

THE FOREST REPUBLICAN.

J. E. WENK, Editor & Proprietor.

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 2, 1901

Calendar table for October 1901 with columns for Su, Mo, Tu, We, Th, Fr, Sa and rows for dates 6-31.

REPUBLICAN TICKET.

STATE. Justice of the Supreme Court, WM. T. POTTER, of Allegheny. State Treasurer, FRANK G. HARRIS, of Clearfield.

COUNTY. County Treasurer, CALVIN M. ARNER, Tionesta.

If President Roosevelt can make American history as well as he has written it the people will be satisfied.

The yellow newspapers are the representatives of illintention speech and a press so free that it has become reckless and rotten.

EMMA GOLDMAN says she has been invited to write for several prominent monthlies. Are there to be yellow magazines also?

NO DOUBT many Congressmen are at work on a law to deal with anarchy. The country looks for a thorough measure to root out the assassins.

TWO ANARCHIST papers in Germany have been forced to suspend publication. Neither was as vile as an average yellow paper in the United States.

"THE Boers are retreating," says a dispatch from South Africa. But they are carrying away British prisoners and guns, an incident not associated with defeat.

EVERY Republican in Forest county should know that his State or County tax has been paid on or before next Saturday. That's the latest date in order to make sure of your vote this fall.

IN THERE one free-trader or tax reformer in this wide land who would be willing to put the country back into the same condition it was in when the ballots were counted in November, 1896?

ANARCHISTS are glad to give the life of one of their members for the life of President McKinley. Assassination will continue and increase if no greater penalty is exacted. Stamp out the murderers.

CONGRESS will, very properly, bear all the expenses of the medical attendance and funeral of the late President McKinley. The same course was pursued with regard to the expenses attending the illness and death of President Garfield.

THE Democrats have nominated Mr. Hanna as the Republican candidate for President several years hence. Now if they could agree upon a candidate for their own party and one with any show for being elected how nice it would be!

THERE are a few new ones that seem willing to sacrifice themselves for the good of the cause in offering themselves as candidates for Governor on the Republican ticket next year, the latest pair being ex-Lt. Gov. Waters and Congressman Connell, both of Scranton. It's a relief to know that it won't be necessary to hunt around for timber.

AMERICA is still ahead. In the great yacht race last Saturday the Yankee boat Columbia nosed in ahead of the English challenger, Shamrock II, but the race was close enough to make it awful interesting. There was not sufficient breeze yesterday for a race. The Americans are none too sanguine of retaining the cup of which they have held unbroken possession for over fifty years.

STRANGELY rapid at times are the mutations of government in this country. When the regiment of rough riders was organized for the war with Spain its members little thought that within little more than three years their colonel would be military governor of Cuba and their lieutenant colonel be the President of the United States. President Roosevelt and Gen. Wood have just been in consultation as to the progress of Cuba toward self-government, and they are the two men most potential in guiding the island through its probation. The cowboy regiment occupies a unique place in history.

ONLY words of sympathy have come from the south in regard to the assassination of President McKinley. It is fortunate that section that the murderer is not a Southern man. Anarchism is scarcely heard of in that part of the country and would not be tolerated there if it appeared. The affection for the late President was sincere through the Southern States. He was appreciated as a statesman as well as liked as a man. His happy influence upon all sections will not be lost. McKinley's great mission was, in the main, completed, and is an element of strength in the future of a united country.

Right Reciprocity Welcome. The Philadelphia Bulletin says that some of the reciprocity treaties ought to be ratified to convince the Old World that we are disposed to live and let live, and add:

The course is all the more expedient because the proposed treaties provide chiefly for the admission of foreign commodities which cannot profitably be produced in America and in return for a similar concession toward American products for which foreign outlets are desirable.

Restricted to that description reciprocity would be unobjectionable, but the French and Argentine treaties do no come under that head. They propose the admission of wools that compete with our own and hosiery to displace that of American make. If the Bulletin means just what it says, we say bring on your reciprocity in accordance with the Republican platform.

A Cure for Anarchy.

President McKinley's own idea about anarchy was that it could only be overcome by instilling into the minds of the people in general an intense love of country. He fully agreed with those who claim that anything that tends to rob the people of their confidence in the government and their respect for its institutions, promotes and encourages anarchy. In an address delivered at Cleveland, Ohio, in 1894, William McKinley enlarged upon this idea. He said:

"With patriotism in our hearts and the flag of our country in our hands, there is no room for anarchy, and there is no danger to the American Union. We are the freest government on earth. Our strength rests in our patriotism. Anarchy flies before patriotism. Peace and order and security and liberty are safe so long as love of country lures in the hearts of the people. It should not be forgotten, however, that liberty does not mean lawlessness. Liberty to make our own laws does not give us license to break them. Liberty to make our own laws commands a duty to observe them ourselves and enforce obedience among all others within their jurisdiction. Liberty, my fellow citizens, is responsibility, and responsibility is duty, and that duty is to preserve the exceptional liberty we enjoy within the law and for the law and by the law."

