

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 7.

The best time in the year to paper is when everybody else has finished. Then there is no difficulty in securing the services of a competent paper hanger because of the light demand for such work and another and more potent reason is that after the regular season is over you can buy paper hangings at 1/3 to 1/2 off the regular prices. We are now selling wall paper at actual cost. Not remnants either, but full lines and a large variety of designs:

Papers that were 15c per roll, now 10
" " " " " " " " 20 " " " " 13
" " " " " " " " 23 " " " " 17
" " " " " " " " 35 " " " " 23

and all others at proportionate reductions. At these prices we do not expect the stock to last a great while.

THE DAVIS PHARMACY.

Feit has moved his family from the township to the Chas. Killmer house in the north ward. Chris. is a general agent for the Wheeler & Wilson sewing machine and also sells pianos and organs. His business keeps him away from home much of the time, hence his reason for moving into town.

—J. L. Hallock and family, with W. P. Crouch and family of West Hickory and D. E. Reyner and family of Leeper, Pa., left for Jamesstown Wednesday afternoon to attend the Crouch family reunion today Thursday. Possibly the party may visit Buffalo before returning.—Tidouite News. —Clarice Marie, 5-months-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson, living at the mouth of Minister creek, Howe township, died on Tuesday evening, 30th inst. Funeral services were held at the home Thursday morning last, Rev. Wm. Richards officiating. The burial took place at Warren, Pa. —The Evans family held a picnic and reunion Wednesday of last week on the lawn of H. H. Evans at Tidouite. A large number of the relatives and family connection was present, among the number being Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Warden of Endeavor, and Mr. and Mrs. W. M. G. Smith of New York. —The revised course of study at the Clarion State Normal School is a great improvement over the old elementary course, which is discontinued after this year. The revised course fits graduates for teaching any grade in high school. Now that tuition is free to those preparing for teaching no teacher need remain a "provisional" teacher. —J. H. Cubbison will begin the building of a rig to-day, and Messrs. Stover and Weller of Embleton will do the drilling on a well that has been located on the Andrew Weller farm out beyond Starr Postoffice. The operators are Barnsdall & Co., of Pittsburg, who have leased a large piece of territory in that vicinity and propose giving it a thorough test. —The new road leading from a short distance above Nebraska to the foot of Jug Handle hill, and which was opened to the public only last season, is one of the finest in the county, and the beauty of the scenery along the winding Tionesta creek will compare quite favorably with Philadelphia's famous Wissahickon drive-way. Try it some pleasant afternoon. —The Pennsylvania Supreme Court has just handed down a decision declaring the bicycle tax illegal, the opinion sustaining those already given, with but few exceptions, by all the lower courts before whom test cases were brought. The case appealed to the Supreme Court from Erie county, Judge Walling having decided the law unconstitutional, and in this he is sustained. —Some one has figured out that, not counting overflow, waste and the accidents by fire and flood, the total number of barrels of crude petroleum produced in the United States from 1859 to January 1, 1901, is the appalling number of 1,000,284,409 barrels. Counting 5.35 cubic feet for a barrel, this would fill a pipe line a foot in diameter that would make 424 turns around the earth at the equator. —Farmer C. F. Cropp of Cropp hill brought in a sample of Siberian rye raised on his farm, and which had been through the new steam thrasher which he has recently possessed himself of. The work of cleaning was well done, and ought to be a good card for Mr. Cropp when he starts out to do custom threshing, which will be in a short time. One acre sown to this rye yielded 34 bushels, and Christopher would like to know who can beat it. —On the 18th of January last Dalton Peckham, of Albion, Erie county, came home intoxicated and at once began to beat the members of his family, finally driving them from the house. Next morning he was found dead with four bullet holes in his body. A reward of $1,500 was offered for the arrest and conviction of the murderer. A few days ago Floyd Peckham, aged 19, son of Dalton, was placed under arrest, charged with the murder. It is alleged that he had remained at the house after the other members of the family left the premises. —The F. M. camp meeting which has been in progress in the grove on the hill near the city reservoir since last Wednesday, will close to-morrow. The attendance has been exceptionally large throughout, and on last Sabbath the crowd was variously estimated at from 4,000 to 5,000, more than one thousand rigs being on the ground alone, beside every lively stable in town was crowded to its greatest capacity. The meetings have been full of interest to those participating in them, and some very excellent sermons have been listened to by the large audiences present.

