Rev. A, T. Bell at Death's Door. The many Tionesta friends of Rev. Mr. Bell will be greatly pained to read the following account of his critical con dition which is taken from the Indiana, Pa., Gazette of the 3d just :

Rev. A. T. Bell, formerly of Kelleysburg and Saltsburg, is lying seriously ill in a hospital at Wichita, Kan., with blood poisoning, caused by a sore finger. Rev. Bell had gone to take charge of a church in Oklahoma. Mrs. Beil, who still resides in Sait-burg, left for her husband's bodside on Saturday evening. She arrived at Wichit . on Monday evening. Word was received in Indiana yesterday tha! Rev. Bell's left arm would be amputated during the afternoon, and that his condition was critical.

LATER .- From a personal letter dated Saltsburg, April 8, from Miss Emma Beil, daughter of Rev. Mr. Bell, to a friend here, we are permitted to give -some of the particulars of the unfortunate circumstances: "On the 28th of March father got a splinter in the fleshy part of the thumb of his left hand. The next day the injury annoved him some and he went to a doctor and had the splinter cut out, and by night it was so painful some one hed to stay with him. On the 30th he was taken to the hospital and one week ago to-day (Monday) the arm was amputated, where I do not know. Wednesday A. J. Siggins of West Hickory, was everyone gave up hope, but during the night be began to mend, and this morning I am so glad to be able to say dear father will get well, for the letter I received this morning from mother contained the happy news that the nurses and doctors assured her fatner was out of all danger now."
