

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 28.

The best time in the year to paper is when everybody else has finished. Then there is no difficulty in securing the services of a competent paper hanger because of the light demand for such work and another and more potent reason is that after the regular season is over you can buy paper hangings at 1/3 to 1/2 off the regular prices. We are now selling wall paper at actual cost. Not remnants either, but full lines and a large variety of designs:

Papers that were 15c per roll, now 10
" " " 20 " " " 13
" " " 23 " " " 17
" " " 35 " " " 23

and all others at proportionate reductions. At these prices we do not expect the stock to last a great while.

RECENT DEATHS.

KERR.
The death of Hon. Edward Kerr, which occurred at his home near Clarington Thursday, Aug. 22, 1901, was not unexpected, as the disease from which he had suffered for several years, catarrh of the stomach, had made such inroads upon his vitality that his relatives and friends could only hope against hope. His sufferings were very great to the end, yet he retained consciousness to a wonderful degree and to the family and friends gathered at his bedside he expressed a willingness to depart and was fully prepared for the great change about to take place. He died a good Christian.
Edward Kerr, the oldest of 12 children born to George and Mary Kerr, was born November 9, 1829, and the past 47 years of his life were spent near Clarington, Forest county, where he owned and cultivated a farm about four miles below that village on the Clarion river. He was twice married, his first wife being Dorothy Henry, who lived six years after their marriage and to whom three children were born. His second union was with Mary Rogers, who, with three children, Calvin B., of Barnett township, Mrs. S. M. Henry of Tionesta, and Ernest, at home, survives him.
Mr. Kerr was a man of wonderful energy and industry, a citizen whose honor and integrity were never questioned by his large circle of acquaintances, and whose word was as good as his bond. He bore the good opinion of all worthy neighbors through his long life and died most highly respected by all who knew him. In the spring of 1875 he was honored by his Republican friends with the nomination for Associate Judge of Forest county, and that fall was elected by a large majority, many of his Democratic neighbors voting for him. He served his county faithfully and honorably for the full term of five years on the bench, stepping down with a most creditable record for fairness and impartiality.
The funeral services were held on Friday last, Rev. Mr. Richards of the Clarington M. E. church officiating, and the interment was in the cemetery at that place. An immense concourse of friends and neighbors attended the obsequies.

ROBERTS.
William J. Roberts for nearly forty years a resident of Tionesta, died at the Oil City hospital on Sunday evening last, Aug. 25, 1901, of uremic poison. Mr. Roberts' health had been failing for several months, but only on Thursday night last did he experience serious difficulty, and on Friday, accompanied by his physician, Dr. Morrow, and daughter and son-in-law Sheriff and Mrs. J. W. Jamieson, he went to the hospital for relief. The physicians there did all in their power for his recovery but were unable to operate for his relief owing to lack of vitality of the patient to sustain such a shock. While his sufferings were very great for a time the end came peacefully and without pain. During his last illness Mr. and Mrs. Jamieson were most constantly by his bedside and administered to his every want. Mr. Roberts was born Dec. 5, 1828, in Madison county, N. Y. March 29, 1849, he was united in marriage with Terresa S. Harrington, at Westfield, N. Y. They came to Tionesta in 1862, and for several years conducted the Holmes House, the principal hotel of the place at that time. Mrs. Roberts preceded her husband to the grave several years, also one son, Perry, who died in 1878. He is survived by three children, H. W. Roberts of Titusville, master carpenter of the Chautauqua division of the Penn. railroad; Mrs. Charles M. Cott of Columbus, Ohio, and Mrs. J. W. Jamieson, of Tionesta.
The deceased was one of our most energetic citizens, never idle while in health, and always genial and friendly with those about him. He was a member of the Universalist church, and the remains were conveyed to the home of his son in Titusville, where appropriate services were held last evening. To-day, Wednesday, the interment will take place at Westfield, N. Y., by the side of his wife and son who are buried there.

AMBERGER.
Bertha Anna, the bright little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Amberger, died at the family homestead, Hunters station, early Monday morning last, of cholera infantum, aged one year and two months. The child had been sick scarcely 24 hours.
Letter to Wheeler & Dusenbury.
Endeavor, Pa.
Dear Sirs: There are a thousand ways to cheat in our business; and whether our neighbors suspect us of cheating or not, depends on ourselves, our talk, our face, our eye, our walk, our standing straight up or crooked—our neighbors know all about us without being told!
We are pretty well known. We are no infant—146 years old—began business on this little island (New York) in 1754. Have been making paint and a noise in the world every since.
And there isn't a man, alive or dead, that wouldn't testify for us, if you should stir him up.
We grind lead and zinc in linseed oil by machinery, all together. That's our business. We live on the profit—machinery over hand-work. Painters mix their paint by hand—they imagine they do—they half mix it. We grind together: whole-mix. Better and costs less money.
We are the very best friend the painter has, if he knows it—yes, whether he knows it or not. He can't afford not to know it. We are the painter's customer's friend. We save them both money.
Yours truly,
F. W. DEVUE & CO.
P. S.—James D. Davis sells our paint in your section.

Oil City Fair.
The fourth annual Oil City Fair will be held September 10, 11, 12 and 13, and it is the aim of the directors to make it larger and better than ever. There will be extensive exhibits of horses, live stock and poultry, also in all branches of agriculture. In addition to the regular premiums offered by the association there are special premiums given by the merchants of Oil City which are well worth competing for. Besides the exhibits there will be an attractive program of amusements consisting of races, balloon ascensions daily, bands of music, a robotic performance and all the attractions that go to make up a great fair. The grounds are finely located with all the conveniences for the comfort and pleasure of both exhibitors and visitors.
Premium lists and race programs can be had by addressing I. N. Hinderliter, Secretary.
