

Smart & Silberberg.

OIL CITY, PENNA.

An Ad full of Ferceful Facts.

Fresh Features of our Big and busy Summer Sale.

We've given our Mid-Summer Sales newer, bolder elements of importance. Most of our odds and ends, remnants, broken lines and miscellaneous assortments have been hurried out. In their place merchandise, fresh, inviting and radiant with seasonable interests.

September Sales of Silks.

A Black Silk Sale in September is something of an innovation in Dry Goods procedure, but this Silk Store of ours has a way of doing things in its own peculiar fashion—a fashion that's especially acceptable to its patrons.

- Black Silks can be purchased later on, but not on the terms quoted now, by any means.
- 21-inch Black Taffeta, 85c quality, 69c a yd.
 - 36-inch Black Taffeta, $1.50 quality, $1.19 a yard.
 - 19-inch All Silk Satin Duchess, 85c quality, 69c a yard.
 - 21-inch All Silk Satin Duchess, $1.00 quality, 79c a yard.
 - $1.50 Black Peau de Sol, 24 inches wide, $1.19 a yard
 - $1.25 Black Peau de Sol, 22 inches wide, 98c a yard.
 - 20-inch Colored Taffeta Silks, best quality, warranted to wear, 85 cent quality, 69c a yard.
 - 20-inch White Taffeta Silks, the kind that is sold all over at 85c, 69c a yd.

END OF THE SATIN FOULARDS.

All we have of the 75c and $1 Foulards grouped together at one price, 39c.

FALL BLACK GOODS ARE READY.

A goodly majority of the black weavings for fall are ready for inspection. Dame Fashion has been somewhat partial to fabrics of past acquaintance. Among a score or more of well known weaves are MOHAIR CREPE CLOTHS, PLAIN AND PEBBLE CHEVIOTS, SURAH TWILS, SATIN-FACED PRUNELLAS, DROP DE ALMAS, Camel's Hairs, Wool Peau de Sois, Venetians, Melrose Broadcloths. The best line of Black goods to be found hereabouts.

High Class Wash Goods—Beautiful Novelties Marked Down. 50c to $1.00 Fabrics at 29c.

All our Swellest Wash Goods are involved in this movement. The most ultra styles—the finest and prettiest weaves dropped from Europe and America, all to be marked 29c a yard.

SMART & SILBERBERG,

OIL CITY, PA.

McCLURE'S CONVENTION

Meeting of "The Union Party," Again Postponed.

IT IS NOT NOW IN PUBLIC FAVOR

Championed By Yellow Journalism, This Latest Agitation Against Republicanism Has Been a Most Signal Failure.

(Special Correspondence.) Philadelphia, Sept. 17.—The managers of the Union party have decided that this is not a propitious time for them to attempt an organization against the patriotic citizens of Pennsylvania, who comprise the Republican party of this commonwealth.

They have concluded to postpone the meeting of their so-called convention. The assassin's bullets, which finally meant the death of the President, called off their convention when it was first scheduled to meet, and now the fatal termination of the attack requires them to defer action again.

Both the state and city conventions of this mushroom political growth, known as the Union party, have been postponed. They were to have met on Thursday next and name candidates for state and city offices.

The Wanamaker-McClure-Gordon leadership of this alleged reform outfit determined that it would not be well for them to attempt to put an independent ticket in the field at this time and they called off their allies. The date for their gathering has not yet been fixed.

A K. McClure, who seeks to have his brother-in-law reelected to the board of revision of taxes in Philadelphia, and a few of his associates on the committee of the Union party, decided to call off the state convention of the Union party which was to nominate Judge Yerkes, Democrat, for supreme court justice, and E. A. Coray, Independent Republican, for state treasurer, until after the burial of the late President McKinley.

Recent developments, the universal denunciation of "yellow journalism" upon which the so-called Union party fattened and grew for a while, have put this ephemeral organization out of the pale of popular sympathy, and made it a thing to be loathed and abhorred.

"Republicanism, patriotism and Americanism" stand arrayed against "personal interest, Anarchy and yellow journalism" in Pennsylvania, as they do throughout this broad nation.

In this home of loyalty to the principles of the Republican party, no sympathizers of the Emma Goldman doctrine, nor any allies of her supporters, can hope for popular favor or support. THE CLUB LEAGUE CONVENTION.