—The oil city fair, which looked for a spell like it might not be pulled off for a year, promises now to be a go, the financial aid necessary for a successful event of this kind having been fully pledged, and the work of preparation is rapidly going on. The dates are Sept. 10, 11, 12 and 13. —Ray Birtel who has been working all summer with Paul & Son, the cement walk makers, has started in the business for himself and is laying a long stretch of walk in front of S. S. Canfield's property on Walnut street. With his experience in that line Ray should be able to do as nice and substantial a job as any one, in which case we don't know why he shouldn't have a monopoly of the business here next summer.

—Lost, Strayed or Stolen. One white and brown spotted dog mixed beagle hound and fox terrier, answers to name of Towser. Liberal reward for his return or information as to his whereabouts. GUS B. EVANS, Endeavor, Pa.

Another Forest County Boy Killed by the Cars.

The body of the third victim of railroad accident within the past six months was brought home to be buried on Monday of this week. This time it was Harry, son of William McKee, who lives on the top of the hill across the river, two miles from Tionesta. The young man had left home on Thursday last saying he was going to California, in which State he has an uncle living. His parents thought the boy was only in jest and did seriously contemplate starting on such a long journey. He did not return in the evening and nothing was heard of him until Saturday when a telegram reached here conveying the sad intelligence of his tragic death. It seems he had gotten some distance beyond Youngstown, Ohio, and on Friday afternoon had attempted to board a moving freight train when he was thrown under the wheels. When picked up a few minutes later he was unconscious, his left arm was cut off close to the shoulder, and his left leg was taken off between the knee and ankle. He was taken to a hospital in Youngstown, but lived only a few minutes after reaching there, and about an hour after the accident. He regained consciousness before he expired long enough to give his identity to the attending physician, stating his name was Harry McKee and his parents lived near Tionesta; also that he was on his way to California. He had something like three dollars in his pocket, but no other paper by which he could have been identified, and had remained unconscious to the last it is probable his parents might never have known what became of him. Quintain Jamieson accompanied the father in the sad mission of going after the son, and they arrived here Monday morning with the remains. Harry was 18 years of age last April, a bright, manly young fellow, was well thought of by all his acquaintances, full of pluck and energy, and having no bad habits. Very general regret is expressed in this community, where the lad was well known, over the distressing affair, and sincere sympathy is felt for the parents who are greatly shocked. Funeral services were held at the home yesterday morning, Rev. Mr. Grayes officiating, and the interment was in Riverside cemetery.

Letter to L. Fulton.

Dear Sir: H. M. Hooker & Co., Cooperstown, N. Y., have sold Devoe paint for 22 years. D. T. McGowan, of that firm built a house in '85 and painted Devoe, of course. The paint lasted ten years. A year or two later, a neighbor built a house, and painted it lead and oil. The neighbor's house was repainted twice in the same time. This looks as if the neighbor's house was painted three times in eight or nine years, and McGowan's once in ten years. We are not quite sure—we tell the tale as it comes to us. It is enough to say that Devoe lead and zinc lasts twice as long as lead and oil. F. W. DEVOE & CO. P. S.—James D. Davis sells our paint in your section.

Gold in Colors.

When gold is dissolved in nitrosulfuric acid, it forms chloride of gold, a beautiful yellow liquid used by artists, photographers and others. When this solution is diluted with water, and chloride of tin is added, metallic gold is precipitated as a beautiful purple powder, used for gilding and coloring porcelain and glass. This powder is called "purple of Cassius," from the name of its discoverer, Andreas Cassius of Leyden, who made it for the first time in the year 1665.

In gilding porcelain it is spread upon the pattern by means of a paste, and by the action of heat in the oven it takes the ordinary golden hue and brilliancy, but by modifying the composition of the paste it yields also rose and purple colors. When a small quantity of it is mixed with the materials used in making glass, the glass produced has a magnificent ruby tint, seen to perfection in the well known Bohemian glass, "Chambers' Journal."

He Was a Beggar.

Miss Bates, who has written and published an interesting book on travels in Spain, relates that the beggars of that country are amusingly proud and are exceedingly polite so long as nothing is said or done to wound their pride. She tells a story of a friend, a German woman, who requested a strong man who had impounded her for charity to carry her bag up the stairs. The strong man started back at this unusual request, dress himself up haughtily, frowned and replied: "Madam, I am a beggar, not a laborer."