This language is a rebuke to all who seek, by editorial, cartoon or speech, to breed contempt of authority or to undermine our love of country.

Attacking Frank G. Harris. About two weeks ago a dispatch purporting to be from Clearfield was printed in the Philadelphia North American helping the coarsest and most venal abuse on Hon. Frank G. Harris, Republican candidate for State Treasurer. The alleged dispatch was headed "Harris as Seen by His Neighbors," and was taken from the Clearfield Republican. The North American's introduction to the alleged telegram was as follows:

"In an editorial leader the Clearfield Republican, one of the most widely read Republican newspapers in Central Pennsylvania, pays his respects to Representative Harris, machine jobber and candidate for state treasurer."

Of course the North American knows the Clearfield Republican is a rabidly Democratic paper, and has always been so. It has long been noted for its fierce attacks on Republican candidates and Republican doctrines, and its partisan bitterness has become so commonplace that to those best acquainted with that paper its denunciations of a Republican is regarded as a compliment than otherwise. Newspapers that resort to slander and venality to influence votes are not calculated either to elevate public morals or to improve the public service. Their wild exaggeration and vituperative language are so plainly inspired by malice and selfishness that no man of sober judgment can read them without disgust. It is easy to discern what is prompted by love of country and what is the product of party or factional prejudice and self-seeking bitterness. The ridiculous things that are said of Frank G. Harris will not deceive anybody. Everybody in Clearfield knows that his character is above reproach, that he is a man of sterling integrity and high instinct of honor, and the reputation a man has among good men at home is likely to be the criterion by which an honest public will judge him.—Punny Spirit.

The editor of the Spirit, who has a personal acquaintance with Mr. Harris, speaks only the plainest of truth when he upholds the honesty of the Clearfield gentleman. No man who has a spark of honor left in his make-up will attempt to besmear the good name of one against whose public career not a word of dishonor can truthfully be said. And no one not even his bitterest enemy would utter a word of reproach against Frank Harris were he not a candidate for an important office. Only hyenas resort to such tactics.

Free Methodist Appointments. Oil City conference of the F. M. church met in Youngsville last week. Following are some of the ministerial appointments:

McClelland; Rixford, Emma Ellison; F. E. Glass, left without appointment owing to ill health. Rev. C. H. Miller is also left without an appointment at his own request.

Court Minutes. When our report of court proceedings closed last week the case of O. W. Propper vs. The Tionesta Gas Co. and others was on trial. The case resulted in the plaintiff being non-suited.

Case of Snowden et al vs. Piquignot et al, was amicably settled, the basis of settlement we understand being that each party to the suit taking half the property in dispute, which is a valuable oil lease located in the vicinity of Trunkeyville station on the P. R. R.

The damage suit of Caroline Simonson, by her next friend and mother, Katie Simonson, vs. Marion and G. E. Gerow resulted in a verdict for the plaintiff for $500. The case arises from injury done to plaintiff by the bite of a dog owned by the defendants.

RECENT DEATHS.

ELSCHLAGER. Mrs. Margaret Elschlager, died at the home of her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Fred Elschlager, on Liberty street, Clarion, Pa., last Sunday, Sept. 22, 1901, at the advanced age of 85 years, 10 months and 15 days, and her remains were interred at Emanuel Lutheran church, Shippenville, last Tuesday, Rev. A. F. Rohr, pastor, officiating.

The deceased was born at Wurtemberg, Germany, Nov. 7, 1815, and came to America in 1833. She was married to Philip Elschlager in 1836. To them were born ten children, four of whom are living, as follows: Rev. C. L. Elschlager, Richmond Va.; Mrs. Elizabeth Krautzer, Kittanning; Mrs. Mary Blum, Tionesta, Pa.; and Mrs. Margaret Pfinger, Columbus, Ohio. Her husband died two years ago.

The deceased was not sick long—only about nine days—and seemed to suffer from no disease, her death being due to old age, the body having worn out.—Clarion Democrat.

Mrs. Blum was with her mother in her last illness and attended the funeral on Tuesday of last week.

SIVERLY.

The Derrick of yesterday gives the following sketch of the life of a worthy citizen who was well known to many of our people, his widow being a former Tionesta lady, and aunt of our townsman, Jas. H. Fones:

Walter Siverly, grandson of Abraham G. Siverly, who settled here in 1819, and in whose honor the borough of Siverly was named, died at the family residence at Siverly borough shortly after midnight on Sunday from paralysis which attacked him suddenly on last Friday at noon. The deceased had been under a physician's care for the past two years and his death was not unexpected.

He was a man of unusual kindness of heart and his acts of unostentatious charity were many. His was of the higher type of Christian life and virtues, and of his best and most universally respected citizens.