President J. Hampton Moore, of the State League of Republican Clubs, has issued a proclamation postponing until a date to be determined by the executive committee of the organization the convention which was to have been held in Scranton on September 17 and 18, President Moore, in his notice to the members of the league, says:

"Our stricken President has passed away. He was the admired ruler of our nation and the accepted head of our great party. He was the idol of Republicans and the ideal of Americans. He had risen from the soil of his native land to be known and beloved by all mankind to the boundaries of civilization. It was left for the red hand of Anarchy alone to wrest from him his precious life and to plunge a happy nation into deep gloom.

"Sharing in the national pride that excited him, we had prepared in the regular course to raise our voice as Pennsylvania Republicans in praise of his public works. The frenzied hand of the assassin has changed it all.

"It is for the law and the American people to deal with this hideous crime and the causes actuating it; for us to drain our cup of sorrow with the mourning millions of American brethren, to frame our minds to nobler and nobler purposes in political and civic life and to guard, in future, against the shame and the peril of tolerance without reason.

"That which we had planned in support of the great principles of our President represented, must be stood aside with humility and reverence while we join respectfully in paying the last rites to the dead. Our tribute to the living must give away to the grief of the nation and to the homage which is due the memory of a great and powerful leader.

"By virtue of the authority vested in me as president of the State League of Republican Clubs, therefore, I declare a postponement of the 14th annual convention fixed to be held in the city of Scranton, September 17 and 18 next, until such time as the executive committee may determine, of which timely notice will be given.

"I furthermore recommend as a mark of respect to the memory of our dead President, that all clubs affiliated with the State League, drop their meeting places for a period of thirty days."

Both the state and city conventions of this mushroom political growth, known as the Union party, have been postponed. They were to have met on Thursday next and name candidates for state and city offices.

The Wanamaker-McClure-Gordon leadership of this alleged reform outfit determined that it would not be well for them to attempt to put an independent ticket in the field at this time and they called off their allies. The date for their gathering has not yet been fixed.

A K. McClure, who seeks to have his brother-in-law reelected to the board of revision of taxes in Philadelphia, and a few of his associates on the committee of the Union party, decided to call off the state convention of the Union party which was to nominate Judge Yerkes, Democrat, for supreme court justice, and E. A. Coray, Independent Republican, for state treasurer, until after the burial of the late President McKinley.

Recent developments, the universal denunciation of "yellow journalism" upon which the so-called Union party fattened and grew for a while, have put this ephemeral organization out of the pale of popular sympathy, and made it a thing to be loathed and abhorred.

"Republicanism, patriotism and Americanism" stand arrayed against "personal interest, Anarchy and yellow journalism" in Pennsylvania, as they do throughout this broad nation.

In this home of loyalty to the principles of the Republican party, no sympathizers of the Emma Goldman doctrine, nor any allies of her supporters, can hope for popular favor or support. THE CLUB LEAGUE CONVENTION.

President J. Hampton Moore, of the State League of Republican Clubs, has issued a proclamation postponing until a date to be determined by the executive committee of the organization the convention which was to have been held in Scranton on September 17 and 18, President Moore, in his notice to the members of the league, says:

SHOT BY SMALL BOY.

Archie Franklin, aged 12, killed a companion.

WASHINGTON, Pa., Sept. 14.—Coroner J. F. Fitzpatrick returned from Venice Thursday evening, where he made inquiry into the death of John Armstrong, the 7-year-old son of Artie Armstrong, who was killed by Archie Franklin, a 12-year-old boy. The verdict of the jury was accidental shooting, but the coroner will lay the facts before the district attorney for action.

It appears that the Armstrong children had been playing along the road, awaiting the return of their father. Young Franklin had gone to the pump-house near his home, and the father, having left a shotgun lying above the porch, the boy took it down. He placed the barrel across the rail of the porch and called to the Armstrong children to get out of the way. This they failed to do, and he pulled the trigger, but it did not go off. He pulled it again, and the gun worked.

The contents entered the body of John Armstrong, who was not over 12 feet distant from the muzzle of the gun. He was completely riddled to pieces, more than 80 shots being in his body. He lived but a few minutes. One of the little Armstrong girls testified that the Franklin boy did not call out to them while on the road. The Franklin boy says that he did the shooting to see if the gun was loaded.

