States May Quarantine Against Each Other WASHINGTON, April 23.-The attention of the United States supreme court was given yesterday largely to the question of the right of one state to quarantine against another. The contention arose in connection with the case of W. Smith vs. the St. Louis and Western Railway company, involving quarantine regulations against the importation of cattle in 1897. The trial court sustained the regulation, but the state court of appeals reversed the decision, holding in favor of the railroad company. Urges Filipinos to Embrace American Sovereignty.

People Have Decided For It-Says There Has Been Enough Blood, Enough Tears and Enough Desolation and Talks Like a Patriot of the Gloriou

MANILA, Apr.l 20 .- The following is Againaldo's address to the Filipino peo ple, made public last evening:

"I believe I am not in error in presum ing that the unhappy fate to which my adverse fortune has led me is not a surprise to those who have been familiar wish the progress of the war. The less sons taught with a full meaning, and which have recently come to my knowledge, suggest with irresistible force that a complete termination of hostilities and lasting peace are not only desirable, but absolutely essential to the welfare of the Philippine islands. "The Filipines have never been dismayed at their weakness, nor faltered in following the path pointed out by their fortitude and courage. The time has come, however, in which they find their advance along this path to be impeded by an irresistible force, which, while it restrains them, yet enlightens their minds and opens to them another course, pre-senting them the cause of peace. This cause has been joyfully embraced by the majority of my fellow countrymen who have already united around the glorious sovereign banner of the United States In this banner they repose their trust and believe that under its protection the Filipino people will attain all those promised liberties which they are ginning to enjoy. The country has de clared unmistakably in favor of peace. So be it. There has been enough blood, enough tears and enough desolation. This wish cannot be ignored by the men still in arms if they are animated by desire to serve our noble people which has thus clearly manifested its will. So known to me.

"After muture deliberation I resolute ly proclaim to the world that I cannot refuse to heed the voice of a people longing for peace, nor the lamentations of thousands of families yearning to see their dear ones enjoying the liberty and the promised generosity of the great merican nation.

While there have been greater floods at this point, there was never one that used so much financial loss and dis omfort. This was due to the denser popul ation caused by the recent rapid growth of the two cities and to the fact that all the manufacturing plants on the river banks were in active operation, most of them working night and day, until the ising water put out the fires and drove the workers to higher ground.
