

Particular people are the people we want. Particular people won't be satisfied with cheap, inferior wall paper designs. They won't accept anything less than the best. We have the best. Pittsburgh Wall Paper is the superior make this season. The designs are more artistic, the colors more delicate and pleasing. The prices are no higher than for poor qualities. We can reasonably promise you exclusive designs. Note the pretty display in our windows.

There is but a step from the sublime to the ridiculous. It is now claimed that the recent small-pox scare at Sandy Lake had its origin in a case of Canadian itch.

Following is the list of letters remaining uncalled for in the Tionesta, Pa., post-office for the week ending May 1st, 1901: Miss Lizzie Kimes, Mr. L. G. Reynolds, D. S. Knox, P. M.

Mr. and Mrs. N. L. Reed of Sturtevant, Pa., were called upon to mourn the loss of their little daughter, Ethel, on the 12th ult. The child was aged three years, one month and two days.

No Republican should absent himself from the primaries next Saturday afternoon, and no good Republican will, without the most valid excuse. Let us have a clean, orderly election, with a full turnout and none but Republicans at the bat.

The heavy smoke which has enveloped the horizon for the past two days would indicate that the forest fire fiend has set up business rather early this season. There are very few fires in the woods now-a-days that are not the result of either carelessness or vandalism, and in either case there should be a few convictions and punishments, which we think would tend very materially to lessen these destructive elements.

It's a rod and a line, A hook and a can Of angle worms For the fisherman, Gum boots, a basket Of lunch, and a bottle Of bait for the frog That gets in his throtle. —Not from the Blitzard.

The Democrats of the county held their primaries last Saturday. There being no contest for any of the offices, the affair was void of interest. F. A. Keller of Pigeon, was nominated for county treasurer, and D. W. Clark of the borough for county surveyor.

Remember the lectures of Mrs. L. E. Bailey Friday and Saturday evenings of this week, in the M. E. church, under the auspices of the county W. C. T. U. The lady is a speaker of national note and those who attend expecting much will not be disappointed.

A well prepared report of an important educational meeting recently held at Clarion Normal appears in this issue, written by Miss Christine Agnew of this place, a student at that institution. The subject of township high schools was thoroughly aired at this meeting.

By the burning of a hotel in St. Marys, W. Va., at which they were lodging one night last week, James Hagerty and Jerry Welsh were obliged to jump from an upper-story window to save themselves. Jerry lost all his clothing except the suit he had on. Four men were burned to death.

The Pan-American postage stamps will be placed on sale throughout the United States to-day, May 1st. Stamped envelopes or postal cards will not be issued with Pan-American stamps imprinted thereon.

Out last week one day in company with Joe Scowden to "wear off the wire edge." Weather too cold yet, streams too high, and they weren't biting much, but when we declared to the half hundred anxious inquirers that we got several dozen (between us) we meant it, and it 25 (size not given) constitutes several then we didn't lie. We got 'em.

Let it be forgotten that Clarion is to have a railroad we want to say that we are told the survey is about completed and the work of making drawings, etc., preparatory to letting contracts is now under way.—Jacksonian. Unless the new railroad promoters get a bigger bludge than heretofore people may think the Jacksonian means to be factious.

It is stated that the water in the small streams, in which trout are found, are in good fishing condition. The water has fallen and cleared up and there is no apparent reason why good catches should not be made.—Tionesta Courier. Not a particle of reason why, not a particle, except, possibly, that the trout won't bite, and that there aren't a whole lot of the spec. beam's left to take the worm.

According to a recent act of assembly owners and lessees of land may kill rabbits at all seasons of the year. As Bunny does not own any land himself, and must necessarily at all times be on somebody else's premises, he is in a perilous state.—Pansy Spirit. That puts the matter of the indiscriminate slaughter of the innocent little bunny in a somewhat different and much more pathetic attitude.