MOB WENT FOR THEM.

Chief's Aid Saved President's Detractors From Harassment.

PUNXSUTAWNEY, Sept. 13.—Dr. Newell of Johnstown and C. J. and William Brown, woodmen, while coming north on the Buffalo, Rochester & Pittsburgh railroad Wednesday stirred up considerable trouble on the train by declaring that it was a pity that President McKinley had not been killed by Cook's gun. Their language became so offensive that trainmen resented it and the men suggested that the train be stopped and fight it.

When the train reached this place the men got off, fearing arrest if they continued their harrier. Their language was reported here, and Chief Palmer determined to punish them severely. Chief Palmer succeeded in arresting the three men before any harm was done to them.

LIKE ENOCH ARDEN.

York Man Cannot Explain His Twenty-Three Years' Absence.

YORK, Sept. 13.—Twenty-three years ago Daniel Overlander left this city, leaving behind a wife and three small children. The family looked in vain for his return and he was given up for dead. Wednesday he made his appearance in this city at the old hotel, only to find that his wife had died 18 years ago. One boy is still living.

His greeting was one of affection. He could not give any cause for his disappearance, but said that he had wandered every where and came from Colorado here.

EASY ON SCHOOL BOARDS.

Allowance For Unfamiliarity With Compulsory Education Law.

HARRISBURG, Sept. 13.—Attorney General Elin advised the department of public instruction, in a written opinion, that the compulsory education bill passed by the last legislature went into effect when it was approved, July 11, by Governor Stone.

Mr. Elin suggests that in the practical enforcement of the new law during the ensuing school year due allowance should be made for any deficiencies on the part of school boards or the people in the observance of its provisions, by reason of unfamiliarity with its requirements.

Wife Against Mother.

HOLLIDAYSBURG, Sept. 14.—A curious suit was entered in court here by Mrs. Emma Marks against the Pennsylvania Railroad company. The plaintiff is the widow of Robert Marks, a brakeman who lost his life on the railroad. The dead man's insurance, amounting to $500, was paid to his mother, who held the policy by the railroad relief department. The wife claims that the insurance policy was a bribe paid to her husband and that the woman was aware of the gift when she collected the money.

Coal Mines Near Jenners.

LAURELHINTOWN, Sept. 14.—Extensive coal operations are being made near Jenners, Somerset county. A town, expected to rival Windber has been started near the works, where the largest mine, engine and air compressor in the world will be used. The promoters propose the erection of brick residences for the employees of a branch of the Pennsylvania railroad from Johnstown.

Neck Broken by Fall.

SHARON, Pa., Sept. 13.—Thomas A. Hanna, prominent in Masonic circles in Western Pennsylvania, met a frightful death here Wednesday afternoon. He was working on a scaffold at the third story of a building, when he fell to the sidewalk, 40 feet below, breaking his neck and crushing his skull. He leaves a family.

Umbrella Responsible for Death.

LANCASTER, Sept. 13.—V. H. Steinkamp, a trackwalker on the Pennsylvania railroad, was struck by a train west of this city, Wednesday night and is instantly killed. He was walking toward the train, carrying an umbrella, and it is supposed the latter prevented him from seeing the approaching engine.

ITEMS IN BRIEF.

GREENSBURG—A freight wreck was caused on the Pennsylvania railroad at Stewart's station by the breaking of an axle on a coal train. Seventeen heavily loaded cars were in a heap. No one was injured.

JOHNSTOWN—James Weible of Allegheny, aged 25, was fatally injured at Bolivar. He was a brakeman on the West Penn railroad, and it is believed he fell from his train.

OIL CITY.—While leaning from his cab window at Sumner's James McClellan, a fireman on the Chesapeake and Ohio division of the Pennsylvania railroad, struck a high platform and was knocked from the engine, sustaining serious injuries.

A Certain Cure for Dysentery and Cholera.

"Some years ago I was one of a party that intended making a long bicycle trip," says F. L. Taylor, of New Albany, Bradford county, Pa. "I was taken suddenly with diarrhoea, and was about to give up the trip, when James McClellan's Laxative and Cholera Remedy, struck a dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I purchased a bottle and took two doses, one before starting and one on the route. I made the trip successfully and never felt any ill effect. Again last summer I was completely run down with an attack of dysentery. I bought a bottle of this same remedy and this time one dose cured me." Sold by Killmer Bros. Tionesta, and W. G. Wilkins West Hickory.

