THE PESIDENT'S CONDITION.

The latest bulletin issued last night at a distance and paved with square stone 10:30 by the physicians indicates that the set in diagonally. In this arch a door President is in a fair way to recovery, was found leading into a large room but that it will necessarily be slow. That he is out of danger seems almost certain shown a great number of relics found from the evidences of the past 24 hours. while excavating. These are all original May God grant it.

THE CRIME OF THE TWENTIETH crockery. Perhaps the most interesting CENTURY.

No calamity in the history of the United States since the assassination of the body had decomposed or turned to askes lamented Garfield, iwenty years ago, has a perfect mold was left of the person, This was soon discovered and when they created such widespread testing of hing-led sorrow, horror and anger among the people as the news that was flashed over the country shortly after four o'clock last Friday evening that the beloved Presi-dent McKinley was shot, and perhaps mortally wounded, by a red-handed an mortally wounded, by a red-handed an-archist. Naturally enough the first re-ports were not credited, but as further bulletins confirmed the awtul story expressions of anguish were on every lip, while the wrath and fury of the people knew no bounds. To think that in the midst of peace, joy and prosperity, with no great issue before the people to excite their passions, the good, kind-bearted, peace-loving Chief Executive should be the target for the pistoi of even a devitish suarchist was too much for the people of the country to comprehend without reflection.

clas pressions of anguish were on every lip, get away. The mark of the collar ap pears in the cast.

As the first bewildering shock passes the thought comes forcibly, what shall be done with the arch villain who would at-tempt such a crime, and then comes, in spite of one's self, the spirit of vengeance. Why not make short work of him by turoing him loese to the francie populace? Why allow him to enjoy the notoriety he so much covets by a lingering legal trial, where only meagre justice is moted out after all? It has been said, let such at-tempts, whether successful or otherwise, be made treason, so that the penalty is sure death. This is not sufficient. Make the mere promulgation of anarchistic ideas by such devits as Emma Goldman, ideas by such devils as Eurma Goldman, or anyone else, treason, and wherever a elan of this nature is gathered or can be ferreted ont, let it be raided and dealt with as a treasonable organization, its members taken out and short as pleiters when the main of an addition of the main of a set of the main of members taken out and shot as plotters against the life of the Republic. Let the dissemination of anarchistic literature be among trensonable offenses. This be-public bath was a place of wonderful in-terest. There it stands all in stone and