The Ladies' Home Journal has commissioned Ida Sharper Hoxie, the well-known author, to go to the German Harz Mountains and write of the raising and training of canary birds. She will proceed to St. Andreasberg, "The Singing Village of Germany," where 60,000 canaries are reared every year, and spend some time in the home of one of the most successful breeders of these peerless singers, gathering material for the article.

Tionesta will be in the base ball swirl this summer, enough funds having been pledged to guarantee well fitted up grounds, and for necessary paraphernalia to begin the great American game in proper style. A good battery is assured, and of the in and out fielders we always could score up enough to "do" most anything we tackled. Work on the diamond has been going on for several days past and the team will be ready for all comers whenever they come. The management will endeavor to give the patrons some good clean ball, none of the bun order, and if they succeed in keeping down the hoodlum element and kick the kickers off the ground they can depend upon the people to sustain a good club here this season. Without this the effort to keep up the proper interest in the game will be fruitless. Play ball!

I., for a term of two years, arrived in the city yesterday, having been invalided home. His term of enlistment expires next June. Although much impressed with the possibilities of the Philippines in manufacturing, mining, agriculture and lumbering he, like many others who have gone to distant parts, feels that there is no place on earth that offers the same chances and comforts as Oil City.

The High School Commencement.

The commencement exercises of the class of '01 at the court house last evening, were a very pretty closing of the past winter's term of the Tionesta High School, and the very large audience present seemed to greatly appreciate the occasion as was evidenced by the expression of countenance and hearty applause that was bestowed upon every feature of the program as it was rendered.

The teachers labored diligently with the principal of the school to make the affair a success, and as to the success of their efforts the audience must judge. The stage was backgrounded with pretty decorations of flags, flowers and potted plants, the class colors, purple and gold, prevailing. The essays and readings of the class were almost faultlessly accomplished from the first to the last, and each graduate received a good meed of praise and applause, together with a beautiful bouquet of cut flowers sent by some friend and presented by little Miss Glenn Weaver. Rev. W. P. Murray in a short and impressive prayer opened the pleasant exercises, while Superintendent Sittlinger, in an appropriate address first to the audience then to the class, presenting the diplomas, praising the work of the class and urging them on to still greater efforts and higher attainments in their future life, closed the evening's feast.

McNaughton's orchestra of Tionesta furnished lively music for the occasion, and all told the class of '01 has had a most auspicious commencement.

Robbery Near Crown.

The dwelling house of Robert Hagerty, three miles from Crown, Pa., was entered on Sunday night last, and two notes and $22 in cash taken from a pocket book that was in a cupboard. The thief or thieves entered and retired so stealthily that they were not heard and tracks leading to the cellar way were the only evidence besides the missing property.

Letter to Heath & Felt.

Tionesta, Pa.

Dear Sirs: You sell a good many things by the gallon. Being decent men, you give full measure.

You know what we mean: you know that short weight and short measure are common among us—we, we hope there are no short measures and weights in your town.

There are, though. Ribbons and laces and trimmings, sold by the "dozen," measure nine or ten yards. There is no complaint because "they all do it." You have the same plague in your goods—nearly everything, canned or bottled, chests in the quantity. Almost nobody gives full weight in a factory package!

We are one of the almost nobles. We sell paint, by the gallon, to paint your house; and our gallon is just the same size as yours that you measure vinegar with—21 cubic inches.

Good paint too—Devor lead and zinc—wears twice as long as old-fashion paint—lead and oil.

You own houses. That's why we are writing to you.

Yours truly,

F. W. Devor & Co.
P. S.—James D. Davis sells our paint in your section.

The most eccentric humorist of the day will revive his famous "Jimmielby Stories" in next Sunday's great Philadelphia Press, May 5th. The Voyage of Jimmielby on his "skieyle" is told with a snap and humor that is inimitable. Among other things there are some thoughts on riding a bicycle over a lawn mower; pneumatic tires; the Christopher Columbus among skibicycles; the dangers of puncturing tires on church steeples, etc. This story will be one of the interesting features of next Sunday's Press. It will be well to order your copy from your newsdealer in advance.