G. A. R. MEN ACT.

Colonel Fred Taylor Post Adopts Resolutions Denouncing Yellow Journalism.

Colonel Fred Taylor Post, G. A. R. of Philadelphia, has adopted resolutions which set forth:

"The comrades of Colonel Fred Taylor Post, No. 19, Grand Army of the Republic, record the fact that we deeply deplore and detest all such teaching and utterances that lead weak-minded and misguided creatures to pledged to help, aid and assist lawless authority to the fullest extent of our power, in putting a summary end to such treasonable utterances, whether made by Anarchists, Nihilists, Socialists, political leaders or editors of vicious and dangerous papers and magazines.

"We also enter upon record that we deplore and denounce the publication of the offensive and diabolical cartoons that appear in the most conspicuous places in sensational and unscrupulous newspapers, inflaming the minds of men and women to dastardly thoughts and deeds, and, in the interest of American law, order, peace, government and decency, we recommend the passage of the severest laws against all such pernicious journalism.

"And we also enter upon record our approval of the action of the mayor of Philadelphia and his director of public safety in resolutely prohibiting quite recently the Anarchistic agitator, Emma Goldman, from publicly promulgating in this city her infamous doctrines of treason to the state and nation—doctrines which lead to the assassination of those high in authority, and for no other reason than that they are the legally chosen representatives of law, order, peace and government."

Chinese Head Rests.

There are no pillows in Chinese beds. They have instead hollow square frames of rattan or bamboo or blocks of wood fashioned so that they fit the nape of the neck and support the head when lying on the side. People who have used these substitutes for pillows say they are much more comfortable than soft, hot feather or hair pillows, especially in warm weather.

Chinese Head Rests.

There are no pillows in Chinese beds. They have instead hollow square frames of rattan or bamboo or blocks of wood fashioned so that they fit the nape of the neck and support the head when lying on the side. People who have used these substitutes for pillows say they are much more comfortable than soft, hot feather or hair pillows, especially in warm weather.

Chinese Head Rests.

There are no pillows in Chinese beds. They have instead hollow square frames of rattan or bamboo or blocks of wood fashioned so that they fit the nape of the neck and support the head when lying on the side. People who have used these substitutes for pillows say they are much more comfortable than soft, hot feather or hair pillows, especially in warm weather.

Chinese Head Rests.

There are no pillows in Chinese beds. They have instead hollow square frames of rattan or bamboo or blocks of wood fashioned so that they fit the nape of the neck and support the head when lying on the side. People who have used these substitutes for pillows say they are much more comfortable than soft, hot feather or hair pillows, especially in warm weather.

Chinese Head Rests.

There are no pillows in Chinese beds. They have instead hollow square frames of rattan or bamboo or blocks of wood fashioned so that they fit the nape of the neck and support the head when lying on the side. People who have used these substitutes for pillows say they are much more comfortable than soft, hot feather or hair pillows, especially in warm weather.

Chinese Head Rests.

There are no pillows in Chinese beds. They have instead hollow square frames of rattan or bamboo or blocks of wood fashioned so that they fit the nape of the neck and support the head when lying on the side. People who have used these substitutes for pillows say they are much more comfortable than soft, hot feather or hair pillows, especially in warm weather.

Chinese Head Rests.

There are no pillows in Chinese beds. They have instead hollow square frames of rattan or bamboo or blocks of wood fashioned so that they fit the nape of the neck and support the head when lying on the side. People who have used these substitutes for pillows say they are much more comfortable than soft, hot feather or hair pillows, especially in warm weather.

Chinese Head Rests.

There are no pillows in Chinese beds. They have instead hollow square frames of rattan or bamboo or blocks of wood fashioned so that they fit the nape of the neck and support the head when lying on the side. People who have used these substitutes for pillows say they are much more comfortable than soft, hot feather or hair pillows, especially in warm weather.

Chinese Head Rests.

There are no pillows in Chinese beds. They have instead hollow square frames of rattan or bamboo or blocks of wood fashioned so that they fit the nape of the neck and support the head when lying on the side. People who have used these substitutes for pillows say they are much more comfortable than soft, hot feather or hair pillows, especially in warm weather.

