The South African problem is dorbtedly difficult and complicated. The topography of the country and the mo-bility of the Boers, whom the English columns are unable to pursue individ-ually, render operations most difficult. The British are feeding many prisoners and are providing for thousands of Boer families, all of which is very nice on the part of England. But, in the meanwhile, the war drags on. There is a great future for South Africa when peace is secured. The surface mineral wealth is scarcely scratched. Undoubtedly England is prepared to solve the problem of re-unification; but when that will occur certainly no person at the Cape is able to say."

MORE SOLDIERS FOR MANILA

Is Considered Not Sufficient.

MANILA, Aug. 26.—In the city of Manila there are now fewer than 1,000 effective soldiers and it has been decided to increase that number by four companies of infantry. The official reason for the increase is that the guard duty is too heavy for the present force.
