General Funston's Daring Exploit Ends Successfully.

Insurgent Leader Was Taken on March 23 In His Hiding Piece In Instella, Island of Luzon-Captive and Captors Arrive at Maulia on Gunboat Viets

MANILA, Murch 29.-General Fred Funston, who on March 23 captured General Emilio Aguinaldo, when interviewed yesterday by a representative of the press, made the following statement concerning the capture of the Filipina leader:

The confidential agent of Aguinable arrived Feb. 29 at Pantabangau, in the province of Noeve Ecija, Northern Luzon, with letters dated Jan. 11, 12 and 14. These letters were from Emilio Agninaldo, and directed Baldermero Aguinaldo to take command of the provinces of Central Luzon, supplanting General Alejandrino. Emilio Aguinaldo also ordered that 400 men be sent him as soon as possible, saying that the bearer of the letters would guide these men to where Agninaldo was. General Fauston secured the corre spondence of Agninaido's agent and laid his plans accordingly. Some months previously he had captured the camp of the Insurgent General Lacuna, inciden-tally obtaining Lacuna's seal, official papers and a quantity of signed correspondence. From this material two letters were constructed ostensibly from Lacuna to Aguinaldo.

"One of these contained information as to the progress of the war. The other asserted that, pursuant to orders received from Baldermero Aguinaldo, Lacuna was sending his best company to President Emilio Aguinaldo.

This Macabelie company, armed with 50 Mansers, 18 Remingtons and 10 Krag Jorgensens, was commanded by by Captain Russell T. Hazzard. With him was his brother Lleutenaut Oliver P. M. Hazzard, both of the Eleventh United States cavalry. Captain Harry W. Newton, Thirty-fourth infantry, was taken because of his familiarity with Casiguran bay and Lientenant Burton J. This plan was abandoned. At 2 a. m., March 14, the Vicksburg put her lights out and ran inshore 25 miles south of Casiguran, province of Prinpe. The party landed and marched to Casiguran. The Americans had never garrisoned this place and the inhabiouts are strong insurgent sympathizers. Having arrived there the ex-insurgent Micers, estensibly commanding the party. innounced that they were on the way to join Aguinable between Pantabangan and Baler, that they had surprised an American scouting party and that they had killed a number, capturing five. They exhibited General Funston and the other Americans as their prisoners.

The insurgent presidente of Casiguran believed the story. Two of the Lacuna letters, previously concected, were forwarded to Aguinaldo at Palanan, province of Isabela, General Funston-and the others were kept imprisoned for three days, surreptitionsly giving orders at night. On the morning of March 17, aking a small quantity of cooked corn, the party started on a 90-mile march to Palanan. The country is rough and unnhabited and provisions could not be secured. The party are small shell fish, out was almost storved. Wading swift rivers, climbing precipitous mountains and penetrating dense jungles, they marched seven days and nights and on March 22 had reached a point eight miles from Palagan. They were now so weak that it was necessary to send to Aguinaldo's camp for food. Againaldo dispatched supplies and directed that the American prisoners be kindly treated, but not to be allowed to enter the town. On the morning of March 23 the advance was resumed.
