followed by Mr. Murray, who eloquently referred to the excellent character and reputation borne by the deceased, and read a letter from the minister in Wheeling who was with Mr. Coleman during his illness in which he expressed the firm belief that he was fully trusting in the Lord as his Redeemer and Savior. The choir beautifully rendered three hymns during the service. The pall bearers were Messrs. J. T. Dale, R. M. Herman, L. J. Hopkins, George Holeman, Joseph Clark and J. W. Jamieson. The casket contained many handsome floral tributes. The interment was in beautiful Riverside cemetery.

In this connection the parents and brothers of the deceased wish to thank all in Tionesta who gave them aid and sympathy in this bereavement. Especially do they thank Mrs. Verna Baker, the ministers, the choir and the pall bearers for the parts which they performed in the last sad rites.

Stops the Cough and Works off the Cold.

Laxative Bromo-Quinine Tablets cure a cold in one day. No cure, no pay. Price 25 cents.

Does it Pay to Buy Cheap?

A cheap remedy for coughs and colds is all right, but you want something that will relieve and cure the more severe and dangerous results of throat and lung troubles. What shall you do? Go to a warmer and more regular climate? Yes, if possible; if not possible for you then in either case, take the only remedy that has been introduced in all civilized countries with success in severe throat and lung troubles, "Boschee's German Syrup." It not only heals and stimulates the tissues to destroy the germ disease, but allays inflammation, causes easy expectoration, gives a good night's rest and cures the patient. Try ONE bottle. Recommended many years by all the druggists in the world. Get Green's prize almanac at the Davis Pharmacy.