Chinese Head Rests.

There are no pillows in Chinese beds. They have instead hollow square frames of rattan or bamboo or blocks of wood fashioned so that they fit the nape of the neck and support the head when lying on the side. People who have used these substitutes for pillows say they are much more comfortable than soft, hot feather or hair pillows, especially in warm weather.

Chinese Head Rests.

There are no pillows in Chinese beds. They have instead hollow square frames of rattan or bamboo or blocks of wood fashioned so that they fit the nape of the neck and support the head when lying on the side. People who have used these substitutes for pillows say they are much more comfortable than soft, hot feather or hair pillows, especially in warm weather.

Chinese Head Rests.

There are no pillows in Chinese beds. They have instead hollow square frames of rattan or bamboo or blocks of wood fashioned so that they fit the nape of the neck and support the head when lying on the side. People who have used these substitutes for pillows say they are much more comfortable than soft, hot feather or hair pillows, especially in warm weather.

Chinese Head Rests.

There are no pillows in Chinese beds. They have instead hollow square frames of rattan or bamboo or blocks of wood fashioned so that they fit the nape of the neck and support the head when lying on the side. People who have used these substitutes for pillows say they are much more comfortable than soft, hot feather or hair pillows, especially in warm weather.

Chinese Head Rests.

There are no pillows in Chinese beds. They have instead hollow square frames of rattan or bamboo or blocks of wood fashioned so that they fit the nape of the neck and support the head when lying on the side. People who have used these substitutes for pillows say they are much more comfortable than soft, hot feather or hair pillows, especially in warm weather.

Chinese Head Rests.

There are no pillows in Chinese beds. They have instead hollow square frames of rattan or bamboo or blocks of wood fashioned so that they fit the nape of the neck and support the head when lying on the side. People who have used these substitutes for pillows say they are much more comfortable than soft, hot feather or hair pillows, especially in warm weather.

Chinese Head Rests.

There are no pillows in Chinese beds. They have instead hollow square frames of rattan or bamboo or blocks of wood fashioned so that they fit the nape of the neck and support the head when lying on the side. People who have used these substitutes for pillows say they are much more comfortable than soft, hot feather or hair pillows, especially in warm weather.

Chinese Head Rests.

There are no pillows in Chinese beds. They have instead hollow square frames of rattan or bamboo or blocks of wood fashioned so that they fit the nape of the neck and support the head when lying on the side. People who have used these substitutes for pillows say they are much more comfortable than soft, hot feather or hair pillows, especially in warm weather.

Chinese Head Rests.

There are no pillows in Chinese beds. They have instead hollow square frames of rattan or bamboo or blocks of wood fashioned so that they fit the nape of the neck and support the head when lying on the side. People who have used these substitutes for pillows say they are much more comfortable than soft, hot feather or hair pillows, especially in warm weather.

Chinese Head Rests.

There are no pillows in Chinese beds. They have instead hollow square frames of rattan or bamboo or blocks of wood fashioned so that they fit the nape of the neck and support the head when lying on the side. People who have used these substitutes for pillows say they are much more comfortable than soft, hot feather or hair pillows, especially in warm weather.

Chinese Head Rests.

There are no pillows in Chinese beds. They have instead hollow square frames of rattan or bamboo or blocks of wood fashioned so that they fit the nape of the neck and support the head when lying on the side. People who have used these substitutes for pillows say they are much more comfortable than soft, hot feather or hair pillows, especially in warm weather.

Chinese Head Rests.

There are no pillows in Chinese beds. They have instead hollow square frames of rattan or bamboo or blocks of wood fashioned so that they fit the nape of the neck and support the head when lying on the side. People who have used these substitutes for pillows say they are much more comfortable than soft, hot feather or hair pillows, especially in warm weather.

Chinese Head Rests.

There are no pillows in Chinese beds. They have instead hollow square frames of rattan or bamboo or blocks of wood fashioned so that they fit the nape of the neck and support the head when lying on the side. People who have used these substitutes for pillows say they are much more comfortable than soft, hot feather or hair pillows, especially in warm weather.

Chinese Head Rests.

