—At the recent Republican primaries held in Clarion county Hon. J. T. Maffett was nominated for President Judge, and Jay E. Fitzgerald and E. L. Dickey were elected delegates to the State convention.
—Daniel Rustler, who was recently taken to the Asylum at Warren, escaped from the attendants last week, and came to his home in Hickory twp. He returned with the attendants who came after him last Thursday.
—Heavy frosts Saturday and Sunday nights are reported throughout the country back from the river, doing severe damage to corn, potatoes, etc., and in some instances the grass is said to have been considerably nipped.
—The Clarion Democrat looks lovely in the new Summer togery which it donned last week. The prosperity thus shown is a source of pleasure to the Democrat's many exchange friends. May it continue to flourish and wax wealthy.
—About a dozen of the boys of the town were placed under bond for their appearance at next court by Squire Suttley one day last week for annoying old man Stine, who shanties on the bank of the river near the bridge. Attorney Shawk of Warren appeared for the boys and will defend them in court if used be.
—Charles S. Stow died at the home of his parents in Toledo, Ohio, June 4, 1901. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Stow, formerly of Endeavor this county, and the family has many relatives living here and is well remembered by a large circle of friends in the county. The deceased had been ill only two weeks, pneumonia and appendicitis being joint afflictions which rendered his case a hopeless one from the beginning. Charles had been engaged with his father in the oil producing business for a number of years past. His age was 28 years, and he was a bright, amiable and energetic young business man highly esteemed by a large circle of acquaintances.

—Miss M. M. Utley, of Pittsburg, was in Tionesta over Sabbath in the interest of the Children's Home Society of Pennsylvania, and on Monday organized a branch of that very excellent society here, with the following officers: President, Mrs. A. Carson; Treasurer, Mrs. T. E. Armstrong; Secretary, Mrs. J. B. Hagerty. The object of this society is the permanent placement in suitable family homes of homeless and dependent children. The work in which Miss Utley is engaged is a very commendable one, and she made many friends during her short stay in Tionesta. The society is young and new members are solicited. For information call on the above named officers.

—The hottest ball game of the season was pulled off at the Tionesta grounds last Saturday afternoon between Tionesta and Tionesta. For a time it looked like a win for the visitors, the game standing 3 to 2 in their favor at the end of the sixth inning. In the last half of the seventh, however, the home team made a "garri-on finish," batting the Tidoute pitcher for five clean scores. At the end of the inning the game was called to allow the visitors to catch the 4:30 train for home, leaving the score stand 7 to 5 in favor of Tionesta. It is said Tidoute's backers "paid all the freight," and walked home. The return game is booked for the 22d inst. at Tidoute, and it will doubtless be a speedy affair.

—At the business meeting of Pennsylvania department encampment, G. A. R. at Gettysburg last Wednesday, Auditor General Levi G. McCaskey, of West Chester, was elected department commander. The veterans were so well pleased with the place that Gettysburg was again selected for holding the encampment next year. On the same day the Woman's Relief Corps elected officers and Corps 137, of Tionesta, was signally honored by the election of one of its members as department treasurer. The result of the election was as follows: President, Mary L. Mumford of Manach Chunk; senior vice president, Mrs. Annie Martin of Renovo; junior vice president, Mrs. C. M. Yers of Irwin; treasurer, Mrs. Jennie E. Agnew of Tionesta. G. W. Robinson, of Stow Post 274 of this place, was for the third time elected a delegate to the National encampment, which is held at Cleveland this year.

Rhiei-Kiser Nuptials.
"Happy the bride whom the sun shines on." So, no doubt, thought many of the smiling guests that were gathered about the pretty Mt. Zion Lutheran church, on German Hill, Wednesday June 6, 1901, to witness the ceremony which would unite Rev. Charles A. Rhiei, its former popular young pastor, and Miss Florence Gertrude Kiser, the charming young daughter of Mrs. Henry Kiser, in the bond of holy wedlock. An ideal day it truly was, the clouds of the past weeks dispelling and allowing the bright sunshine to beam brightly upon the throng as it awaited the coming event. Softly the strains from the organ inside the church, so artistically presided over by Miss Vinnie Randall, bade the guests welcome, and at the hour appointed, 2:00 o'clock, nearly or quite a hundred ladies were comfortably seated in the cheerful edifice.

