RECENT DEATHS.

DIES. At her home in Palo, Mich., on Saturday afternoon, May 18, 1901, Mrs. we do Polly C. Persival, wife of Jabez C. Percival, aged 84 years, I month and 26 days. Polly Canfield Brooks was born at Ole an, N. Y., March 22, 1817 and was the eldest of ten children of Judge James and Betsey Brooks. Two brothers and one sister, residing in the state of New York, are still living. The deceased was converted in early life and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church, of which she continued an active member to the time of her teath. On December 1, 1840, she was maried to Jabez Chapman Percival, at Olean, N. Y., and for more than 60 years beautifully exemplified the grace and virtue of a true, faithful and devoted wife. She became mother of six sons, four of whom, James C., of Stauton, Mich., Fredric C., of St. Marys, West Virginia, George A., of Palo and William J., of Lake Odessa, Mich., to--George Holeman went to Pittsburg gether with the aged and stricken father esterday to see his daughter, Miss Iva, survive her and were at the bedside it hard to believe there is nothing in when she passed away.
