BRADSTREET'S REPORT ON THE CONDITION OF BUSINESS.

NEW YORK, July 20.—Bradstreet's review of trade says: Heat, drought and strikes have furnished the quota of disturbing influences this week, but despite these a fair volume of business goes forward and nearly all markets have taken the developments of the week (all of which, by the way, have not been unfavorable, calmly and even cheerfully.

THURSDAY.

A revolt which has broken out in the Island of Quezadru, belonging to Corea, may become of international importance by involving foreign powers.

FRIDAY.

One thousand stationary firemen in the Wilkes-Barre district struck, and in consequence 80,000 miners are idle. It is expected 800 firemen in the upper Lackawanna district will follow suit, closing the mines to about 60,000 other workers.

SAURDAY.

A special cable dispatch from Tromsø describes the departure of the Balldwin-Ziegler Arctic expedition under E. Balldwin, who feels confident of reaching the north pole.

SUNDAY.

The nephew of a Scotch woman who loaned Mr. Carnegie's mother 11 shillings to help her go to America wrote up the story, and Mr. Carnegie has endowed the woman's surviving daughters.

MONDAY.

A special cable dispatch from St. Petersburg says that Count Tolstol's condition is much improved, although he is not yet entirely out of danger.

TUESDAY.

An important decision affecting three transatlantic lines has been rendered by the tribunal of commerce of Cherbourg. Chicago's treasury is empty, and the city faces bankruptcy, with police force reduced, salaries cut, streets uncleaned and all public improvements stopped.

WEDNESDAY.

Nearly a thousand clothing shops which employ men on Sunday were closed by the launching of the garment makers' strike, which will affect 50,000 men and women.

THURSDAY.

Sixteen thousand mares and yearlings have been purchased in Kentucky for William K. Vanderbilt, at a cost of $20,000.

FRIDAY.

Mabel Leroy, an actress, made an attempt to kill herself in New York, and when prevented by her companion, Bert Thimae, dashed part of a phial of carbolic acid over him.

SATURDAY.

Cables to the East Much Hampered. NEW YORK, July 23.—The Commercial Cable company issued this notice: "Owing to heavy delay on the Siberian land lines messages and news from Northern are not accepted at the sender's risk. The eastern is working with only normal delay."