There are no pillows in Chinese beds. They have instead hollow square frames of rattan or bamboo or blocks of wood fashioned so that they fit the nape of the neck and support the head when lying on the side. People who have used these substitutes for pillows say they are much more comfortable than soft, hot feather or hair pillows, especially in warm weather.

Chinese Head Rests.

There are no pillows in Chinese beds. They have instead hollow square frames of rattan or bamboo or blocks of wood fashioned so that they fit the nape of the neck and support the head when lying on the side. People who have used these substitutes for pillows say they are much more comfortable than soft, hot feather or hair pillows, especially in warm weather.

Chinese Head Rests.

There are no pillows in Chinese beds. They have instead hollow square frames of rattan or bamboo or blocks of wood fashioned so that they fit the nape of the neck and support the head when lying on the side. People who have used these substitutes for pillows say they are much more comfortable than soft, hot feather or hair pillows, especially in warm weather.

Chinese Head Rests.

There are no pillows in Chinese beds. They have instead hollow square frames of rattan or bamboo or blocks of wood fashioned so that they fit the nape of the neck and support the head when lying on the side. People who have used these substitutes for pillows say they are much more comfortable than soft, hot feather or hair pillows, especially in warm weather.

Chinese Head Rests.

There are no pillows in Chinese beds. They have instead hollow square frames of rattan or bamboo or blocks of wood fashioned so that they fit the nape of the neck and support the head when lying on the side. People who have used these substitutes for pillows say they are much more comfortable than soft, hot feather or hair pillows, especially in warm weather.

Chinese Head Rests.

There are no pillows in Chinese beds. They have instead hollow square frames of rattan or bamboo or blocks of wood fashioned so that they fit the nape of the neck and support the head when lying on the side. People who have used these substitutes for pillows say they are much more comfortable than soft, hot feather or hair pillows, especially in warm weather.

SHERIFF'S SALE.

BY VIRTUE of a writ of Fieri Facias, issued out of the Court of Common Pleas of Forest County, Pennsylvania, and to me directed, there will be exposed to sale by public vendue or outcry, at the Court House, in the Borough of Tionesta, Forest County, Pa., on MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 23, A. D. 1901, at one o'clock p. m. the following described real estate, to-wit:

G. W. ROBINSON, vs. L. B. WRAY, Fieri Facias, No. 4, September Term, 1901. (Waivers).—S. D. Irwin, Attorney.

All defendant's right, title, interest and claim of, in and to all that certain piece of land in Jenks township, Forest Co., Penn'a, bounded north by Robinson & Bonner, formerly Dr. Fulton; east by Shipps, south by Conlic road, and west by Shipps, formerly Robinson. Containing sixty acres more or less. Being same land conveyed by G. W. Robinson and C. Bonner to L. B. Wray, by deed dated April 3, 1891, recorded in deed book No. 25, page 13, as by reference thereto will fully and at large appear. About 33 acres improved land, on which is erected one two-story house 18x24 feet, weather-boarded and painted, with "L" on house one story 16x20 feet; one new barn 24x34 feet; one old barn 16x20 feet, and other outbuildings; also contains water well, good spring and young orchard.

Taken in execution and to be sold as the property of L. B. Wray at the suit of G. W. Robinson.

ALSO.

J. A. AULT vs. C. M. WHITEMAN, Fieri Facias, No. 14, September term, 1901. (Waivers).—S. D. Irwin, attorney.

All defendant's right, title, interest and claim of, in and to all that certain lot in Tionesta township, Forest county, Penn'a, bounded and described as follows: Beginning at an iron post on line of right-of-way of the N. Y. & P. R. Co., near depot at Tionesta station, and a few feet from the corner of the store building formerly occupied by J. F. Overlander; thence at right angles with said R. R. westerly direction to line of public road; thence along said public road northerly 41 feet to a post; thence easterly 10 feet to a post; thence southerly 10 feet to the said R. R. right-of-way; thence down said R. R. right-of-way 31 feet to the place of beginning; being 31 feet on said R. R. and back to public road, and being 31 feet on public road, and 10 feet square 30 feet on the north-west corner of and against said lot. Also a piece of land directly opposite said described lot across said R. R. and next the Allegheny river, being a strip 31 feet wide, bounded on the north and south by lands now or formerly J. F. Overlander, on the west by said R. R., and east by the Allegheny river, and being same lots conveyed by said Overlander to C. M. Whiteman by deed dated April 25, 1893, recorded in deed book No. 25, page 44.