Mr. Siverly was born January 29, 1832, at Newtown then a part of Venango county but now of Forest county, 69 years ago. In his early life he assisted his father in farming and later engaged in the same profession himself. Then lumbering, which was one of the industries of this section previous to the oil excitement, claimed his attention, and he engaged successfully in that business and later was a producer of oil in this immediate vicinity. During the speculative oil excitement he was a member of the Oil City Oil exchange and engaged in both speculative and brokerage branches of the business.

Mr. Siverly was widely known in scientific circles on account of his inherited talent as a mathematician. Problems that had puzzled the best have been sent to him for solution and articles upon the higher branches of mathematics contributed by him have appeared in the leading scientific works and periodicals in the old and new world. In 1888 the honorary degree of Doctor of Philosophy was conferred upon him by the North Carolina college of the Evangelical church.

On December 8, 1879, he was married to Miss Lucy Diamond of Oregon, Chautauqua county, N. Y., by whom he is survived. He was a member of Trinity M. E. church, and Rev. Thomas R. Theobald, pastor of that church, assisted by Rev. Boyd F. Williams, pastor of the first Presbyterian church, will conduct the funeral services at the house at 2 o'clock on Wednesday afternoon.

Letter to S. M. Henry.

Tionesta, Pa. Dear Sir: Did you know that there is twice as much paint in a gallon of Devco lead and zinc as there is in a gallon of some of the mixed paints?

Ferguson & Thompson's store, Delhi, N. Y., was painted some years ago with a mixed paint—30¢ 32 gallons. Repainted last spring with Devco.

Mr. Lynch, our agent, said 16 gallons would be enough. They had 3 gallons left.

Yours truly, F. W. DEVCO & Co. P. S.—James D. Davis sells our paint in your section.

Stricken With Paralysis.

Henderson Grimet, of this place, was stricken with partial paralysis and completely lost the use of one arm and side. After being treated by an eminent physician for quite a while without a relief, my wife recommended Chamberlain's Pain Balm, and after using two bottles of it he is almost entirely cured.—Geo. E. McDonald, Man, Logan county, W. Va. Several other very remarkable cures of partial paralysis have been effected by the use of this liniment. It is most widely known, however, as a cure for rheumatism, sprains and Bruises. Sold by Killmer Bros. Tionesta, and W. G. Wilkins, West Hickory.

IS LIFE WORTH LIVING?

Then don't neglect a cough or cold, especially when only twenty-five cents will buy a bottle of Mexican Syrup. It is so soothing, and so many consumptives have been made well by its use. Read some of the testimonials on the wrapper around each bottle that prove this remedy more sure for deep seated colds, habitual coughing and even consumption, than any other remedy known to physicians many of whom recommend it and where less efficacious remedies fail.

Pain, Puny Children. If a child has a bad smelling breath, if it habitually picks its nose, if it is cross and nervous, if it does not sleep soundly, if it is hollow-eyed, if it has a pale, bloodless complexion, if it is growing thin and feeble, give it Mother's Warm Syrup and you will remove the cause of its distress quickly. Then will its little cheeks get red and rosy, its appetite and digest. ion improve, and its health be better. Price only 25 cents. No other worm-killer so effective.

A Typical South African Store.

O. R. Larson, of Bay Villa, Sundays River, Cape Colony, conducts a store typical of South Africa, at which can be purchased anything from the proverbial "needle to an anchor." This store is situated in a valley nine miles from the nearest railway station and about twenty miles from the nearest town. Mr. Larson says: "I am favored with the custom of farmers within a radius of thirty miles, many of whom I have supplied Chamberlain's remedies. All thanks to their value in a household where a doctor's advice is almost out of the question. Within one mile of my store the population is perhaps sixty. Of these, within the past twelve months, no less than fourteen have been absolutely cured by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. This must surely be a record." For sale by Killmer Bros. Tionesta, and W. G. Wilkins West Hickory.

Women and Jewels.

Jewels, candy, flowers, man—that is the order of a woman's preferences. Jewels form a magnet of mighty power to the average woman. Even that greatest of all jewels, health, is often ruined in the strenuous efforts to make or save the money to purchase them. If a woman will risk her health to get a coveted gem, then let her fortify herself against the insidious consequences of coughs, colds and bronchitis by the regular use of Dr. Ross' German Syrup. It will promptly arrest consumption in its early stages and heal the affected lungs and bronchial tubes and drive the dread disease from the system. It is not a cure-all, but it is a certain cure for coughs, colds and all bronchial troubles. Get Green's Special Almanac.

The excitement incident to traveling and change of food and water often brings on diarrhoea, and for this reason no one should leave home without Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. For sale by Killmer Bros. Tionesta, and W. G. Wilkins, West Hickory.

All laws regulating the holding of elections by the citizens or for the registration of electors shall be uniform throughout the State, but laws regulating and requiring the registration of electors may be enacted to apply to cities only, provided that such laws be uniform for cities of the same class.