Then came the officiating ministers, Rev. H. J. Reimann of Oil City, and Rev. A. F. Rohr of Lineville, Pa., who took positions on the step fronting the altar and facing the guests. The ushers, Messrs. Harvey and Ray Kiser, brothers of the bride, led the way up the aisle, followed by the groom, arm in arm with his brother and "best man" Al Rhiei. Next came the flower girl, pretty little Florence Smith, bearing a basket of white flowers, and following her the bride's maid, Miss Emma Kiser, sister of the bride, carrying a bouquet of white roses. All eyes were on the bride as she entered and followed her maid up the aisle and took her position beside the one to whom she was soon to be joined for life. She carried a lovely bouquet of white roses, ferns and calla lilies, lending additional beauty to her already charming appearance. The marriage ceremony was begun by Rev. Mr. Rohr who read a passage of scripture, at the close of which Rev. Mr. Reimann spoke the words which united the happy couple as man and wife, employing the simple but beautiful and impressive service of the Lutheran church, closing with prayer and the benediction. The bridal party passed out and was followed by the guests, who returned to the pleasant home of the bride's mother, where the reception was held and where Mr. and Mrs. Rhiei received the heartfelt congratulations and well wishes of the many guests present. A few moments were occupied by each of the officiating clergymen in addressing the throng, their remarks being quite appropriate to the occasion and well received by all. And then was served a most elegant dinner which was discussed with a zest that indicated plainly the attention and joy of the occasion were not all to be lavished on the fair bride and happy groom.

It was past the hour of six o'clock before all the guests took their leave, and none departed without again bestowing choicest blessings on the happy union just solemnized. It was an occasion long to be remembered and cherished in the hearts of those fortunate enough to be of the number.

The bride was richly remembered in the way of wedding gifts, the list showing a care to usefulness as well as elegance in selection.

Among the guests from a distance were, Rev. and Mrs. H. J. Reimann, Misses Katherine and Margaret Norton and Miss Ida Carey of Oil City; Rev. A. F. Rohr of Lineville, Pa.; Mr. Al Rhiei of Malvern Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Puffinburger and family, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Young, Miss Emma Kiser, and Messrs. Harvey and Ray Kiser of Wilkensburg, Pa., and Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Meador of Titusville.

Rev. and Mrs. Rhiei left on the Friday noon train for Buffalo, where they will spend a few days at the Pan-American Exposition, and after a short visit with friends in Cleveland, will be at home to their many friends in Wabash, Ind., where Mr. Rhiei has lately been installed as pastor of a flourishing church. The REPUBLICAN joins their host of friends in wishing them every blessing that comes of a happy union of hearts.

Dwelling Burned.

The old Dawson homestead, one of the landmarks of this section of the Allegheny valley, located at Dawson station four miles above Tionesta, burned to the ground about noon last Sabbath. While dinner was being prepared, a spark from the chimney ignited the roof of the building and before it was discovered the flames had made considerable headway and gotten beyond control of the few people about the premises. The house was occupied by Walter Dawson and his sister. About all the household effects in the lower story were saved. We did not get an estimate of the loss sustained, but understand it was a total one, there being no insurance on the building or goods.

Letter to S. S. Canfield.

Tionesta, Pa.
Dear Sir: You know how well it pays to keep your carriages painted, both for looks and to keep out water. It pays as well to paint your barn and your house. We put your barn first, because that is your business—your customers see it. You see, there are two good reasons for paint; one is looks; the other is wear. If you paint for looks, the wear will take care of itself.
Paint often for looks; and use good paint for both looks and wear.
The best paint is Devoe lead and zinc ground together by machinery; same proportions as are used by the U. S. Government. It wears twice as long as lead and oil mixed by hand.
Yours truly,
F. W. Devoe & Co.