Also a certain lot in Tionesta township Forest county, Pa., described as follows, viz: Beginning at a butternut on the west bank of Hunter run; thence north 69 degrees east 3 rods to a butternut by road-side; thence by mill lot by road-side north 5 degrees west 25 rods to an ash stub; p. by road-side; thence north 62 degrees west 4-10 rods to a post on west bank of Hunter run; thence down said bank of Hunter run by its courses and distances to place of beginning. Containing 1.6 of an acre or same more or less, on which stands frame barn; being same land described in deed of C. M. Whiteman and wife to C. M. Whiteman, dated June 6, 1894, and recorded Oct. 2, 1894, in deed book No. 26, page 147, &c.

Erected on lot described lot—one two-story house 28x38 feet with store room in front, house weatherboarded and painted, with ice house attached and water in house. Also barn on last described lot 18x28 feet and in good condition.

Taken in execution and to be sold as the property of C. M. Whiteman at the suit of J. A. Ault.

TERMS OF SALE.—The following must be strictly complied with when the property is struck down:

1. When the plaintiff or other lien creditors become the purchaser, the costs on the writ and on the Company, Incorporated, will be added to the purchase price.
2. All sales not settled (immediately) will be held until 3 o'clock p. m. of the next day, at which time all property not settled by will be put up and sold at the expense and risk of the person to whom first sold.
3. See Purdon's Digest, Ninth Edition, page 446 and Smith's Forms, page 384.

J. W. JAMESON, Sheriff. Sheriff's Office, Tionesta, Pa., August 30, 1901.

Notice is hereby given that I, the undersigned Treasurer of the Tionesta Manufacturing Company, Incorporated, will expose to sale, by public vendue at the office of said company in Tionesta, Forest Co., Pa., on Sept. 30, 1901, at 1 o'clock p. m., the shares, or a sufficient number thereof, of stock of the persons hereafter named, who are the proprietors thereof, in the said Tionesta Manufacturing Company, Incorporated, and who have failed to pay the sums duly assessed thereon for the space of thirty days, to pay the assessments due, and hereinafter mentioned, with the necessary and incidental charges thereon, as per clause two of Sec. 39, of the incorporation act of 1874.

SCHEDULE OF DELINQUENTS.

T. J. Gillen, 22 shares, due on each share, $15.00.

J. H. Butler, 2 shares, due on each share, $25.00.

Charles Knott, 22 shares, due on each share, $15.00.

Alex Swanson, 19 shares, due on each share, $25.00.

F. W. Swanson, 19 shares, due on each share, $25.00.

C. F. Weaver, 13 shares, due on each share, $25.00.

F. E. Dick, 1 share due on each share, $15.00.

J. M. Brody, 22 shares, due on each share, $15.00.

Alexander, Peters & Wakeloe, 130 shares, due on each share, $25.00.

R. F. Alexander, 10 shares, due on each share, $25.00.

C. M. Arner, 5 shares, due on each share, $25.00.

F. P. Amser, 4 shares, due on each share, $25.00.

Geo. H. Elliott, 10 shares, due on each share, $25.00.

Samuel Farmer, 1 share, due on each share, $25.00.

John Gold, 10 shares, due on each share, $25.00.

G. E. Gerow, 5 shares, due on each share, $45.00.

M. Burdel, 1 share, due on each share, $25.00.

O. W. Oram, 1 share, due on each share, $45.00.

A. B. Kelly, Treasurer, Sept. 3, 1901.

THE OLD RELIABLE

LIVERY STABLE, TIONESTA, - PENN.

S. S. CANFIELD, PROPRIETOR.

Good Stock, Good Carriages and Buggies to let upon the most reasonable terms. He will also do

JOB TEAMING—All orders left at the Post Office will receive prompt attention.

A. C. UREY, LIVERY STABLE.

Feed & Sale STABLE.

Fine Turnouts at All Times at Reasonable Rates.

Rear of Hotel Weaver TIONESTA, PA.

Telephone No. 20.

Pennsylvania RAILROAD.

BUFFALO AND ALLEGHENY VALLEY DIVISION.

Taking effect, May 28, 1